It was the poster at top, of the bearded man in a pink gown behaving like a queen and holding a sign saying "Not every boy wants to be a soldier". A timely message for today. The two recent U.S. wars were costly for our nation, to put it lightly. They led to domestic devastation of country. No matter what Defense Secretary or POTUS are saying they don't fool me with promises of gay military equality as key to the nation's agenda. Better talk to me about cutting DoD's budget, FOLKS. #lgbt #USarmy #CrossDress #GaySoldier #Obama #DefenseBudget #StopWar

Each time we die, many of your people, and those who stand by you, justify the taking of our lives, because they believe we are not human, and are not worthy of life. Why should we be a target for police violence and harassment?

Ad Text	Race war started by Texas teacher A Texas fourth-grade teacher Karen Fitzgibbons published a racial Facebook post in which she confirmed that Black people are responsible for racial tensions in the USA. Moreover she claimed that she is “almost to the point” of defending the segregation. After her post about the recent pool party incident drew local attention, the teacher deleted her profile. “This makes me ANGRY! This officer should not have had to resign. I’m going to just go ahead and say it….the blacks are the ones causing the problems and this ‘racial tension. I guess that’s what happens when you flunk out of school and have no education. I’m sure their parents are just as guilty for not knowing what their kids were doing; or knew it and didn’t care,” she wrote. She also added,“I’m almost to the point of wanting them all segregated on one side of town so they can hurt each other and leave the innocent people alone. Maybe the 50s and 60s were really on to something. Now, let the bashing of my true and honest opinion begin….GO! #imnotracist #imsickofthemcausingtrouble #itwasagatedcommunity”. As we see Karen Fitzgibbons is a real racist, who approves the humiliation of black people! This news clearly reflects that American society is close to collapse, if not to say to war. As the authorities are doing nothing to resolve the situation, in the near future we may face real race war within our country.

"Bikers-patriots" want to descend on the McKinney Police HQ in a show of solidarity for the police because race-baiters and cop-haters. They plan to have "the biggest thing to happen in Patriot Movement since the Bundy Ranch victory!" It seems like we won't get into "post-racial America".... this event and the regular murder of innocent Black children by white supremacist police and citizens makes that clear. The modern government has brought racist America to the forefront, good or bad. This is something that America has a serious issue with - RACISM! Is it time to call out the national guard?

Both parents of Rachel Dolezal are white. Rachel Dolezal also serves as the chair of Spokane's Office of Police Ombudsman Commission and is an adjunct professor of Africana Studies at Eastern Washington University. Dolezal falsely identified herself as African-American in order to be appointed as a chair. Dolezal's parents paid attention to the official documents, including a birth certificate, confirming that Rachel is part Swedish, Czech, and German with "traces" of Native American heritage. We see, how whites are trying to gain control over traditionally black organization that protects the rights and interests of the black community. In the Dolezal’s case it is unlikely it was a mistake or personally motivated fraud. Simply she was given a task to join the association of black community in order to control it and hold the interests of white majority. We need a deep inspection of Rachel Dolezal’s activities while she was a president of the local branch of the Association of black people! In order not to repeat similar cases in future we need a careful control of all appointments by black community! As it is, there is a dominance of whites in police departments and authorities of cities with a predominantly black population!

His revolutionary knowledge mixed with street experience made him powerful unstoppable force that spoke to the hearts of millions of people. His songs touch on a number of engaging topics, including religion, women, oppression, etc. 2Pac was a humanitarian, who stood up for those who couldn't stand up for themselves. He believed in Fight and Speaking the Truth. Nowadays a lot of singers, both black and white use their music to sell records, just for making money. American society at all levels became too corruptive, starting from our government and ending with ordinary citizens. On the contrary Tupac did his music to influence the world. That's why he spoke to issues of poverty, oppression and racism. Today young African-Americans have fallen under bad influence of money, drugs and so on. Yeah, it is all started from the government's attitude towards Blacks. But let's remember Tupac and his ability to question the social order. Changes, one of his popular songs, asks everyone to change their lifestyles for better society. He always asked people to share with each other and to learn to love each other.

The greatest of all time rapper is known not only for his music but for the wise words he spoke and his strength in standing up against oppression. His real name was Lesane Parish Crooks. Shakur was only 25 years old at the time he was shot and killed in 1996. His killer has never been caught. We will never forget 2Pac. Today we remember him on what would've been his 44th Birthday.

Ad Text	No national outrage for an incident at pool party where a black teen was shot to death Today, the pool party in Georgia is even more shocking than a recent pool party in Texas. A young man from Georgia was shot to death at a pool party at Fayette. It was an advertised on social 200 teenager's pool party which ended up with shootings of unknown assailant for unknown reasons. One of the five injured, a 19-year-old black teenager Clanton passed away on the way to hospital. In fact, the media has not made a transparent effort to cover up the incident. Why the pool party in Georgia is a silent story? Why the police was not aware of a large party? Why this story has no national outrage? Is it ok when a black teenager dies? Unfortunately, the responding police officers were not able to prevent the tragedy. From these facts one might conclude, police officers know the easiest ways to arrest people, but they are irresponsible to avoid the shootings at the average pool party.

Witnesses reported that the cop tried to force them to delete videos from their phones. Videos show how the child writhes in agony from being tased. Police said that the child ran away from home and was missing for a day-and-half. However it doesn't give the reason to taser a child. We see another case of police misconduct, when the policeman actually attacked the child. This case should reach the court, because the child hasn't done anything unlawful. The policeman exceeded his powers and used force against a child. So he should be punished. Before the trial nothing's gonna change and cops are about to do whatever they want. The task of all Americans who have witnessed police brutality is to extend all the information about it in order to reach out the government and the court.

Since January 1, 2015 at least 508 people have now been killed by policemen. Moreover, analyzing all deaths caused by police, African-American and Hispanic people are more likely to be killed than Whites. Figures show that the index of deaths for black people is 3.45 per million, while for whites it is 1.26 per million. Add here military-style equipment and non-lethal weapons, given to cops. And only 0.02 per cent of the nation’s police forces are investigated each year. Only 0.02! That means, US policemen are immune from criminal changes in their killings. That’s why they carry out their daily police raids to destroy the population at the territories under their control.

The young clean-shaved shooter walked in during a prayer meeting and started shooting the people. Charleston Police Chief Greg Mullen said that the incident would be investigated as hate crime. Emanuel AME Church is a historically Africa-American church which was found by Denmark Vesey in order to organize a slave revolt in 1822. Despite the first black American president, Africa-Americans remain the most common victims of hate crimes. But what if the hate crime relates to xenophobia? American xenophobia is based on the dominant white heritage that is giving birth to another form of hate and discrimination. These forms take another level of hate. Unfortunately, American tolerance is not what we think it is. US public is swapping patriotism for nationalism, tolerance for Islamophobia, racism and anti-immigrant sentiment. For instance, last February American gunman killed three young Muslims two miles away from the University of North Carolina campus. Was this gunman motivated by hate and intolerance? Should we expect for more hate-crimes? What if American racial change still occurs through generations? What of it racism happens due to unequal opportunities? What if America is still a deeply racist country? What if the church is not a safe place anymore? #CharlestonShooting #chsnews

The criticism towards Dolezal stems controversy around her identity and her position as the president of the NAACP in Washington. Today, Dolezal sees herself as first transracial. Rachel Dolezal stated that her racial identity was black, American Indian, white and two more races. Moreover if she proves that she is black, than anyone else will be able to prove that he/she is not even a human being. What do you think about her? What kind of rights should she have?

According to the family`s testimony, Krystal Dixon and her sister Maya Dixon took their eight children, nephews and nieces to Ohio public school in a Fairfield. Nevertheless, the pool employee demanded the family to leave due to one of the children did not have swim trunks. One of the boys broke the rules and the staff asked the family to leave. As six-months pregnant Krystal Dixon walked to the parking lot, the police officer grabbed her arm and asked for an ID-card. The witness video shows how the police officer pepper sprayed Dixon`s family and grabbed 12-year-old child by neck. But according to the Fairfield police department, the white police officer did not use excessive force. Did the pool staff force them to leave because they were black? Was it a race factor? Don`t you think the police officer`s attempt to arrest Krystal Dixon was unlawful? How the police officers should be charged? What kind of right of defense do you have against unlawful arrests? These days, there is far more to being a “good cop” than choosing not to hurt innocent people. Plus, when are we going to stop being stereotypical? Even today, the stereotypes effect black population of the United States of America transmitted through music, lyrics, titles, literature, movies and folk saying. White Americans across the country embrace African-Americans the image of criminals and looters. How are we going to live with that?

Church opened its doors for the first service following the killing of nine of its congregants Wednesday, thousands in Charleston took to the streets in a show of support and solidarity. Observers on the bridge, and thousands more at the base, joined hands to create a "unity chain," then held a moment of silence that lasted five minutes in honor of the fallen. Police estimated that 10,000 to 15,000 took part in Sunday’s gathering, according to the Post and Courier. Cars drove slowly past the bridge, taking in the sight and honking horns in solidarity as people chanted “Charleston strong!” Throughout history people start to unite only when they face danger or when they're in times of great sorrow. Modern America is accustomed to meet only imaginary dangers, however, Americans are getting more and more reasons to sorrow over something day by day. Does it mean that the key to the unity of 330 million Americans is constant fear and unending sorrow? Does it mean that only this can make Americans unite and forget about the infighting and differences? Unfortunately, yes, it does.

The Coptic Museum in Cairo, Egypt owns the earliest painting of Jesus Christ in the Church of Rome (6th century) where skin color of Jesus was black.

Ad Text	A small group of activists burned two confederate flags in response to shooting in Charleston, South Carolina. Why the symbol of the pro-slavery rebellion is still flying on the ground of South Carolina? Why the symbol of white supremacy is still flying on the South Carolina statehouse in Columbia? Why the flag that represents the murder of blacks was not removed from the national statehouse? The confederate flag represents terrorism, reminding us about the slavery time, racism and people that were murdered in a hate-crime. Today, we ask to remove this symbol of racism that flies 120 miles away from the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston. Yes, we must wipe off every single symbol of racism from the United States of America including the confederate flag, KKK and other racist organizations. We must give new names to the streets which were named after racist political figures and slave traders. We must remove monuments dedicated to Andrew Jackson, Robert Lee, Benjamin Huger, James Longstreet who owned slaves on their farms. How can we ever expect to get the racist symbols removed until we show ourselves to be men the same as any other race of men?

The McKinney Police Department, Chief Of Police Greg Conley said that Casebolt's decision to leave was voluntary and that he would continue to collect a pension and benefits. Why are the police so aggressive? It's in every state around the country. The young girl at the pool party was treated horrible. Our society needs police, good police, people who will solve crimes but, unfortunately, today we need someone who will protect us from the police. At the same time, it is good that millions of regular people got a glimpse of what kind of policing minorities have endured for decades.

West criticized Obama as "a person who is afraid and intimidated when it comes to putting a spotlight on white supremacy." "A niggerized black person is a black person who is afraid and scared and intimidated when it comes to putting a spotlight on white supremacy and fighting against white supremacy," West explained. "So when many of us said we have to fight against racism, what were we told? 'No, he can't deal with racism because he has other issues, political calculations. He's the president of all America, not just black America.' We know he's president of all America but white supremacy is American as cherry pie." West is right as usual. African minorities would choose Mr. West in 2009 and 2012 instead of Obama. But we had no choice. Cornel is a good leader, he knows what black community is suffering from. Obama was promoted by big corporations owned by white people. Obama never tried to protect blacks from police pressure, never tried to stop police violence against blacks. Just count how many black lives were destroyed during his presidency. The number is horrific.

The autopsy report suggested that Gray may have attempted to stand up during the van ride, and that the injury could have occurred as he was thrown against the van wall when the vehicle changed direction. Like really? When police took Gray to the hospital, doctors determined that he had sustained a severed spine and crushed voice box. High-energy injury? We don't think so. It's hard to believe. Do they think we're idiots or something? Cops imprison you, shoot you, sever your spine, crush your larynx, send you to war, keep you poor, call you a thug and get away with it. There's no excuse for what happened to Freddie.

As a child, Newton experienced racial discrimination that influenced him to create the Black Panther Party as a voice of black people. His party grew up to a size of 5,000 full time party workers in 45 branches across America and inspired generation in North America to join the struggle against oppression. But he was shot to death in August 1989.

The criminal justice system is very important institution where law enforcement investigate a crime gathering evidences to identify the presumed perpetrator ensuring that rights of the convicted are respected. But what if American criminal justice reform outdated and the country need to focus on a renewed sense of justice? What if disproportionate punishment is the main challenge of the criminal justice system? Disproportionate punishments known far and wide across the United States of America. Consequently, the victim`s skin color plays a crucial role in deciding what kind of punishment he will receive. For instance, you are more likely to be sentenced to death if you have killed a white person. Frankly speaking, if the government wants to keep the country away from the summer urban riots, then they must think about the living standards of black population that is several times below the living standards of white people in America. In addition, the White House must reduce the unemployment rates of black population by revising the hiring policy for black Americans.Therefore, if we want a life`s balance, the government have to reconsider all these things, because Black Americans lives matter.

The young clean-shaved shooter walked in during a prayer meeting and started shooting the people. Charleston Police Chief Greg Mullen said that the incident would be investigated as hate crime. Emanuel AME Church is a historically Africa-American church which was found by Denmark Vesey in order to organize a slave revolt in 1822. Despite the first black American president, Africa-Americans remain the most common victims of hate crimes. But what if the hate crime relates to xenophobia? American xenophobia is based on the dominant white heritage that is giving birth to another form of hate and discrimination. These forms take another level of hate. Unfortunately, American tolerance is not what we think it is. US public is swapping patriotism for nationalism, tolerance for Islamophobia, racism and anti-immigrant sentiment. For instance, last February American gunman killed three young Muslims two miles away from the University of North Carolina campus. Was this gunman motivated by hate and intolerance? Should we expect for more hate-crimes? What if American racial change still occurs through generations? What of it racism happens due to unequal opportunities? What if America is still a deeply racist country? What if the church is not a safe place anymore?

It’s strange to hear it from the man who supported 2nd amendment earlier. The lack of clear-cut opinion is very bad character trait. However, it doesn’t matter. The right to bear arms is inalienable right of Americans that was given us by the Founding Fathers. The 2nd amendment guarantees private safety of the people. The right to keep and bear arms has been recognized as existing prior even to the creation of a written national constitution. The governmnet should respect the 2nd amendment and the law in general. It’s pity when some politicians think otherwise. People should understand that a gun is not a killing tool, it’s self-defense tool. And we will stand for our right to keep and bear arms!

Ad Text	The Chinese hackers executed a complex attack that gave them "administrator privileges" into the computer networks at the Office of Personnel Management, mimicking the credentials of people who run the agency's systems. They began siphoning out a rush of data after constructing what amounted to an electronic pipeline that led back to China, investigators told Congress last week in classified briefings. Much of the personnel data had been stored in the lightly protected systems of the Department of the Interior, because it had cheap, available space for digital data storage. The administration is urgently working to determine what other agencies are storing similarly sensitive information with weak protections. Officials would not identify their top concerns, but an audit issued early last year, before the Chinese attacks, harshly criticized lax security at the Internal Revenue Service, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the Energy Department, the Securities and Exchange Commission — and the Department of Homeland Security, which has responsibility for securing the nation's critical networks. It's not clear who is held liable for security hole. What do you think the hacker attack will affect U.S. – Chinese relations?

South Carolina governor calls for removal of Confederate flag from statehouseGovernor Nikki Haley makes abrupt about-face in wake of Charleston killings to call for removal of flag that has flown on statehouse grounds for 50 years The Confederate flag represents heritage, not hate. The war that is called the "Civil War" was actually the "War for Southern Independence". This is our history and our heritage. Just because certain groups have used the confederate flag in hate related crimes or racism does not make the southern flag racist. Now it is used to show heritage and pride from the south showing that they have been strong and have overcome what has happened to them over time.

Ad Text	Why do immigrants think that the U.S. government should create good conditions for them? I think immigrants should prove that they are deserved to stay in the United States. Why should we give a citizenship to those who cannot give something good for the nation? The worst thing is that illegal immigrants who broke the law to live in the United States demand ask for indulgences. What nonsense! Illegals should be deported from the country invariably. But Obama's administration is tied to the chariot of immigrants. Democrats know that immigrants will vote for the Democratic party. Especially former illegals. That's why Barack Obama tries to give the Immigration Amnesty to illegals as soon as possible. It will allow to increase a number of votes for a Democratic Party presidential candidate in 2016. And democrats don't care about the fact that most of immigrants will become welfare recipients, increasing unemployment rate. America doesn't need immigrants, democrats do. What's more important: to win Presidential elections in 2016 or to make America better? Democrats seem to choose first option. That's what differs republicans from democrats.

Why do immigrants think that the U.S. government should create good conditions for them? I think immigrants should prove that they are deserved to stay in the United States. Why should we give a citizenship to those who cannot give something good for the nation?

Ad Text NOM'S LAST ATTEMPT TO BAN SAME SEX MARRIAGE
National Organization for Marriage is asking all of the GOP presidential candidates to sign an anti-equality pledge. Let's take a look at just how crazy this pledge gets.

That's just nuts! They want candidates to support a constitutional amendment to ban marriage nationwide. This will never happen. For the last decade public support for marriage equality has gone from 35 percent to 55 percent!

But they don't stop there. NOM also wants candidates to "work to overturn any Supreme Court decision" in favor of the freedom to marry. NOM wants the president to only nominate judges who will uphold marriage bans, but at this point, legal consensus so strongly supports marriage equality that supporting marriage bans is a sign that person isn't qualified to be a judge.

Also, NOM wants the candidates to weaken civil rights laws, creating loopholes to let companies and citizens to discriminate if they cite a religious justification. That could actually happen — and it already has in some states — so it's a huge concern.
And fifth, they want the Department of Justice to investigate harassment against people who oppose marriage equality. Sure, gays and lesbians are harassed every day, fired, kicked out of their homes and schools, separated from their families, but I really hope soon there'll be NO MORE of it!

There's a part of me that feels very sad for NOM's fanatics. When they finally kick the bucket, they'll be dealing with the reality (whether they openly face it or not) that their Life's Work has amounted to NOTHING. Nothing they worked for made anyone's life better. At all.

They didn't win, and they wasted their lives fighting against the inevitable. And when they're dead and gone, they'll be remembered only as footnotes in shameful history – or more likely they 'll be forgotten completely.

She is the ninth confirmed transgender homicide victim in the USA this year. Police in George County, Mississippi have charged a suspect Josh Brandon Vallum. Police said that Mercedes and Josh knew each other, but it is not clear if Vallum knew Williamson was a transgender. Jeanie Miller, whom Williamson had been living with, said that Vallum knew that Williamson was transgender. Modern America is too dangerous for transgenders. This is the ninth transgender killing based on gender identity. According to the National Coalition of Anti-Violence Programs' report hate-motivated violence against transgenders rose 13%. Unfortunately, it is very difficult to live as a transgender in the South. Alabama even passed a religious freedom law in 1998 that allows discrimination against LGBT people. That also allows lawmakers to justify hostility toward transgender people. And that we call 'freedom'? America is no longer land of freedom!

Sorry, ladies. I'm officially pulling myself off of the market. Don't hate me too bad.' 'I truly have nothing to hide anymore,' he wrote. 'I spent the majority of my life lying, hiding and depressed because I felt like I couldn't truly be who I wanted to be and live freely as I saw fit. I had to act and that's not me. I, nor anyone else, should have to do that.' Matt decided to tell the truth publicly because of speculation that was going behind his back. This news should please all progressive humanity because the coming-out once again confirms the fact that homosexuality and masculinity are a perfect combination and do not contradict each other.

The course will teach terminology and the history of LGBT movement. “We’ll look at what it’s been like for gay men, what it’s been like for lesbian women, what it’s been like for transgender people,” Ruth Asawa High School Social Studies teacher Lyndsey Schlax told. Schlax has been working with Cleve Jones, a human rights activist, who was mentored by Harvey Milk. It is proposed that the class will begin in autumn. Really perfect idea! There are at least twenty eight percent of LGBT students in Asawa High School. It is the fact that we need such classes in every American school! Children shouldn’t be afraid to show who they are; they shouldn’t be afraid to speak about LGBT history; they should know that it is normal to be gay or lesbian or transgender. Everybody should be taught to understand LGBT people and recognize them as ordinary citizens.

The act also will outlaw advocating gay rights to minors. California Attorney General Kamala Harris claimed that the proposal was unconstitutional and it had no place in civil society. The proposal reminds me the Inquisition. We live in a free and tolerate country! So even talks about such an initiative should be immediately stopped. Where is our President? Stop considering gays as naughty and not like all the others. We are all equal. Despite all the arguments that the opponents of gay marriage call, polls show that the majority of Americans stand for gay marriages. Why not to hold a referendum as the Irish did? Why we should listen to conservatives?

LGBT advocates who have been pressing the administration for change welcomed the news. “With today’s announcement, transgender federal employees can now access health care that is so fundamental to their well-being and, in the long-term, will make transgender employees happier and more productive workers,” National Center for Transgender Equality Executive Director Mara Keisling told. Yeah, it is really happy news for transgender people! Now the discrimination on coverage for trans people will be ended.

Taxpayers Spend $3.5 Million to Find Out Why Lesbians Are Fat A U.S. Health and Human Services study to understand why lesbians are fat has now cost taxpayers over $3.5 million to-date. The study, “Sexual Orientation and Obesity: A Test of a Gendered Biopsychosocial Model,” seeks to determine why there is a disparity in the obesity rates between straight women and lesbian women and straight men and gay men. Oh God!! It made you look the fools! People overeat when they are unhappy with themselves and their lives! Not only lesbians! And we have enough reasons! First of all - your research!!!It's humiliating!

Ad Text	Congratulations! Now we have the Gay Scouts of America! The Boy Scouts of America Executive Committee unanimously approved allowing gay adults to serve as leaders, officials said on Monday, in a major step toward dismantling a policy that has caused deep rifts in the 105-year-old organization. This resolution will allow chartered organizations to select adult leaders without regard to sexual orientation, continuing Scouting's longstanding policy of chartered organizations selecting their leaders. The Boy Scouts of America's ban on gay adults has stood as a towering example of explicit, institutional homophobia in one of America's most important and recognizable civic organizations. This is a step in the right direction, but we're still really concerned that there are still going to be groups that are going to be hostile to gay leaders...This story certainly brought out the haters and the loony "Christians." They've lost so many cultural battles in their effort to keep us all in the middle ages that I think it's unhinged most of them!

Ad Text SOLDIER SHANE.
Recently Pentagon confirmed plan to lift ban on transgender military service.
Let’s meet the big player in repealing the ban.

Sergeant Shane Ortega, 28, doesn't stand out or appear out of the ordinary among his fellow Army soldiers.
But there's one thing that differs him from the bulk of troops. Shane is the first openly trans soldier of the US Army.

He’s astonishingly handsome, he works out constantly (check out his muscular build), he covered in tattoos, he's part black, Latino and Cherokee, he's obsessed with his girlfriend (a former model and aspiring doctor); and he gets giddy talking about both video games and chopping wood in Alaska.

Yet despite his solid performance and commitment to serve, SGT Ortega has been at risk of getting kicked out of the Army because in official Army paperwork, he is identified as a woman.

But the real warriors never surrender! Ortega struggled for the equal rights for the transgender people in the military. And he succeeded!

America's military progressing slowly towards inclusion and equal opportunity.
Let’s hope that these changes‘ll ensure peace, instead of waging more war.

Ad Text Please... STOP DISCRIMINATION AGAINST HOMOSEXUAL TEACHERS!!

After eight years on the job, Margie Winters was fired as director of religious education at Waldron Mercy Academy outside Philadelphia not because she just married her wife, but because some parents just found out that she's been married for all eight years.

Unfortunately LGBT teachers have long understood that openly expressing their identity in school can make them an easy target for discrimination. It is the biggest mistake!
When students perceive that they're not supposed to talk about homosexuality, they conclude that there must be something wrong about being gay. And it's a dangerous message that can lead to bullying and harassment.

Gay teachers need to serve as example for kids! It's very powerful both for straight students and for LGBT students to know that they have teachers and people they respect who are LGBT and who are good at their jobs. It's important for all students to see that nothing to be ashamed! And it must be illegal for employers to discriminate against employees based on their actual or perceived sexual orientation!

When they returned, they had a flurry of phone messages from the mother, crying and urging them to get back soon. A nurse had been questioning her about her decision to let a gay couple adopt her baby. “Aren’t you afraid those boys are gonna hurt that baby? Aren’t you afraid that he’s not gonna grow up and be normal?” asked the nurse. Excuse me who the hell is she?! This bigot is forcing her views onto the mother, because she doesn't think the baby would grow up "normal"? A mother who's making the difficult decision to place her son up for adoption, and a wonderful couple who wants to raise that child. What the hell right does the nurse have to try to stop that? I have been on a long, rough journey to this point and I think my story could help younger trans youth see that no matter how bad it gets it always gets better. I would really appreciate this because I want to become someone who inspires the LGBT community to be themselves! Ever since I was little, I knew I was different. I wasn't like any of the other kids. I had a unique way of thinking and often that left me isolated. Something I still feel the sting of today. Unlike most boys who played with Spiderman and Superman action figures when they were little, I played with barbies... I wanted to look like them. I wanted to be them. It felt right playing with these dolls. I had to hide when I did it though because even at an early age, I knew boys weren't supposed to play with dolls. Once I had gotten got caught by my grandmother's ex husband and he told me to put them away and stop being a sissy...." When they returned, they had a flurry of phone messages from the mother, crying and urging them to get back soon. A nurse had been questioning her about her decision to let a gay couple adopt her baby. “Aren’t you afraid those boys are gonna hurt that baby? Aren’t you afraid that he’s not gonna grow up and be normal?” asked the nurse. Excuse me who the hell is she?! This bigot is forcing her views onto the mother, because she doesn't think the baby would grow up "normal"? A mother who's making the difficult decision to place her son up for adoption, and a wonderful couple who wants to raise that child. What the hell right does the nurse have to try to stop that? I hope they fire her. I'm happy for the Gay couple on becoming parents!

Police said Ware ran into nearby woods and struggled with officers when they caught up with him. Officers sprayed him with oleoresin capsicum, more commonly known as pepper spray, according to police. The chemical agent debilitates a person by causing temporary blindness and irritating a person's nose and throat. The six officers who were involved in Ware's case will remain on duty during an investigation, according to police. Officials said police car dash cam and body camera footage of the incident would be released after that investigation. This tragedy happen accidentally, and probably the police officers didn't wish death upon him, because they tried to give him first aid. However, the man is dead and there is no chance to rewind and bring him back. He's gone forever, but the cops will remain on duty and get away with this murder. Is this acceptable? We will know about he process of detention after the investigation is over. Let's wait and keep our eyes open. Black Lives Matter!

I can’t breathe.” On Wednesday night, a white police officer in the small town of Stonewall, Mississippi allegedly strangled Sanders, a 39-year-old black horseman, with a flashlight before killing him in view of his family members. Officer Kevin Herrington pulled Sanders off a horse and choked him with a flashlight, Sander’s attorney, Stewart Parrish, initially told an ABC affiliate. Parrish later clarified that those allegations came from family members who witnessed the death. Parrish said that Sanders experienced “some kind of asphyxiation” during the altercation. Sanders died on the scene and leaves behind two children. The last words of Eric garner were "I can't breathe," the last words of Jonathan Sanders were "I can't breathe, let me go". Biting irony, isn't it? Since when is it illegal to train your horse in close propinquity to your house? America was always (and it is now) a police state for black people.

Today, his goal is to protect his son from the different forms of violence that he experienced in school and on the streets. People of color have been dealing with injustice ever since they crossed the North American continent. For instance, in West Baltimore, Ta-Nehisi was trained not to go to the neighborhoods unless you know this place. He was told that you cannot tolerate anybody attempting any physically violent threat to you. Moreover, his mom was feared that her children would get arrested. What does it mean? Undoubtedly, black Americans were afraid of police, improper procedure, injustice or what is worse, being killed by police officer. That`s why the nationwide furor over the growing number of unarmed black men fatally shot by police officers has put the public on a new trend in America. In fact, this new trend caused disproportionate number of unarmed people of color killed by police. How dangerous is to live in your area today?

According to the Melbourne Police Department, the vandal bought axes to chop through access points to get in. Church Bishop Jacquelyn Gordon said that the church was in the process of development since they moved two years ago into 125,000 foot industrial complex. Moreover, the message “SS Charleston 2” was found on the car nearby the Church, which raised concerns about church security. SS Charleston 2 indicates the tragedy in Charleston when nine people were shot to death by white supremacist Dylann Roof at Emanuel AME church. Before, the church members found the words "We see u" that were painted in the radical emblem of the Nazi party swastika. How many hateful people living in America today? What of these people are getting their hatred and racism from their parents or friends? What if it is a hate crime? Has the government created a fund to assist this church?

The powerful post broke down the cultural double standards that plague black women every day. “Black features are beautiful, black women are not,” Stenberg wrote. “White women are paragons of virtue and desire, black women are objects of fetishism and brutality. This, at least, seems to be the mentality surrounding black femininity and beauty in a society built upon eurocentric beauty standards.” Everybody knows that racism is alive and prospering in America. However, all the news about killing black men and black teenagers, police brutality, unfair sentences and other issues, distract us from the fact that black women are being abused in the most violent ways. Usually they can't stand up for themselves unlike men, so they endure and suffer. In modern America black women experience more depression than probably during slavery, when everything was obvious, but now racism is hidden behind the mask of tolerance.

The city didn’t admit fault in the settlement, the comptroller’s office said in announcing the accord Monday evening. onathan Moore, an attorney for the family, said the city made its offer of $5.9 million Monday and the Garner family, in his office, agreed unanimously to end the case. “There is no amount of money that would compensate them for their loss,” Mr. Moore said. “Eric Garner is dead. He had no reason to die on that day. Whatever you think he was doing, he shouldn’t have died.” Yeah right, money won't bring Eric back. He's gone forever, and his his family knows that. But anyway, it's some sort of victory. It's way better than nothing. Rest in peace, Eric Garner. No justice, no peace.

Cleveland Municipal Court Judge Ronald Adrine in June found probable cause for Officer Timothy Loehmann, who shot Rice, and his partner, Frank Garmback, to face charges in the shooting. Loehmann shot Rice twice within seconds of arriving outside a city recreation center on Nov. 22 in response to an emergency call of a man with a gun. Rice, who was playing with an Airsoft-type replica handgun that shoots pellets, died the next day. By any means the justice system is trying to justify the cops, who should've been never employed even. They shot the poor kid in 2 seconds after they arrived, not even having time to understand the situation. Everyday police use excessive force and weapons against unarmed people. Killers in uniform... Let's honor Tamir's memory one more time.

Ad Text Teen shot by St. Louis police paralyzed; mom laments gun violence

A teenager shot by city police is paralyzed below the waist, his mother said Sunday as her family copes with another episode of gun violence. Not seven years ago, her teenage daughter was accidentally shot to death.

This time, a firearm in the hand of her son, Brandon Claxton, 16, prompted an officer to shoot him three times about 7:15 p.m. Saturday in a housing complex in the 2500 block of Hodiamont Avenue, officials said. Police encountered him while responding to a call about someone with a stolen pistol.

His mother said that she respected the police and that her son “shouldn’t have had the gun.” But from what witnesses have told her, she said, “They didn’t have to shoot him down like that.”

One of three witnesses interviewed Sunday told a reporter that Brandon did have a gun in his hand. But all three said that he did not point a weapon at anyone as he tried to run from officers.

When a white guy walks around with a rifle, nobody bats an eye. When a black guy walks with a pistol (or even a toy gun) - he'll be immediately shot by the police. Have you ever heard about open carry in the United States? Then here we go. Racial prejudice at its finest.

Our condolences to the family.

Ad Text	90-year-old WWII veteran is evicted on stretcher. The WWII veteran Johnnie H. Hodges refused to leave his house after he was not able to pay his mortgage while caring for his sick wife. Police and ambulance workers had to carry him away on a stretcher. A 90-year-old Navy veteran lived in his Buffalo home with his wife for decades. But about four years ago, he was taking care of his wife, who had Alzheimer's disease and spent all his income on her rehabilitation. In the process, he defaulted on his mortgage and amassed a huge debt totaling $73,000 to M&T Bank. Unfortunately, due to his default on his mortgage loan payments, he was evicted from his house on a stretcher. Why does the U.S. government treat military veterans absolutely disgracefully? Why the WWII veterans are literally being treated like human garbage by their own government? How potentially disabled veteran was evicted from his house? How come homelessness and unemployment among American veterans is much higher today than for the general population of the United States of America?

According to police, they responded to a call about someone with a stolen 40-caliber pistol. Brandon Claxton is in critical conditions. But according to witnesses, Brandon did not point a pistol at anyone but he was trying to run away from the officers. Where is the video evidence of police shooting? Police Chief Sam Dotson said that there is not a clear view on video. What if police is trying to cover up the story? Did you know that police did not allow Brandon's mother to see her son because he was in custody? Do you believe that police was justified to arrest Brandon? Cameras don`t lie! We need to know the truth whether the boy posed a threat or not!

Ad Text	'We want our chief back' Last week, in a place that bills itself as the “Friendliest Town on the Eastern Shore,” angry residents marched to City Hall, demanding to give back a job for Kelvin Sewell, the community’s first black police chief. On June 29 he was fired amid allegations leveled against white officers of departmental racism. After that the crowd of Sewell's supporters moved to voice their outrage to the Pocomoke City Council with posters that read "We Support Chief Kelvin Sewell." As a nation we have looked the other way for far too long and it is disgraceful! This time we're not fighting with police, we're fighting for justice. The system is broken, police doesn't protect us and the government cares only about tycoons' interests. So here's a question - who will care about Americans who can't protect themselves? Who will care about us? #JusticeforChiefSewell

Ad Text Made In The US: The Justice Turns Into Business

For years, inmates with non-violent felonies and misdemeanor charges in New York City had to sit in Rikers Island for months awaiting trial, 'cause they couldn’t afford to pay bail.

Under the city’s new bail initiative announced by Mayor Bill de Blasio last week, some 3,000 low-level offenders are eligible for release without bail. The system needs serious reform. According to the New York Police Department, the biggest part of arrests are low-level offenses like peeing on the street or disorderly conduct.

The New York Daily News reports that 81 percent of the 7.3 million people hit with summonses between 2001 and 2013 were black and Hispanic. So what should we do?

The criminal penal system is antiquated. It should be changed. The worse, it is now designed to be for profit which has led to laws being designed to keep people in prison, rather than rehabilitating. More and more it looks like it's a business.

The first rule of any society is development. At such rate the US government will start to sell indulgences soon.

Our system is not only unfair, but also corrupt! We should explore alternative solutions and limit the number of people in prison to the most violent and potentially dangerous offenders. Only real criminals should be in jail!

Lemme ask you, have you ever seen a one of the tobacco industry executives go to jail? I guess no. We also have never seen the Bush or any other Presidents administrations were brought to justice.

America has a justice system that was supplanted the Jim Crow laws as a means to keep the minorities from developing real opportunities for keeping the very rich from ever being brought to justice.

Now, imagine... 70-years after the Third Reich was down, Berlin organizes Nazi military parade. Sounds weird, inconceivable right? So tell me, why KKK march at South Carolina Capitol draws the ire only of local African-Americans? A Ku Klux Klan chapter and an African-American group plan overlapping demonstrations on Saturday outside the South Carolina State House, where state officials removed the Confederate battle flag last week. We have been fought with slavery, Jim Crow laws and etc for REALLy long time so what's the problem today? Nothing good coming out of this mess. So what is the purpose of this march? Hmmm... It feels like this could be billed as "the fight of the century." What do you think about it guys?

Ad Text	Another Woman Commits Suicide In Jail A teen committed suicide in a jail cell an hour after being arrested, another suspicious case of a Black woman dying in police custody in the past week. The second case over a week, huh? How retarded and/or brainwashed by Fox News is one supposed to be to believe this is a coincidence? No way we are gonna buy such bullshit. The weirdest thing about this specific case is that the suicide was committed just an hour after the arrest. Moreover, the woman was suspected of stealing someone’s phone which is quite not a reason for getting to her account. We've got to also take into consideration that 1 in 3 black men go to prison as opposed to a considerably lower rate with the white men (http://www.alternet.org/story/154587/1_in_3_black_men_go_to_prison_the_10_most_disturbing_facts_about_racial_inequality_in_the__u.s._criminal_justice_system). It definitely seems like there’s more to this since until recently taking into custody hasn’t been a reason for suicide among black women. Now for some people the only way to deal with police violence at the police stations is simply killing themselves…

Well, then how come Detroit is no less dangerous then (the city ranks third in the list of top 100 US most dangerous cities)?? When 24-year-old DaJuawn Wallace saw flashing blue police lights in his rearview mirror he chose to proceed with caution since some people are known to be robbed by fake police officers. He preferred to find a well-lit area to pull over in. As a result, he was charged with ‘fleeing’ police. People are terrified by the police to such a degree that they even prefer to communicate with officers only in the well-lit areas. And get charged for that. Sometimes it makes me actually think that when not involved in any military operations in the foreign countries, our country’s at war with its own citizens with the help of police.

Amari Brown, a 7-year-old boy on the city's West Side, was the youngest of the fatalities. Those 30 shootings came between 9:20 p.m Saturday and 4:45 a.m. Sunday. Amari had spent the day celebrating with family and riding his scooter up and down the block where he lived with his grandmother and several other relatives in Humboldt Park. Just before midnight, a gunman opened fire outside a relative's home where Amari and other children were playing, hitting both the 7-year-old and a 26-year-old woman in the chest. No arrests have been made. Family members will hold a press conference Sunday afternoon to call for Amari's killer to turn himself in. How can we feel safe here in America? Permanent threat to life follows every American like a shadow. What did this boy do to deserve a bullet in his body? He just played with his friends outdoor. Is human life really worth nothing in our country? Rest in peace, Amari Brown.

Well, then how come Detroit is no less dangerous then (the city ranks third in the list of top 100 US most dangerous cities)?? When 24-year-old DaJuawn Wallace saw flashing blue police lights in his rearview mirror he chose to proceed with caution since some people are known to be robbed by fake police officers. He preferred to find a well-lit area to pull over in. As a result, he was charged with ‘fleeing’ police. People are terrified by the police to such a degree that they even prefer to communicate with officers only in the well-lit areas. And get charged for that. Sometimes it makes me actually think that when not involved in any military operations in the foreign countries, our country’s at war with its own citizens with the help of police.

Ad Text	A number of refugees has increased since Obama became the President States across the country were filled with flows of refugees since Obama became the President. The U.S. refugee admissions database wrapsnet.org states that 437,829 new refugees came to the USA since Obama first took office. Most of them were placed in Texas (46,351), California (44,162) and New York (26,293). Many of refugees were placed in Ohio (14,855), Florida (21,613), Virginia (9,395), Colorado (11,300) and Nevada (3,421). Such active provision of a shelter for refugees sooner or later will lead to the fact that the number of terrorist attacks in the USA will increase. The US Homeland Security Committee considers that the administration is admitting too many refugees from Iraq and Syria, a hotbed of ISIS terrorism. Perhaps new terrorist attacks won't be so large as the 9/11 but there will be more terrorist attacks if the immigration policy won't be tightened. We have a lot of problems that require an active response and decisions from the government: poverty, the problems of veterans, homelessness, racism, law enforcement system and so on. Is it possible to offer a better life for refugees if not all US citizens live normally?

Ad Text	The Census Bureau published the new data in its International Data Base, which contains population estimates and projections up to the year 2050. The figure from the Census Bureau is a calculation of net migration—meaning the total number of immigrants who will arrive in the United States in 2015 would actually be larger than 1.24 million. Of course, the United States is the country of immigrants. But if America had huge undeveloped lands and needed workers at the earliest stage, today there is a jobs deficit. Today the government must restrict immigration that is a reason of interethnic tensions in the United States. High unemployment rate fuels intolerance toward immigrants that are ready to work illegally for low wages. So, besides social problem, immigrants threaten the U.S. economy. Those who work illegaly don’t pay taxes that are an important part of state budget. Working illegaly, they break the law. Lack of immigration restrictions increases crime rates. Moreover, more and more immigrants cannot speak English. One-fifth of people in the United States speak a foreign language at home, according to a report of the Center for Immigration Studies. You see, increasing ammount of immigrants in the United States creates social and economic problems. However, we have a risk not only to worsen the U.S. economy, but also to lose our culture. America can’t be the Tower of Babel, we cannot allow everybody to live here if immigration threatens us. We don’t hate foreigners, we are glad to see tourists from every corner of the world, but we cannot allow them to stay here. It’s the bathos of stupidity to stimulate immigration when it creates enormous problems for the nation.

The Census Bureau published the new data in its International Data Base, which contains population estimates and projections up to the year 2050. The figure from the Census Bureau is a calculation of net migration—meaning the total number of immigrants who will arrive in the United States in 2015 would actually be larger than 1.24 million.

Of course, the United States is the country of immigrants. But if America had huge undeveloped lands and needed workers at the earliest st... See More

This statement sounds strange on the background of rapproachment between Obama's administration and Tehran. Although, this rapproachment in itself looks strange. We would remind you that Tehran has never expressed its condolences for the Iran hostage crisis. Moreover, the Supreme Leader of Iran Ali Hosseini Khamenei is too disrespectful to the United States despite of friendly actions of Obama's administration. And Iranian military command claims that Iran is ready to come into collision with America at any moment. The Iran deal is a shame of the United States. Senate Republicans were right when they expressed their distrust of Iranian government. It's not clear why Obama has refused containment of Iran that is an potential enemy not only for the United States, but also for the rest world. Barack Obama is, by all appearances, a true traitor of the United States. And it's not empty words – the rapprochement with Iran is either a treachery or stupidness.

Ad Text	A terrorist attack was conducted at two U.S. military sites in Chattanooga Mohammad Youssef Abdulazeez was shot and killed by police after he attacked two military sites in Chattanooga, Tennessee and killed four U.S. Marines at the Navy Operational Support Center and Marine Corps Reserve Center. Authorities say a man was a practicing Muslim. At present FBI is conducting an investigation. According to his beliefs, Mohammad was a fundamental Islamist. Having examined after his death his social pages, FBI has found that he kept a blog and had a note where he said that he conducted a terrorist act in obedience to Allah. It is notable that the terrorist attack was conducted in the last day of Ramadan. It is noteworthy that in his letter the terrorist didn’t refer to ISIS or Al-Qaeda; he acted in his own volition. We don’t want to stir up Islamophobia, but if such manifestations of Islam have place, it is very sorrowful for the United States. The situation in the Middle East and the extensive propaganda of ISIS make ordinary Muslims to become radical Islamists and take the path of war and death. If people on their own commit such attacks, the American society must take it more seriously. The society should develop a new behavioral model towards Islam, according to which, on the one hand Muslims and Christians will live comfortable together. And on the other hand, Muslims won’t tend to radical activities and the destruction of peaceful life of Americans.

Ad Text	The spread of hatred in the American society On Saturday there were two protests: a Ku Klux Klan rally in South Carolina and an anti-racism protest. About 2,000 people arrived to South Carolina's statehouse. Some of them present the KKK's rally against the removal of the Confederate flag, while others were from the New Black Panther party and Black Lives matter groups, holding the Republic of New Afrika flag. It is a very clear signal for the federal government that the protest obtains a systematic and ideological basis. The Klan wanted to underline the traditional heritage of the Confederate flag. Black protesters, on the contrary stand against racism. There were also many anti-racism supporters of other races. The main problem is hatred which is spread among our society. The government does nothing to solve the matter. If America is a land of free, we should clear our country of racism. But on the other hand we shouldn't refuse our history and our traditions.

Ad Text The U.S. flag hasn’t been lowered in honor of the murdered Marines

Monday morning, July 20, the US flag continued to fly at the top of the White House and the US capitol building despite the fact that a gunman killed five US Marines in Chattanooga, Tenn. President Obama hasn’t ordered to lower a flag, though a federal law states that the flag shall be flown at half-staff upon the deaths of principal figures or the governor can lower the US flag in his or her state following the deaths of officials or members of the US Army. By contrast, Obama ordered the flags to half-staff following on the same day that as the shootings at the Sandy Hook Elementary School. The flag was lowered to half-staff the day following the terrorist attack during the Boston marathon, the shooting at the Washington Navy Yard and the following the death of Nelson Mandela. But it hasn’t yet been lowered in honor of the service members murdered in Tennessee.

By doing so Obama shows the highest degree of disrespect for the fallen soldiers. It turns out that for him the soldiers as well as veterans do not deserve any attention or respect. Soldiers are needed only when it is necessary to send them to the next unknown operation. They considered as meat. But in reality, they are our heroes! They were victims of a terrorist attack. They were victims of a man who at first won refugee status and then decided to kill in the name of Allah.

In general during the Obama presidency the country was divided in many ways: racism became more evident, the number of illegal immigrants, who do not even bother to learn English, because it’s enough to speak Spanish, has increased.

Ad Text	Remember when African Americans couldn't drink from the same drinking fountains as whites? Remember when gay people couldn't get married? Both scenarios sound so ridiculous. Especially when you think about how much money is to be gained if same-sex couples are legally allowed to get married. A majority of small business owners believe companies shouldn’t be allowed to withhold goods or services from lesbian, gay,bisexual or transgender people based on an owner’s religious beliefs, according to a survey released Monday. Of course marriage is good for the business - no matter who it is that is marrying. It's a billion dollar industry in our country! I am certain that if a state supported marriage for all, then business would flourish. No one would be offended by not being considered legitimate, when their feelings are legitimate.

He has been discriminated against by local authorities in Louisville, Ky. There's a gap between Kentucky law and federal law. People trying to change the gender on a passport only need to be in transition, not post-surgery. But many transgender people never complete the surgery due to economical reasons, health issues etc. It seems that the law does not care about these people's circumstances. So typical of bureaucrats. It is very important for every transgender to be able to change his\her identification to reflect who they really are. It's not just about person dressed as a man one day and then dressed as a woman the next, or vice versa. It is about much more deep, more complex things. An authentic transgender man or woman only presents as the gender they truly are; And not the gender they were assigned to at birth. Transgender people are not trying to trick anyone by asking for identification changes. They are trying to avoid as much confusion as absolutely possible. Because it is confusing enough to be the gender different from the one you were assigned to at birth. Please share your stories with us, because united we can stand against injustice and inequality! #Kentucky #transgender #inequality #discrimination

Ad Text HOMOPHOBIA STILL RUNNING STRONG IN AMERICA.
Controversial artist Ed Freeman sparked fury among conservative patriots after sharing his own version of the 1945 image.

The outrage was caused by artist’s artwork recreating iconic Iwo Jima photo, with a gay pride flag and half-naked men has received death threats. That’s a bit too harsh treatment for an artist, don’t you think? What’s this, the American version of Je suis Charlie?

Joe Rosenthal’s picture of soldiers hauling a flag pole up after declaring the island of Iwo Jima secure during the Second World War won the Pulitzer Prize in 1945.

Around 70,000 U.S. troops fought more than 20,000 Japanese. It wasn’t a fair fight back then, and it’s not a fair fight today. But there’s nothing disrespectful in this image. Isn’t the imitation is the best form of homage?

Ad Text	We have a method in place called, don't vote these morons into office! Passing the “First Amendment Defense Act” introduced by Sen. Mike Lee has been anti-LGBT conservatives’ top priority since the Supreme Court brought marriage equality to all 50 states. It’s part of the National Organization for Marriage’s post-Obergefell plan and Republican presidential candidate pledge, and the Family Research Council mentions it almost daily. Lee joined NPR this week to defend the bill, basically admitting that all it does is enable anti-gay discrimination. Lee framed his concern as one about the government discriminating against religious institutions — for discriminating against people in same-sex marriages. It’s the latter he wants to allow by ensuring that the government never penalizes any religious institution that refuses to recognize a same-sex couple’s marriage, or employ them, house them, or serve them. Mr. Lee, you are ridiculous! You're just going to have to get over that fact that we have full Federal civil rights now. Or don't! We will go on happily living our lives while you froth at the mouth and throw a fit because we're being treated equally under the law!

Wedding cake is back in the news with developments in both the Oregon and Colorado bakery cases involving discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation. In Oregon, judgment has been finalized against Sweet Cakes by Melissa, requiring Aaron and Melissa Klein to pay a $135,000 fine for refusing service to a same-sex couple. Meanwhile, in Colorado, Jack Phillips of Masterpiece Cakeshop, is appealing the ruling against him for refusing to serve a same-sex couple. In the wake of the Supreme Court’s ruling in Obergefell v. Hodges, conservatives are eager to highlight Phillips and the Kleins as evidence that religious freedom is under attack. In fact, they have actually invented a new claim about how these bakers’ “free speech” is under attack and how they’re thus the real victims. There's a simple solution. Since they won't agree to the conditions for having a license to do business with the public, they shouldn't have a license to do business with the public! This is not a free speech issue, it is an issue of American law! They can speak about their bigotry and ignorance, not to practice it!

Ad Text	That's really cool! I think all people must realise that sexuality is not, fundamentally, about who you want to have sex with – but who you are, and who you love... One of the execs on children’s cartoon series Steven Universe has confirmed a lesbian romance between two characters. The popular show is based on a young boy named Steven, who grows up with three magical aliens – the ‘Crystal Gems’ Garnet, Amethyst and Pearl. The show, which has already won praise for including a number of strong, female characters in a comparatively male-dominated genre, has now hinted at further diversity. That's sooo nice! More and more shows go that route, even if it's probably just for advertising it's still good.

For decades, conservative Christians who oppose LGBT equality have singled out the federal government or secular atheists as their preferred enemy in public settings, blasting both groups for supposedly attacking “traditional marriage” or infringing on their religious liberty. Yet in the months surrounding the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision to legalize same-sex marriage across the country, right-wing Christians have become increasingly willing to cast blame — seemingly hypocritically — on a group they have often dismissed or outright ignored: Progressive Christians, especially those who support marriage equality. I believe religions should teach love, they must stop teaching hatred! And I noticed while progressive Christians are constantly under attack from conservative Christians, they're not the ones screaming “persecution”. They are just tired of the persecution.

It was her first public appearance since announcing her decision to transition. And her speech brought me to tears. It was very touching and thought provoking. She spoke about her own personal experience so far as a transgender woman. But she also dedicated a significant percentage of her speech to a thoughtful and touching discussion of the vast number of issues facing the larger transgender community. In her past life Caitlyn was known worldwide as a sports hero. Today she is an American hero of a great courage. Ad Text FEMALE SOCCER PLAYERS GET MARRIED, HAVE PERFECT MESSAGE FOR HATERS!

Meet professional soccer players Erin McLeod and Ella Masar, who play for Houston Dash in the National Women's Soccer League. The long-time partners married this week, just days after the end of the Women's World Cup.

Along with sincere congratulations, the couple also received plenty of negative messages, from people who didn't think two women should get married.

Masar had this perfect message for those people. In spite of all their hatred her message is full of love because love wins despite any obstacles!

"Thank you for praying for me and reinforcing my own prayers because as you pray, "Lord please help Ella, allow her to see her sin for loving that woman, for respecting her, being faithful, honoring her, etc ..." Know I am saying the same thing, "my Heavenly Father, thank you for allowing me find my better half, for finding someone that strengthens my faith and allows me to be the person I always imagined. Thank you for teaching me what truly loving someone and others is all about, amen."

Congratulations, you two! We hope you both have a full and wonderful life together!

While it's only been a few months, they're ready to take the next step. Miley's told friends that Stella is the one. And she wants to make a huge statement with an over-the-top wedding in the fall! She can't stop talking about how in love she is and how she wants the whole world to know… Miley came out as bisexual recently, not all of her relationships have been “straight, heterosexual” ones. She also told Paper magazine how she came out to her mom when she was 14, saying, "I remember telling her I admire women in a different way. And she asked me what that meant. And I said, 'I love them. I love them like I love boys.'" We hope Miley can move on from the wrecking balls and think about wedding bells once she's ready!

Same-sex married couples can start applying for Social Security and veterans benefits in all 50 states even though there are still issues to fix as the federal government works to implement the Supreme Court ruling allowing gay couples to marry nationwide. It is good to be happy! Maybe one day our rights won't be determined based on what group we belong to. Until then some will be more equal than others. I think as long as government provides special benefits to married people, all citizens should have equal access to those benefits, regardless of whom they love!

She posted the first letter in what is to be a series of personal posts for WhoSay Monday, titled, "The Journey Begins." The blog will be dedicated to become a voice for the LGBT community. "Up until now, I have totally isolated myself from the transgender community so I have a lot of catching up to do," Jenner says. "I feel such a responsibility to this courageous group to try to get it right and tell all sides of the story. To me, that's always the biggest question: am I doing it right?" Finally our community got someone who will represent our position and actually help people struggling with being transgendered, like helping them with surgery, medications and etc. Caitlyn is a real new American hero!

Ad Text Controversy surrounding the flag only heats animosity among Americans. And it is becoming dangerous.

So, a family from Moseley, Virginia was threatened at gunpoint for waving the Confederate flag on their own private property on Monday night. While the family was expressing their First Amendment right by waving the flag in their own driveway next to a busy highway. A man driving an SUV pulled into the driveway, took out his gun, chambered a round, pointed it at the family.

“He slammed on the brakes and when he got right beside me, he pulled out a gun, chambered a round and told me my cause wasn’t worth anything now,” Mark Wilson said.

When one spits upon the law because he thinks that it’s amoral, it is beginning a chaos. Liberals want to ban a confederate flag because slavery was in the 18th and 19th centuries. They don’t want to understand that slavery was legal in many countries of the world, but nobody wants to ban a flag of England or France.
Activists and groups like the NAACP are also calling for statues and monuments to Confederate leaders to be demolished, including the carving at Stone Mountain, the largest bas relief sculpture in the world. Some are even demanding that Washington, DC be renamed in the name of political correctness because George Washington owned slaves.

Liberals actually want to destroy American history and culture. Americans should be guided by the law, because sometimes moral is not clear. If somebody thinks that the Democratic party is amoral, nobody demands to eliminate the party.

Continue to stay for the First amendment! Let’s stop the chaos!

Ad Text	The first lesson of economics is scarcity: there is never enough of anything to fully satisfy all those who want it. The first lesson of Obama's policies is to disregard the first lesson of economics… USA TO ISSUE MORE GREEN CARDS THAN POPULATIONS OF IOWA, NEW HAMPSHIRE, SOUTH CAROLINA COMBINED. The lion’s share of these visas are for lesser-skilled and lower-paid workers and their dependents who, because they are here on work-authorized visas, are added directly to the same labor pool occupied by current unemployed jobseekers. Expressly because they arrive on legal immigrant visas, most will be able to draw a wide range of taxpayer-funded benefits, and corporations will be allowed to directly substitute these workers for Americans. Improved border security would have no effect on the continued arrival of these foreign workers, refugees, and permanent immigrants—because they are all invited here by the federal government. Obama swore an oath to uphold our Constitution and protect the American people but he has done everything in his power to destroy us. In a short few years, America will resemble Mehico City ...where you will need to defend your life almost on a daily basis. Obama is killing our country. In turn I hope he drops dead soon.

In an exclusive interview with "Newsmax Prime" host J.D. Hayworth, the GOP presidential hopeful said part of the problem also lies with President Barack Obama "out there saying 'don't worry we're not going to enforce.'" Good words Mr. Jindal, too bad democrats don't understand such an obvious things and continue to let illegals into the US. They want to keep the border open so violent illegal aliens can victimize our citizens Jindal said that in a trip to the border, he witnessed illegal aliens easily gaining entry. "I saw three groups come right across in broad daylight," he said. "One group walked across a man-made dam, got to a fence... they swing the gate wide open. It's not even locked." America floods the country with people who have no job skills and offer them a living on welfare. Voila, we have a work ethic breakdown. I think, it's time for government to do their job and protect our country. America for Americans!

The kids that need foster care come from heterosexual families. So I think the straights should be banned from being foster parents! A Kansas Department of Children and Families official said that the state will continue to allow qualified single adults to serve as foster parents for abused and neglected children, but she said her agency isn't ready to say whether it will allow married same-sex couples to do so. Oh God... Just because your gay doesn't make you any less of a human or any less deserving of any right afforded to anyone else! Anyone who believes that a gay person is below a straight person needs treatment! It is time for this freaking discrimination to end! They have no valid reasons for denying married gays from adopting and fostering kids. All they are doing is denying kids loving homes because of their own bigotry.

Ad Text Most parents aren’t prepared for the words, “Mom, Dad. I’m gay.” For many parents first reaction probably will be “How will I ever handle this?” The answer is simple and difficult at the same time: love and acceptance will help to understand your child’s sexuality and its meaning to you and your continued relationship with your son or daughter.

Some parents feel they would have been happier not knowing about their child’s sexuality. They look back to before they knew and recall this time as problem-free — overlooking the distance they often felt from their child during that time.

Sometimes parents try to deny what is happening — by rejecting what they're hearing (“It’s just a phase; you’ll get over it”); by shutting down (“If you choose that lifestyle, I don’t want to hear about it”); or by not registering the impact of what we’re being told (“That’s nice, dear, and what do you want for dinner?”).

Such denial often prove as a traumatizing experience for LGBT children. If you as a parent 'll pretend to forgot the truth about your child’s sexuality, you would never really know your child. A large part of his or her life would be kept secret from you, and you would never really know the whole person.

It is important to accept and understand your child’s sexuality because homosexuality and bisexuality are not a phase. While people may experiment for some time with their sexuality, someone who has reached the point of telling a parent that he or she is gay is not usually going through "a phase".

On the contrary, he or she has given long and hard thought to understanding and acknowledging his or her sexual orientation. So if you’re wondering, “Is she/he sure?” the answer will almost always be “yes”!

DON'T BE YOUR CHILD'S FIRST CLOSET!

Ad Text	Special prosecutor opened an investigation into death of black women Raynette Turner New York Attorney General Eric Schneiderman will launch an investigation into to the death of one of the five black women who died in an American jail over a two-week span. Raynette Tumer who was the mother of eight children died in jail cell in police custody last week. She was arrested for shoplifting some crab legs from a grocery store. Due to her bad health history she was taken to the hospital and released. But she died in jail waiting for someone to help. According to American legislation, the courthouse officials are supposed to check the cell every fifteen minutes but, no one checked Tumer`s cell for more than two hours. A total of five African-American women have been found dead in police custody in just the last month. Most of them were hold for minor charges and still their deaths are under investigation. Sandra Bland from Texas, Kindra Chapman from Alabama, Joyce Curnell from South Carolina, Ralkina Jones from Ohio, and Raynetta Turner from New York were found dead in their cell after being arrested by police officers. Once again it raises questions about how black people are treated in police custody. What if death in police custody is about excessive police force? Do you realize that dozens of black people were found dead in the U.S?

Ad Text	The Civil Rights Activist Mary McLeod Bethune Mary McLeod Bethune was the civil rights activist and an educator who found the National Council of Negro Women in 1935. Being one of the 17 children of former slaves she was the first and the only child to go to African-American school. She found the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute for Negro Girls because she believed that education was the key to racial advancement. In addition, Bethune did a lot of work to contribute to American society. For instance, she was the president of the Florida chapter of the National Association of Colored Women. Moreover, in 1935 Mary Bethune became an advisory to President Roosevelt on minority affairs and later on she started her civil rights organization, the National Council of Negro Women. The great educator and civil right activist Mary McLeod Bethune demonstrated the values of education, the philosophy of love and the wise use of power. Sadly, at least 10 years of data reveals that Congress don`t pay attention to American civil rights as Mary McLeod Bethune did 80 years ago.

Ad Text	The drama in Pocomoke. A Maryland town several weeks ago fired its first black Police Chief, now exposing a racial rift The leaders of small Maryland`s city in Eastern Shore fired the Pocomoke City`s first black police Chief Kelvin Sewell due to his incompetence and refusal to fire black police officers Franklin Savage and Lynell Green. Chief Sewell was hired by Pocomoke City back in 2010 after his retirement from the Baltimore Police Department. Earlier, before Sewell`s dismissal he filed a complaint on unequal employment opportunities claiming he was paid less than his white predecessors. This is circumstantial evidence that America is divided into different parts based on race and income. Racism has gotten so bad, black people are treated unfairly. If God created us equally, why the unequal treatment of minorities still exists in our country? What if the firing gas stirred a new spirit of African-American activism?

How useful were protests? According to analysis by AP, 24 states have put 40 new laws to tackle police violence such as use of police officer body cameras, racial-bias training and surplus of military equipment. However, there is more work to be done to solve racial tensions in America. The public stand against discrimination happens when there is lack of inside connections with the government. People attempt to stop racism the government usually assumes to be problematic but protesters force the government to find compromise. It`s a well known fact, when governments do not deliver, people protest.

What did I do to deserve this?” the 24-year-old Timothy Nelson can be heard saying in the recording of the July 26 traffic stop. Do they really need 20 cops showing up for a traffic stop? The 48-year-old Kevin Labriado from Bellefontaine Neighbors was charged for ramming police car from behind twice screaming “for black people”. He assaulted two officers and his child who was sitting in his car. Two St. Louis officers were on patrol until Labriado and his five-year-old daughter accidentally rammed their car. When police officer tried to arrest him, Labriado yelled several times "This is for the black people”. What if Labriado sought to revenge for all black lives that officers took away? Racism obviously gave rise to the tensions in society that led to disrespect and hate. Moreover, black people are fed up with racism and police violence towards black community. What is more, racial tensions have gotten worse under the current government. Even after several months of protests over the deaths of Eric Garner, Tamir Rice, Michael Brown, Sandra Bland and Freddie Gray the government inspired more unrest. Today black community is in desperate situation seeking for help.

Officer Troy Middlebrooks kept his job and continues to patrol Alexander City after authorities there paid the man $35,000 to avoid being publicly sued over the incident. Middlebrooks, a veteran of the US marines, said the man “needs a god damn bullet” and allegedly referred to him as “that nigger”, after becoming frustrated that the man was not punished more harshly over a prior run-in. The payment was made to the black resident, Vincent Bias, after a secret recording of Middlebrooks’s remarks was played to the city’s police chiefs and the mayor. Elected city councillors said they were not consulted. Do you know that you can go to prison for murderous intent? However, if you are a white police officer, offering to KILL a BLACK AMERICAN and then hide the evidence, then you don't even get fired. Oh yeah, it's happening in a wonderful state called Alabama! You know how it works here. Do you have any more questions for American law enforcement system?

Just over a week before his death, he posted that he doesn't want to die too young on Twitter. Officers responded to a burglary call around 1 a.m. on Friday, hearing reports that a suspect was damaging vehicles. First spotting Taylor moving about the lot, officers also noticed Taylor's SUV had been smashed into the front of the dealership showroom. Finding that Taylor had moved inside the showroom, Arlington Police Chief Police Will Johnson said Taylor would not comply when told to lie down on the ground, but fled to a back room. 49-year-old officer Brad Miller entered the showroom to arrest Taylor, and then an altercation broke out. Miller fired four shots, including the fatal bullets from the gun of Miller. A second officer fired a taser, Johnson said. And now there are three main points that you should think of: 1) Taylor was described as a good kid. He was a football player at Angelo State University. Never was involved in criminal activities. 2) The officer graduated from the police academy less than 6 months ago and was working under the supervision of a training officer. 3) Taylor didn't want to die young. Black teens don't really live, they survive. And, unfortunately, there is no one to save them from death. There is no one to stop police brutality. We all want our kids to feel safe, we want them to be safe and sound. Are our hopes doomed to disappointment?

Yesterday night, a group of 50 protesters burned Confederate flag and tried to shutdown a freeway in Downtown Oakland. The opposition to police violence was in response to the police shooting earlier in the day. According to Oakland Police Department, yesterday at 2:39 p.m. in the area of 69th Avenue and International Boulevard, Oakland police officers spotted a vehicle they believe to be connected to a previous robbery on July 27. The pursuit started when the driver fled through Oakland streets until the suspect crashed into another car in the area of 27th Avenue and Martin Luther King Jr. street. But when the suspect ran of the car, three officers opened fire. The suspect Joe Bart has died at the hospital. Did you know that it was fifth shooting this year that involved police officers? How quickly it has become so usual? Why it has become so legit? Where is the government speaking about the existence of racism in America? Black Lives Matter!

Ad Text	Why black parents worry about their children? How should we talk to our children about how safely interact with police officers in order to protect themselves? Tina Carter-Shileds has five kids and three of them recently started to drive. The first thought she had when they wanted to drive alone was 'Wait a minute. I'm really scared right now.' What should they do if they get pulled over? What if they do something they don`t supposed to be doing? It is not always fair when officers arrest African Americans, but it`s a reality. What if police officers will automatically assume that your child is criminal because of how him or her looks. Black parents should remember that their kids will always be judged by the way they look. That`s why it`s important to instruct our children how to react when you are in trouble with law enforcement. Because if a stranger follows your child after him/her buy a bag of Skittles, ran back into the store. Remember, anything is better than dying. Anyways, it`s hard to believe that in 21st century black parents have to teach their children both survive and thrive. But who will take responsibility for training police officers?

Second of all, everybody is judging and stereotyping you by the color of your skin. Third of all, you are always being an “other” even in the country you were born. Forth of all you are always expected to be load and to dance well. In addition, there are lots of people who like to “throw race cards”. Can we live like that? How long should we wait for the government contributions?

The founder of the group Munir Bahar said that the march will last 20 hours in a memory of more than 200 people who have been killed in Baltimore this year. The 300 Men March will highlight the racism and violence across the country. What`s wrong with our society? Police kill unarmed citizens, we kill each other. What example we will be setting for the future generations? How are we going to break the cycle of violence? Are there any chances to overcome deeply rooted racism and violence in America? What if peace comes after the fairness?

The movie is coming this weekend in the theaters. However, some of the cinemas refused to show the movie, citing “safety and liability” concerns. Does it remind you of anything? How about Ferguson? How about Baltimore? Today you are willing to be detained in the name of defending your rights. Today cops can easily shoot you for a small violation. Even having black cops and black mayors doesn`t end police brutality. Fortunately today you are allowed to record police officers in order to further prevent potentially serious cases of police wrongdoing fairly.

Witnesses told LaBouvier that police had been called because the man was waving “sticks,” which later turned out to be his crutches. None of the employees at Twitter or other tech companies came out to object as the 14 officers took down the one-legged homeless man. The U.S. Justice Department recently filed court documents in an Idaho case which declared it unconstitutional to criminalize homelessness. According to the Coalition on Homelessness, the city handed out 11,000 citations to homeless people who were sitting on sidewalks between 7 a.m. and 11 p.m. in 2014. What kind of people police usually hire? Mentally unstable bloodthirsty cowards or? We already know the answer. Sometimes we all wonder do police officers have mercy for anyone? Hard to say, because what we see confuses us.

St. Louis police fatally shot a black teenager while trying to issue search warrant On Wednesday, Aug. 19 racial tensions again sparked in Missouri city after St. Louis police officers fatally shot black teenager at Walton Avenue and Page Boulevard while trying to issue search warrant. According to St. Louis Police Chief San Dotson, a young black man pointed a gun at officers and was trying to escape from a house where officers were carrying out a search warrant for him. The 33-year-old and 20-year-old officers who shot the suspect four times were about seven years on the force. That was followed by crowd of 150 people who gathered by intersection. Later on, nine people were arrested on charges of resisting arrest. The protesters said that the police provoked the situation. What do you think about it? What if this situation makes us want to keep the police out of our neighborhood? Why do you think police shoots first and then asks questions? Do you realize that the shooting came just ten days after St. Louis was flooded with protesters who were marking the anniversary of Michael Brown? What if the city and the government needs to center its attention on racism and discrimination in America instead of suspecting every single black men? We cannot accept the fact that police can easily kill black people in America, than we must do something about it. Protest or accept it. You choose. This is your life.

Black Americans often complaint about being pulled over for the phenomenon called “driving while black”. For example, a rich African American driving new Ferrari can be stopped hundreds of times for no apparent reason just because the fact that a black man driving an expensive car attract the attention of the police officers. But what if racial profiling ends with lethal consequences? Do you remember Sandra Bland who had run-ins with the police while driving? Do you all remember that she was found dead in police custody? Do we all have to avoid traffic stops in order to survive? For the matter of fact, the routine traffic stops are being a big deal for the people of color. According to the Justice Department statistics, black drivers are about 31 percent more likely to be subject to police than whites. Overall, this number indicates the racial difference in America.

Ad Text	Silenced racism in America Tamir Rice, Rumain Brisbon, Kajieme Powel, Dante Parker, Michael Brown, John Crawford III, Eric Garner, Jonathan Ferrell, Kimani Gray, Michael Brown and Sandra Bland are one of many examples of excessive police brutality used on black Americans. You never know if a simple traffic stop will end up with you in a police custody or bullets in your chest. Unfortunately, many of Americans feel very uncomfortable talking about these issues, which seem to confirm the idea that the government remain silent. Nevertheless, one should accept that African-Americans are more likely to be targeted by police officers on the street than whites. Therefore it endangers the rights of black community. Doubtless when the government defends the officers who have killed black men, it strikes us how unfair the system is and reaffirms our view that America would spend billions of dollars on radical extremists than talking about the domestic terrorism, racial inequality and police brutality.

Yet here we are, Tennessee parents are worried about their children`s safety at the local school after discovering that anyone is permitted to wear Confederate flag attire and to fly the Confederate flags at school. This provoked widespread discontent among black parents of Rutherford County. One of the parents said that she witnessed the students wearing the Confederate flag T-shirt and the controversial flags flying in the back students` cars. How would you feel if your child studies among those who like to fly the Confederate flags on their trucks? How would you feel about the safety of your child? Why children were permitted to openly display the Confederate flag on the school grounds? What kind of symbol the Confederate flag is for you? Do you remember Dylann Roof who killed black people at church? Do you remember that he was promoting the Confederate flag? What if your child studies among the same people? Is it an appropriate place for your kid to study? If Nazi flag was banned, than the Confederate flag must be outlawed too. Thus, if the government continues to accept this flag, it will bring more racist and hateful movements, because the Confederate flag shows a lack of empathy for African Americans slavery and for every black American man.

Willis pulled them over because one of the passengers allegedly flipped him the middle fighter from the window. When one of the young men asks the officer “What did I do?” the officer responds by saying, “I don’t know. I just don’t like you, I just don’t like you." The only crime committed by the occupants of the car was shooting the video. We have a legal right to film and photograph police, in every state! People should know their rights - it's the first step to stop police brutality. If another person smiling makes you that upset, you should not be permitted to own a gun. People, who have mental illness or anger issues should not having access to guns. Guns should be in the hands of responsible adults! Police went out of the control. How much respect do you think Police has for people? 0! In this way, if you can't control yourself it's time to retire, you don't deserve to carry the badge. America needs better gun control. Black Lives Matter activist Shaun King has claimed for years that he is biracial, being born to a white mother and a black father. But recently uncovered records claim he misled the public about his race, and that he is in fact a white man pretending to be black.

King’s race would not be under scrutiny if it was not an essential component of his career, education and social status. In addition to getting a full-ride scholarship that is exclusively for black men, King has the position of “Justice Columnist” at progressive news website Daily Kos and enjoys a 169,000-strong follower count on Twitter, most of whom are a result of his activism following the death of Mike Brown in Ferguson.

King still did not directly answer the simple yes or no question about his ethnic background: Are you black? Instead, he said, “If you have known me from when I was in elementary school at Huntertown Elementary until now, you’ve known me as black or bi-racial.”

Turning blackness into a performance is anti-blackness—irrespective of whether the white person doing it is Rachel Dolezal or Shaun King.

Ad Text	The threat of possible ISIS attacks on the U.S. Military families has risen U.S. Senator Cory Gardner, a Republican from Colorado said in a statement that he was alarmed by the reports of an FBI alert that relatives of the US military personnel in Wyoming and Colorado were harassed outside their homes by Middle Eastern men and might have been under surveillance. A copy of the alert said that the wife of a U.S. military member was approached in front of her home in Colorado by two men. The incident took place in May. Similar incidents in Wyoming repeated in June. We see that the threat of possible ISIS attack on families of the U.S. military has risen. And when the threat is so real the US intelligence agencies are doing nothing. As a matter of the fact they don’t fully perform their duties. First of all, the US security forces should take all appropriate measures to identify people who scour after the wives and children of the U.S. Military. Secondly, families of the U.S. Military should be taken under special protection of the police and the FBI. If even one hair of the U.S. Military family members will be lost then the work of American secret services isn’t worth a dime as they cannot maintain security on the American soil. In case of a negative scenario there won’t be any need in their work. And this will be the final nail in the coffin of the American secret services. Let’s remember the last FBI and NSA failures, such as failure to stop the Boston Marathon Bombings and so on. Our soldiers fight for America at the other end of the world and they deserve that their families should be kept safe.

The threat of possible ISIS attacks on the U.S. Military families has risen

U.S. Senator Cory Gardner, a Republican from Colorado said in a statement that he was alarmed by the reports of an FBI alert that relatives of the US military personnel in Wyoming and Colorado were harassed outside their homes by Middle Eastern men and might have been under surveillance. A copy of the alert said that the wife of a U.S. military member was approached in front of her home in Colorado b... See More

Almost half of students are served in our program for English as a second language, so it will take years before some students master the language. Immigrants use every excuse why they can't learn: poverty, racism, too much homework, the list is endless. The main question is why do American taxpayers should pay and take responsibility to provide translators for folks who don't make an effort to learn and speak English? This is unfair that those kids whose parents chose to immigrate here (most illegally) are all on welfare. They know they don't have to work, because the government will take care of them. So, if the government continues to keep the same standards for illegal immigrants, America will become another 3rd world country.

"It’s an inside job," said Rousey, who knocked out Bethe Correia in the first 34 seconds of the first round, is joined the club who questions September 11.

Rousey’s belief is also held by 9/11 victims’ family members and countless first responders who witnessed the attacks that fateful morning.

While the government continues to denial implication to the 9/11 we still how politicians "care" about our lives. What did they do with ISIS, who beheaded American journalist? What did they do after murder of US citizens in Libya?

Such ignorance from the government side make us feel not safe in our own country. Moreover, it looks like the government doesn't really care about lives of Americans. For the last decades America's "leadership" seem to be lackeys of corporations' interests.

We should provide a glimpse of reality to prevent such things in the future. So, if we let it go today, they'll do it again and again...

The vast majority of these combat vets served in Afghanistan and Iraq. About 19,000 of them have been pending one month and five years and about 16,000 have been pending for more than five years. It is known that after five years vets lose their eligibility for free health care. Moreover approx. one-third of 847,000 vets with pending applications for health care had already died. Well, this story clearly demonstrates what value for the state the life of a man willing to sacrifice means. In fact the government doesn’t care about its soldiers, even if they are heroes. This confirms that the government’s slapdash attitude to the recording vets system left more than 35,000 veterans without medical assistance. And how many of them died before the error in the database was revealed! A truly disgusting attitude to our soldiers!

I bet you remember the white former officer who shot and killed an unarmed black teen in Ferguson, last August? After national debate over the relationship between police and black communities Darren Wilson aka "Bad cop, who killed innocent black child" tried to go back to police work but was turned down because he's too big a liability. In the recent interview to New Yorker magazine he said, "It's too hot an issue, so it makes me unemployable." So what does the situation mean to America? Almost nothing except one thing... a man's life may be ruined because he had the audacity to defend himself against huge man with malicious intent. Michael Brown was a thug, who had just assaulted a store owner, and robbed him. Do you have any idea what should police officer do in such situation? He must stop the criminal, period. He was in a no-win situation and it proves how upside-down society has become. I wonder, what will be the next step of American justice degradation? Will surgeons be fired for operate patients with knives? Will Supreme Court send teachers to jail for teaching? Instead hate Wilson, we should pray for him. He did nothing wrong but idiots turned society against an innocent man. So is it a new America?

Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of Amber's family and friends whom she clearly loved deeply. Trans woman murdered in Detroit. According to initial police reports, 20-year-old Amber Monroe was shot to death. A lot of transgendered women don't have support systems or employment. So they are forced to do whatever they can do to survive. This attack was fueled by transphobia and we do know that Amber's murder is the 12th murder of a transgender woman in the United States this year, and the 10th murder of a transgender woman of color. Transgender women, and especially transgender women of color, are disproportionately affected by violence. Her life was just beginning... I know that this loss will leave so many people with a hole in their lives and with more questions than answers. Let's work for real change so that our transgender sisters can be free from persecution. I know we can do better. We have to do better!

Their goal is to see that Manning is as dehumanized as possible, but it's clear who the real non-humans are. Someone has gone to great lengths to paint Chelsea as a deceitful and psychotic character. And of course this world always need an amazing power of woman’s touch :-) Isn’t it just amazing? Wonder Woman presides over the wedding of two brides in Sensation Comics Featuring Wonder Woman, Chapter 48 written and illustrated by Jason Badower. Badower said he also really wanted to reference current affairs in the story - specifically, legalization of same-sex marriage nationwide. "I saw this Wonder Woman story as an incredible opportunity to have one of the most recognizable, iconic characters in the world to be among the first to step forward and officially endorse this new law," he said. "I thought, let's not just have Wonder Woman embrace this new law, let's have her celebrate it." Some may ask – why is it so important when superheroes depicted as supporters of marriage equality? Because it is a massive, land-mark milestone in LBGTQ rights history. Because the fight to get to normal was so difficult, and because the fight to change normal is still ongoing. Just like Wonder Woman using her superpowers to struggle with violence and injustice of the world! :-) #wonderwoman #superheroes #marriageequality #gaymarriage #lesbian

Wonder Woman comes from an island populated exclusively by women, so there's no doubt in our minds she is a supporter of the LGBT community. And of course this world always need an amazing power of woman's touch 🙂

Isn't it just amazing? Wonder Woman presides over the wedding of two brides in Sensation Comics Featuring Wonder Woman, Chapter 48 written and illustrated by Jason Badower.
Badower said he also really wanted to reference current affairs in the story - specifically... See More

Ad Text An openly gay Cuban American poet will take part in Friday's ceremony at the U.S. Embassy in Cuba where the American flag will be raised. The ceremony will mark the official reopening of the U.S. embassy along Havana's oceanfront promenade that overlooks the Florida Straits.

'My inspiration is thinking about 90 miles separating the two countries and the two people, 90 miles is the sea between us.' Just 90 miles, but at the same time it is a vast schism that separates the United States from Cuba.

The poet added he hopes there's still possible to achieve "healing" between the two countries.

'This very moment, the negotiation of cultural identities…This just seems so surreal still…This is really in some sense just the beginning, the dawn of new things to come.'

It would be so great if it will be indeed a new hope and a new day for Cuba, country which is still struggling to recover from severe embargo, country abused by wars. Sadly, the United States participated and initiated many of these conflicts… And there's more - severe economic crisis, socialist dictatorship of Cuban leaders.
It's time for us to lend a helping hand.

A Kentucky clerk who defied a federal judge's order to issue marriage licenses and turned away four gay couples has until Monday to convince the judge to delay his mandate. U.S. District Judge David L. Bunning rejected Rowan County Clerk Kim Davis' claim that her Christian faith should exempt her from issuing marriage licenses to same-sex couples and ordered her on Wednesday to hand out the licenses. But her office kept denying them. Interesting what would happen if I walked up to my boss and said I refuse to the job I am being paid for today? Let me think... guess I would stand in the unemployment line! Her job is not to participate in gay weddings!! All she has to do is confirm that the paperwork is correct! She should be fired, fined and charged with contempt of court!

Ad Text	On the first anniversary of Robin Williams' death, I want to remember his most influential LGBT roles throughout his acting career. The 63-year-old comedian, who had struggled with depression, died by suicide on August 11 2014. His widow Susan Schneider said at the time of his death: "As he is remembered, it is our hope the focus will not be on Robin's death, but on the countless moments of joy and laughter he gave to millions." Even at home, Williams exhibited acceptance for the LGBT community with his trademark playfulness. While he denied rumours about being gay, he had no qualms about discussing the sexuality of his pet pug. He said: "I also have a gay rescue pug called Leonard. He has a boyfriend and they are planning to adopt a Siamese kitten together. We're very modern." When the Westboro Baptist announced its intentions to picket his funeral, pro-LGBT organisation Planting Peace raised over $40,000 for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital – one of Williams' favourite charities. Robin Williams played many different roles in so many people's lives, and giving back to others was at the top of that list... We will never forget you. And we'll always love you...

Ad Text	Are you going to vote in this presidential election as young black male or female? The founder and editor-in-chief of Black Millennial and one of the organizers of Black Lives Matter NYC Arielle Newton is 23-years-old. She is black college-educated woman who is drawing in $160,000 student loan debt. Today, Arielle is centered on the roots causes racism and resulting epidemic discrimination and socioeconomic illness. In fact, in her opinion the candidates for the next president of the United States of America are problematic in terms of lack of transparency and accountability. For instance, one candidate is complicit in fueling the war on drugs; another one in corrupted criminal justice system, next one in making racial justice as the centerpiece of the campaign as a strategy to have more black voters. Doubtless, voting won`t bring us safety and won`t provide us an immediate conduit for our social well-being. Ironically, even the first black president of the United States of America was not able to withstand the racist opposition and law enforcement. It means voting again for anti-black system won`t save black lives, but might jeopardize it.

Rowan County Clerk Kim Davis will have to choose whether to issue marriage licenses, defying her Christian conviction, or continue to refuse them, defying a federal judge who could pummel her with fines or order that she be hauled off to jail. For Ms. Davis to enact her own personal policy is completely unacceptable. She is on her fourth marriage, a sinner according to her Bible, yet she’s screaming about religious convictions. What a hypocrite! And she doesn't even perform the ceremony, only issue a license. What her religious convictions has to do with it?? It's not up to her to make policy, it's her role only to enact it! Funny how all these "Christians" are preaching and practicing all this hate, eh? If Jesus were around today, his response would be most likely, "What the hell is wrong with you people!" #SameSexMarriage #MarriageEquality #Kentucky #SCOTUS #homophobia #bigotry

More than twenty protesters organized by the Mass Action Against Police Brutality group are calling for a further investigation into videotaped incident that took place in Washington Street in Roslindale. Nearly three-minute videotape posted to Youtube shows Boston Police officer earlier this month choking an 18-year-old Elvin Vargas and attempting to put him in a cruiser after he was arrested on August 16. Have you noticed than excessive force by police is disproportionate on people of color? When the government, law enforcement, the criminal justice system will treat all communities with dignity? How long should we complain about threats against our lives? As the ability to record police activity has become more widespread, can we achieve justice?

Ad Text Jamycheal Mitchell: Mentally Ill, Criminalized, and Killed by the System

Stories like the one of Jamycheal Mitchell, the 24-year-old young man who was found dead in his jail cell on August 19, are particularly hard to hear. What the police ruled "natural causes" turned out to be that he starved to death. The crime? Shoplifting. Mitchell, who had a severe mental illness had been ruled permanently disabled and was unable to work. In April, he stole a zebra cake, a Snickers, and Mountain Dew from a local 7-11 in Portsmouth, Virginia. It would be a month before he ever went before a judge.

A judge then ruled him incompetent to stand trial. He should have been transported to a local mental health facility, but he wasn't. Apparently there wasn't one that had room for him. Three months later he was found dead in his cell. No meds had ever been administered. He had never made it to a mental health facility. He had lost nearly 80 pounds because he refused to eat. All for less than $5 worth of snacks he stole while in a mental health crisis.

Yes, you can die over 5 dollars here in America. Nothing new here. Justice is just an empty word in this country. Be sure, you will never know the truth. We are far away from the truth.

Ad Text	Because They Lack Crucial Training, These Cops Severely Beat a Blind Autistic Teen Unconscious During the incident, Abrams, 17, suffered two seizures after police used force against him at the Green Line’s Lexington Parkway Station. The teen suffers from Asperger’s syndrome, which causes him to strongly dislike being touched or having people in his person space, and is considered legally blind, wearing extremely magnified glasses. Officers thought the non-compliance of Abrams was reason enough to justify forcibly taking him down, which resulted in him being battered and left unconscious. Abrams non-compliance wasn’t done out of malice, but out of not really understanding the situation, and believing he hadn’t done anything wrong. Abrams’ autism makes it extremely difficult for him to interpret the intentions or feelings of others, according to his mother. Police released the teen to the custody of his mother rather than take him to the juvenile detention facility. Police are trained to think like the military in combat, which means they prioritize their own safety and the safety of fellow officers over everything else, including that of the citizens they allegedly “protect and serve.”

Had the situation been reversed, however, police officers would face neither criminal nor civil prosecution for declining to aid a citizen under assault by a suspect. A man named Devonte Conerly who was suspected in a hit and run incident, allegedly tried to disarm the police officer who stopped him. Several officers responded to a call for assistance and eventually subdued and handcuffed Conerly. They then rebuked several bystanders who had declined to intervene. Bystanders are not liable to prosecution if the failure to render aid “was reasonable under the circumstances,” but the burden of demonstrating that this is the case is placed upon the accused. When you'll see a bunch of cops beating an unarmed man, don't forget that you can be in his place just for not helping cops in committing a crime.

Ad Text Know your rights and your freedom

The murders of Michael Brown, Tryvon Martin, Freddie Gray, Eric Gartner and other black victims have dramatized depth of racism in America society. They were young and Black- that was enough for police officers to decide that they looked suspicious. The police brutality has sparked the movement and has emerged to demand justice and political attention. However, the everyday racism we see was not understood, but ignored. Moreover, the government along with the law enforcement violate our rights through the illegal use of force and mass arrests in order to obstruct our free expression.

Yes, standing up for your right to protest for the equality and justice is challenging, but it`s worth discrimination and unfairness black civilians face everyday. Remember, knowing your rights can be the most powerful weapon you have against police abuse and brutality.

The most famous civil rights activists represent a basic philosophy, known for their fight against injustice and lasting profound impact in the lives of African-Americans. Martin Luther King Jr., Malcolm X, Mary McLeod Bethune, Rosa Parks changed our lives forever.

But what changes have you made? Have you contributed to a greater equality? What are you doing to fight against injustice and racism? Have you ever protested in civil rights protests or have you ever been part of Black Lives Matter movement? How do your protect your right to free expression?

Please comment below, what have YOU done to prove- BLACK LIVES MATTER?

Ad Text	Barack Obama and his team have spent two months working to secure 41 percent for Iran deal. And now they claim enourmous victory. Under the Constitution, treaties require the support of two-thirds of the Senate. The deal with Iran is a treaty in every respect — a legally binding long-term agreement between sovereign powers, in which hundreds of billions of dollars will flow and billions of dollars in nuclear materiel will be destroyed. Since this is a treaty and we have 100 senators, Obama should have been obliged to secure the backing of 67 senators, not 41. Obama knows he can never get Iran deal through the Congress. Americans voted for the GOP in 2014 to provide Republican majority in both the House of representatives and the Senate. It has to stop crazy ideas of Obama. But Obama is not stupid, he is very crafty politician. He succeded to change a subject to a vote – not of approval, like a treaty, but of disapproval. It would be treated like any piece of legislation. It would be voted on by the House and the Senate, and if they turned thumbs-down, he could then exercise his presidential veto. The Constitution requires a second vote by the two Houses of Congress to overturn such a veto — and in that case, the vote has to be by two-thirds. So, instead of 67 Senators having to support the deal to make it legal, 67 senators have to disapprove of it to render it null and void. It is enough 60 or more Senators to overturn a veto. But you remember, 41 Senators agree to support the deal. Thus, it may well be that for the first time in American history, a president will simply impose a treaty on the country without even the pretense of seeking and obtaining the advice and consent of the Congress. And how? With 42 percent. Barack Obama is very smart man, but he is not a patriot. He doesn't care about Americans. All what he cares is his outsized ambitions.

And it may be assumed they were smarter than many liberals. The second amendment is deterrent. If a criminal knows you have a gun, he doesn’t want to rob you. Of course, not all Americans have a gun, but criminals don’t know who is unarmed. Liberals can say that guns increase crime rate. In fact, it is nonsense. Look at statistics: the most gun-friendly state is Wyoming, and it has low crime-rate. The states with high crime rate are states where there are many illegals as usual. So, liberal hysteria is just foolishness. Liberals find reasons of crimes in wrong places. The U.S. Constitution should be saved. Do you agree?

Illegal immigrants work illegally and they don’t pay taxes. Many of them commit a crime. And the police have no their finger prints because illegals have never obtained U.S. visa. All of amendments are steps that made the United States the greatest country in the world. The U.S. Constitution is not only the law, it is the basis of the country. Every true patriot respects it. Unfortunately, last decade has become the time of nihilism. More and more people don't respect American law. More and more people come to the United States and some of them don't feel reverence for our Constitution. It goes without saying that illegals who already broke the immigration law and will violate the supreme law easily. But the worst thing is that the current president of the United States and some high-ranking officials also spit upon the Constitution. They call for ban the right to bear arms, a confederate flag (I think this flag reflects not slavery, but important part of American history) and some liberals ban even the Old Glory -- a school district in Tennessee has banned all flags and banners, including the U.S. flag -- and so on. The same regards the Iran deal. America has a hard time. And we have to save the U.S. Constitution. We have to do it in God's name! America has to be great again because we are one nation under God!

Ad Text 9/11: 14 years later. What were you doing?

14 years ago America has changed forever. One of the darkest days in American history came. The tragedy of September 11th is still touching us. Some of us lost our family members or our friends, while others saw the terrorist attacks firsthand. R.I.P to all innocent victims, workers, police officers, firefighters and even dogs that died in this tragedy. This is a day in our history that everyone is going to remember. Today we should honor the memory of the killed ones and share our stories. What were you doing on 9/11?

I'd like to tell you #My911Story.
I was only 15 when the attacks occurred. I was at school. I remember that somebody came and told us that there had been a serious bombing in NYC. We all said a prayer for the victims and went back to studies. But a few minutes later all students began receiving calls from their relatives. My mom called me crying. School was letting out early that day. When I came home I remember my dad watching the news and telling me that terrorists took responsibility for the attacks.

And do you remember what you were doing on 9/11?

Alex Salinas was asked by his family to be godfather to his nephew, but the bishop of his local diocese on Spain’s southern coast questioned his gender identity. Salinas was born a woman but has since undergone hormone therapy and has a male ID in Spain. He is now waiting for gender surgery. Bishop Rafael Zornoza Boy of Cadiz and Ceuta rejected the family’s request to name Salinas as a godfather. Then, after a media storm, the bishop wrote to the Vatican for advice. Zornoza published the Vatican’s reasoning for rejecting Salinas’ wish. It said transsexual behavior “reveals in a public way an attitude opposite to the moral imperative of solving the problem of sexual identity according to the truth of one’s own sexuality.” The pope supported gays, but now for some reason the transman wasn't allowed to be a godfather in Spain, an entirely Catholic, but at the same time, the most friendly country towards the LGBT community. Anyway it's just another superstition of Church. Funny.

The space warrior appears in Star Wars: Aftermath, which bridges the gap between Return of the Jedi and new film The Force Awakens. Sinjir, an Imperial turncoat who now serves in Luke Skywalker’s Rebellion, is the first major gay role to be part of the Star Wars universe. He reveals his sexuality to female bounty hunter Jas Emari, who tries to chat him up. Chuck Wendig, author of Star Wars: Aftermath, said: "I don’t think his sexuality needs to be this giant plot point. At the same time, it’s part of who he is. Isn't that great, guys? Ain't no lie, It's a big step forward. We want to thank the creators of the new "Star Wars" for the incredible courage and opposition to conservative bias in Hollywood cinema. There should be a special organization in Hollywood that will protect the rights of gay actors. There should be at least one gay character in every movie in order to help the American society get rid of homophobic stereotypes.

When Martin Luther King Junior was a child, he built up a dream that one day his family will live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character. Years later, he educated and inspired people throughout America and unborn generations.

Today many liberals encroach upon the right of Americans to bear arms. They argue there are many unreliable people in the United States. They think this argument gives them the right to spit upon commandments of our Founding Fathers. But if the problem is mentally ill thugs, maybe we should toughen up firearms licensing rules for people from most dangerous districts? It doesn't mean we propose to ban guns there. But these people should be carefully checked regarding the systematic use of drugs and mental disorders. And I would not be surprised if most of people who failed drug tests were liberals.

Maybe it sounds rude a bit. But we found a similar idea among petitions for Obama's administration on the White House website.

Ad Text	The leader of radical religious group Nation of Islam, Louis Farrakhan, announced that 20th anniversary Million Man March rally will take place on October 10, 2015 in Washington, D.C., at the National Mall. Organizers of the Million Man March call for justice, standing against the police and for blacks, Latinos and incarcerated. They say racism rises among the police officers, but in fact it rises among radical groups. Only black activists say “black lives matter”, forgetting the fact that justice is when all lives matter. Americans are not against blacks, Latinos, etc. But if somebody breaks the law, he should be punished despite of his color or religion. If somebody goes over the speed limit, he should be ticketed. If somebody breaks the immigration law, he should be deported. If somebody kills a man, he should be imprisoned. Given the fact that two Islamic extremists who were arrested one year ago in Ferguson belong to the Nation of Islam, I cannot believe in Farrakhan’s benevolent intentions. This Million Man March looks like another liberal overture to black and Muslim communities. This is a bad idea, especially if we take into account the recent news about British jihadi who have published the address of the Navy Seal Robert O'Neill, the man who fatally shot Osama bin Laden, and called on American extremists to execute him. There is no problem, if whoever wants to live in the United States. But he should live here legally; he should not break the law. It’s justice.

The leader of radical religious group Nation of Islam, Louis Farrakhan, announced that 20th anniversary Million Man March rally will take place on October 10, 2015 in Washington, D.C., at the National Mall. Organizers of the Million Man March call for justice, standing against the police and for blacks, Latinos and incarcerated.

They say racism rises among the police officers, but in fact it rises among radical groups. Only black activists say "black lives matter", forgettin...

The Department will release drug offenders who received harsh sentences over the last three decades. Every third of them is illegal immigrant. Barack Obama has criticized overblown sentencing laws that "disproportionately impact communities of color." But is it indeed a reason to release criminals? If Latinos commit crimes often than whites, it doesn’t mean that some Latino criminals should escape penalty.

Ad Text WEAR BLACK, FIGHT BACK! CHALLENGE FOR OUR SUBSCRIBERS!

October 22nd is one of the most important days for all of us. From 1996 onward people around the country have mobilized for a National Day of Protest to stop police brutality, repression and the criminalization of a generation.
The powerful National Day of Protest will be brought in cities and towns all across the country. Let's make history together! It's time to stand up for our rights and our freedom!

Our community has a challenge for you, guys. All you need to do is:
wear black - take a picture of yourself during or right before/after this event - send it to us. Simple as that!

We will post all the pictures on our page, so that the whole African American community will know about you and your efforts.
It's really important for us to know we're united. It's important for us to know we care about our future.
Black Matters will appreciate your efforts too!

Check the official website to find an event in your area:

Ad Text Why I March! #JusticeOrElse

20 years ago. 20 years a million men, women and children gathered on the National Mall in Washington, DC answering the call from Minister Louis Farrakhan to come to the nation's capital and show our strength in numbers and unity and remind politicians that our voices would be heard. 20 years later, we return to call on our politicians to fix our broken criminal justice system once and for all.

I march to fix a system that houses more black men in our prison system than there were black men enslaved in 1850. To fix a system that allows for local prosecutors to investigate their friends at the police department when there is an officer-involved shooting. To fix a system that has drug laws that disproportionately arrest black and brown people for using drugs when white people use at the same rate. To fix a system that has built a private industry off the backs of prisoners laboring for pennies. To fix a system that doesn't video record the actions of law enforcement at all times. To fix a system that criminalizes young women who are pimped and sexually trafficked before they even turn 18. To fix a system that does not collect any national data on incidents when police use excessive force or discharge their firearm. To fix a system that has incarcerated more people than any other nation in the world. To fix a system that has created a school to prison pipeline by harsher school discipline practices for young students of color. To fix a system of policing that targets communities of color by programs like "Stop & Frisk" or "Broken Windows."

This is why I march. This is why we all should march in order to build a better future for our kids. We should fight the institutional racism in the country.

Like and share if you want to help the movement!

Ad Text Mass Shooting At Umpqua Community College In Oregon, 10 Reported Dead

Ten people were killed and seven were wounded Thursday in a shooting at a small community college in Roseburg, Oregon. The shooting took place in classrooms in Snyder Hall.
Law enforcement officials have identified Chris Harper Mercer as the man responsible for the mass shooting.He had four weapons on him - three handguns and one assault weapon. Also he was definitely ready to put up a fight, because he had body armor and stash of ammunition.

One of the witnesses said that the gunman first asked about people’s religions before he began firing.
The hospital said that all victims were female between the ages of 18 and 34, and quoted a doctor who said that an "army" of doctors and nurses had volunteered to help.

It's the 45th shooting at a school so far this year. Obama said that America is the only country on Earth that sees these kinds of mass shootings every few months. And he's right. People already got used to this. Isn’t it time for some gun control yet?
Some white supremacists say that the killer was mixed and he supported BLM. This information is not confirmed and is more likely to be fake. This dude is definitely not black. His parents are Caucasian. The fact it's been a few hours since the shooting and they haven't say what race he is means he's white. And honestly, word "shooting" isn't used correctly here. Can we call it terror? Oh, wait. White male though...

Ad Text	Common response after the massacre in Oregon is ‘I Want to Have a Gun’. “I want to have a gun in the house to protect myself, to protect the people I’m with. I’m sure I’ll have a normal life and never have to go through anything like this, but I want to be sure,” said Mr. Vicari, 19. The right to bear arms allows the people to protect themselves. Gun control will deprive them this opportunity. And criminals will buy a firearm illegally. I don’t know why some liberals are not able to understand it. Anyway, patriots stand for the 2nd amendment. We will never allow them to repeal or amend it!

Ad Text	All Roads Lead To Washington D.C. On October 10, 2015 in Washington, D.C., at the National Mall, The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan will convene the 20th Anniversary of the Million Man March under the theme: Justice or Else! “The Million Man March was one of the most historic organizing and mobilizing events in the history of Black people in the United States,” said Chicago-based Dr. Conrad Worrill, who was a main organizer of the March and the current president emeritus of the National United Black Front. The widespread death, rising racism, mob attacks and police brutality on Blacks coupled with economic deprivation and stark poverty, requires that something must be immediately done to address and correct the condition. We should stop the violence and the killings and present ourselves as a united front before the Government of the United States of America. Fredrick Douglas said “ Power concedes nothing except by a demand”. Our demand of government must be backed by the power of our unity and love of the brotherhood. It's really important for all of us, brothers and sisters. Join the Movement! 10-10-15 Justice Or Else!

Ad Text	Come and show on which side you are in the fight against police brutality. Please, join families of people killed by law enforcement at the National Day of Protest Against Police Brutality on October 22. 956 people were killed by police in 2015, and at least 161 of them were unarmed. We all witness justice being gone from this country, and we all understand: each of these stolen lives must never be forgotten. October 22 is a day when thousands of people throughout the country can join forces to express their outrage, sorrow and resistance as a response to the brutality of this system. October 22 is time to show that we all have an opinion, it’s time to fight back.

Ad Text	This military campaign is very ambiguous given that it has cost nearly 2,500 American lives and hundreds of billions of dollars. The goal was to "disrupt the use of Afghanistan as a terrorist base of operations." Well, the intervention deprived al-Qaida of a sanctuary. But al-Qaida — even after its leader Osama bin Laden was killed by U.S. commandos — has spawned cells elsewhere and inspired other extremists in Syria and Iraq. And now ISIS is rising as the most powerful terrorist organisation in the world. So, the question is whether it's worth to risk the lives of thousands of American soldiers for the mission that hardly can be called successful? It seems that Obama should review his military strategy without delay.Join us! Veterans USA (@veterans GovSpending

Ad Text	Help us spread their shame! Anonymous unhoods the KKK prominent politicians. US Senators Thom Tillis (R-N.C.), John Cornyn (R-Tx.), Dan Coats (R-In.) and Johnny Isakson (R-Ga.). US mayors Madeline Rogero of Knoxville, Tennessee; Jim Gray of Lexington, Kentucky; Paul D. Fraim of Norfolk, Virginia; Kent Guinn of Ocala, Florida; and Tom Henry of Fort Wayne, Indiana. As long as there are the KKK members in the government, racism in the country will prosper. They should resign. If you want to stop this madness, take a minute to sign the petition: https://www.change.org/p/barack-obama-u-s-house-of-representatives-u-s-senate-list-the-ku-klux-klan-as-an-official-terrorist-organization We need around 2,000 signs to reach 10,000. The KKK should be labeled as a terrorist group! Share this with your friends and ask them to sign the petition! Your efforts will be appreciated. It's time to make a change!

Ad Text	A heavily armed Syed Farook, his wife and brother opened fire on a holiday banquet for his co-workers Wednesday, killing 14 people and seriously wounding more than a dozen others in a precision assault. Hours later, two terrorists died in a shootout with San Bernardino police. One shooter still at large. It is known that gunmen are Muslims. They are very religious and probably linked with ISIS. California shooting should become a lesson for the administration – accepting refugees from Syria threatens the National security. It's tragedy. Enemies of America attacked our people again. Unfortunately, today we have no strong leader who is courageous enough to conquer terrorism. Nevertheless, we will not allow terrorists to change our way of life. We will not allow them to restrict our freedoms. We express our sincere condolences to families of victims in California shooting. Ad Text	Click to Learn More! In the 1730s, a seven-year-old English girl was washed up on the shores of West Africa and was adopted by her rescuers. She became the wife of a Prince and started a dynasty that extends into many of today's Xhosa royal families. Due to her recessive gene, now and then a child is born in the area with bright blue eyes. This is fascinating! This is a pure luck for a Black girl to be adopted and loved after being thrown to the sea. I guess she deserved to be a queen after what she had experienced. Ad Text	As we celebrate and reflect upon the birth of the great Martin Luther King Jr., a voice of the people and one who sacrificed his life for the total liberation of Black Americans, the question is "who will keep his dream alive"? He saw the promise-land where blacks and whites live together in harmony and each of them given equal rights and privileges, freedom and justice. Today, we do not see this equality among blacks and whites in America. These rights and privileges, freedom and justice shouldn't be for some selected few but all! Where is the justice? Our brothers and sisters are being cruelly killed by the so-called police every day and our judicial system is absolutely blind. We are all Americans, but why does our corrupt Government differ black and white people? We want the same attitude! I don`t want to be scared of living in my country! They will never shut me up!

Ad Text	There're a lot of racial discrimination going on in America these days. Can you imagine that a group of armed men took over a federal property and have vowed to kill if they are forced to leave there unless the government change the law in their favor. Nonsense! The ongoing Oregon standoff has taught us is that it’s never been more apparent that the U.S. government values white lives above all others. The most stark example is comparing the kid-gloves treatment the white gunmen in Oregon are getting with the 1985 bombing of the MOVE house in Philadelphia. #GunmeninOregon #TheMove #1985Bombing

Ad Text	As we celebrate and reflect upon the birth of the great Martin Luther King Jr., a voice of the people and one who sacrificed his life for the total liberation of Black Americans, the question is "who will keep his dream alive"? He saw the promise-land where blacks and whites live together in harmony and each of them given equal rights and privileges, freedom and justice. Today, we do not see this equality among blacks and whites in America. These rights and privileges, freedom and justice shouldn't be for some selected few but all!

As we celebrate and reflect upon the birth of the great Martin Luther King Jr., a voice of the people and one who sacrificed his life for the total liberation of Black Americans, the question is "who will keep his dream alive"?
He saw the promise-land where blacks and whites live together in harmony and each of them given equal rights and privileges, freedom and justice.
Today, we do not see this equality among blacks and whites in America.
These rights and privileges, freedom and justice shouldn't be for some selected few but all!

And there is little chance the situation will change in the near future. The failure of the Defense Department and VA to create a joint electronic health record, despite spending $1 billion for development is just another example of it. Click Learn More! In addition, more than half of the US's governors have said they will no longer provide placement for Syrian refugees, arguing that they pose too great a risk to national security. New Jersey governor and Republican presidential candidate Chris Christie has said his state will not take in any refugees – "not even orphans under the age of five". Louisiana governor Bobby Jindal has said he has directed state police to "track" the Syrian refugees in his state, something his state police have played down. GOP presidential hopefuls Ted Cruz and Jeb Bush have suggested the US government prioritize Christian refugees. Barack Obama has pledged to veto the legislation, and has condemned the anti-refugee comments as "un-American", but experts worry the backlash could have dangerous consequences if these claims go unchecked. Ad Text	Hey what's up buds! Let's continue to preserve our history from substitution. It is well-known how libtards are eager to blame our forefathers for being racist. Yet they always forget to underpin their empty words with facts. Not like all these SJWs, let's refer to racial discrimination in the army of Union. A black soldier was paid $10 a month with a $3 clothing fee taken out, while a white soldier was paid $13 a month but was not forced to pay a clothing allowance. Almost a twofold difference! How tolerant tho! And what was going on in the "racist" Confederate States Army? Every soldier was paid $11/month until 1864 regardless of his skin color. Ad Text	Say no to genocide in america. Join our protest that will be held in front of the Headquarters of the United Nations in New York city on February 17, 18, 19. The race is not to the swift, nor does the battle to the strong, but time and chance happen to them all. as long as black community is not completely irradicated from the land of america, we, the little remaining, will continue to voice our griverances out and strive our way through until we attain freedom and justice. black americans are brutalised everyday and the oppressors go “scot free”. we have no advocate, but we assure” white america” that ones we have lives, our voices are our tool for survival.

Ad Text	Police Officer Robert Rialmo’s attorney, Joel Brodsky, says that he will be filing a counterclaim against the estate of Quintonio LeGrier on the grounds of assault and emotional distress. This is how it looks like when A White Police kills a black Civiliian, and also feels it’s his right to sue the dead because sympathizers gave him a sleepless night. If it was lawful to kill Quintonio LeGrier because he was in abnormal state of mind according to the cops, then we ask, how about the shooting of Bettie Jones? The story is always rewritten and painted when it comes to dealing with race. Racial disparity and segregation cannot be overlooked in America. There is too much level of inhumanity. The cops still things it wasn’t enough killing a mentally disordered and an innocent woman. He still has the balls to sue even the dead. This is what living in America is like, if you are black.

Ad Text	They came for the children, but I had no small children so I didn't stand up. They came for the ranchers, but I'm not a rancher so I didn't stand up. They came for the guns, but I don't have any guns so I didn't stand up. They came after the people who speak out against to tyranny, but I don't speak out so I didn't stand up. They came after me, and there was no one left to stand up. My friends, if you have never stood for anything now is the time. Look around you, how much freedom do you have? They have been demonstrating their misconduct for so long that now WE have to make them understand how it feels to watch somebody breaking the rules and be unable to do anything about it. If we remain silent and don’t show these assholes that we are not going to tolerate #policebrutality, the officers will continue to think that they are above the law. Fk the police!

We all know that black communities and Natives have always been plagued by an array of issues that we have to deal on a daily basis. Watching America's reaction to racism is very telling. Last year, police brutality and racism have made it t the forefront. Hundreds of unarmed black men and women died at the hands of police officers.

We are tired to feel neglected and ignored. We all have had enough. And now we need to come together, be honest and get the government`s attention.

You are all invited to join [redacted]

We do not expect you to solve generations of inequality and oppression overnight. We do, however, expect you to come and to address the issues and put forward a plan to make change.

Closeted minor leaguer for St Louis Cardinals quit after coach and players spoke of killing gay people Tyler Dunnington was a 28th-round pick by the St Louis Cardinals in the 2014 Major League Baseball draft and given a chance to pursue his dream of being in the big leagues. But after just one season pitching for a Cardinals minor league team and performing solidly, Dunnington quit. He explains that during his playing days, he was a closeted gay man playing in an uncomfortable environment. A particular low point came when a coach made a bragging reference to the brutal murder in Wyoming of gay college student Matthew Shepard whose death led to federal hate crime legislation in the US. And the hate goes on and on and on....You need fight back! It's a shame all those "big strong men" are afraid of what somebody does in private!!

Ad Text	??? Finally!! It took long enough! It's so strange that there are individuals and groups out there still living in the past! For the first time, LGBTQ groups included in NYC’s St. Patrick’s parade The nation’s largest St. Patrick’s Day parade kicked off Thursday in New York City, and for the first time in decades, gay activists are not decrying it as an exercise in exclusion. The first of roughly 200,000 marchers began striding up Fifth Avenue just after 11 a.m. in a procession of throbbing pipes and drums, smiling dignitaries and waving flags. Thank you!! Now we can come out of the closet and show you who we are! I have a fundamental objection to creating divisions , groups , categories of citizens. Black, white, rich, poor, nationality and gender... He took a gun and ordered his other two brothers to take a video of the whole incident. Michael Ford, at the police vicinity opened fire and got the cop's attention. The filming was still in process as he commanded. The first cops who appeared fired back and almost immediately ended up drawing fire. He gave the other officer a chance to get into position when he opened fire. It's quite not understandable why his own cop shot him and shot the mentality ill man too. This is a good example of sick reality too. Is there any explanation why cops have started shooting each other? Alabama happens to be one of the nation’s poorest states which have led to overcrowd in its prison. The prison system houses 24,000 inmates but it was designed for 13,000.Let me enlighten you a little on how it’s going to be done. Four other larger prisons will be built additionally to prevent the rate of overcrowd. Even though one would have taught of using this money for projects like health care facilities and other, he chose prisons. It’s not bad though, at least inmates will have free live behind bars. Freeing himself from emotional trauma, Carter decided to hip his soul with music, when he put his headphones on and started to dance. Suddenly, officers approached him and began asking him out of the premises. Apparently he had not committed any crime or violated any order, so he was disturbed and begun to argue with them. Seriously this guy was detained for useless reasons. This is what American police find interest in – unnecessary and useless way of harassing blacks. Very ridiculous. Ad Text	A 21-year-old Oklahoma man was sentenced on Monday to 40 years in prison for sexually assaulting orphaned children while on a missionary trip in Kenya in 2014. Matthew works at an orphanage built and run by an American citizen named Upendo Children Centre. The main aim of this orphanage was to assist abandoned children in Nairobi, Kenya. Upon Matthew’s arrival in Kenya, he insisted on not staying in the apartment allocated to him by authorities but preferred to stay in the very dormitory where these children stayed. He also based his choice on being in a better position to assist the children should the need arise. Mathew raped three teenagers – ages of 5, 9, and 15 respectively for not less than 8 times. He also maltreated a 12 year old boy. This outrageous act led to his sentence of 40 years imprisonment and a fined of $15, 863.

Most people are jailed because one way or the other there was no money to do what was necessary at a particular time even though they were innocent. Prosecutors have developed this platform as a gold mine, extracting huge sum of money from civilians. You can be put behind bars if you fail to comply with the demands. Suddenly one’s life becomes tattered when jail comes in, because there is no freedom of making a better living. Federal prosecutors should shake up and hold judges and all these people who take advantages of people by making them pay huge sums of money or put someone behind bars because he/she couldn’t pay a fine. They normally aimed at groups whom they opposed. The Klan held an anti-immigration rally on Saturday. They got surrounded by group of protestors who beat and kicked them violently. On Monday evening, a crowd of civil right protesters gathered for a vigil against Ku Klux Klan. It was a march where the protesters carried signs that had the inscription “Power through Peace”. This march was an intended peaceful march which was meant to bring peace and unity. Ad Text	Questions about why police shot and critically wounded a 17-year-old Somali refugee in Salt Lake City grew Monday as civil rights groups called for answers and several hundred protesters took the streets holdings signs that read, “Stop killer cops.” It’s very insane when those who are to protect us have turned into serial killers. The most annoying part is that they have refused to release the footage video. They need retraining. Whatever happened to Tasers? Whatever to rubber bullets? Whatever happened to shooting shots in the sky as a warning? Why are police wearing body cam and we can’t see it? If they’re right, let’s see it. Ad Text	A young black guy who was mentally disabled decided to end his life, but will only do that by making the cops kill him. This is absolutely insane in the highest order. He took a gun and ordered his other two brothers to take a video of the whole incident. Michael Ford, at the police vicinity opened fire and got the cop's attention. The filming was still in process as he commanded. The first cops who appeared fired back and almost immediately ended up drawing fire. He gave the other officer a chance to get into position when he opened fire. It's quite not understandable why his own cop shot him and shot the mentality ill man too. This is a good example of sick reality too. Is there any explanation why cops have started shooting each other? For them it’s enough and wealth it, but to the family of Anderson it’s not better than the life taken. These guys should pay a death penalty for taking a life. This is a racial act. Report says between hits, they screamed, “White power!” before Dedmon ran him over, causing fatal injuries. There is no particular reason for whatever they did so America shouldn’t think they have done something much greater. “Money cannot buy life,” that is what Bob Nesta Marley said and he is absolutely right.

Smith added in her interview: “I want Hillary to talk to me personally, and tell me why there was no security there, when they were asked for it. I know this, because I spoke to my son. That day, he says he was really scared, because he saw the 17 people — 17 November, whatever it was, that they were walking around taking pictures. And he was afraid. He says it didn’t look very good. And he was afraid. And that he asked for security, and he was turned down.” This must be a mean joke we're having that kind of liar as a possible president. Even understanding that most liberals are brainwashed I just don't get it - how can a politician caught in a lie of that scale still be trusted by electorate? One must be totally insane to follow THAT kind of leader. Patricia’s son is an American hero and his blood is on Hillary’s hands.

Ad Text	The liberal mass media tried to overblow a story about the KKK’s endorsement of Trump. They claimed Donald is supported by David Duke and “white supremacists”. The journalists are trying to depict Trump as a racist and continue their attempts even after Trump officially declared “I don’t know anything about David Duke… You’re asking me a question that I’m supposed to be talking people I know nothing about.” However, “for some reasons” the same mass media in their revelation campaign forgot to mention Hillary Clinton’s ties to Robert Byrd, a former KKK leader. Hillary described him as a man of “surpassing eloquence and nobility”. In 2010 after Byrd died she released a tribute video saying “It is almost impossible to imagine the United States Senate without Robert Byrd. He was not just its longest-serving member; he was its heart, its soul, and its historian. From my first day in the Senate, I sought out his guidance, and he was always generous with his time and his wisdom. I admired his tireless advocacy for his West Virginia constituents, his fierce defense of the Constitution, and the traditions of the Senate, and his passion for a government that improves the lives of the people it serves.” So here the mass media give us an political paradox: a Republican candidate can’t be endorsed by a former KKK member, but a Democrat can easily show her respect and honor to a former racist leader without being judged for that. Isn’t that a little hypocritical?

This Tuesday Hillary Clinton dared to state we have no immigration crisis and things are just fine with invader policy. “I think we’ve done a really good job securing the border,” she declared. Well, that’s her strategy – keep lying over and over until all her words become true (which is never). Or maybe by “good job” she meant Obama’s Government provided Hillary’s sponsors like Wall-Mart Corporation with low-paid illegal workers? If one day God lets this liar enter the White House as a president – that day would be a real national tragedy.

During the debate on 8th March she was asked about deportation. Clinton said: “I would not deport children. I do not want to deport family members either. I want to, as I said, prioritize who would be deported: violent criminals, people planning terrorist attacks, anybody who threatens us. That’s a relatively small universe.” Oh wonderful, so she admits she wants to be the second Obama, like the first one isn’t enough. And we know what’s behind this world “children” – young men who claim to be less than 18. Same way the “illegals without a criminal record” is also those who are not proved to be criminals yet. Crossing the U.S. border without permission is already a crime. A crime that should bring just one simple punishment – deportation and a prohibition of further entrance. We do not need a president who doesn't understand that. We do not need a president who forgives this kind of crime. We do not need Hillary.

Ad Text	This Monday Clinton had a public interview event where she was asked to tell about Iraq war and Intervention in Libya during her being as a secretary of state. After attacks in Benghazi, after her actions and lies caused a national scandal, after officially being caught on lies she afforded herself to make a statement “I’ve said Iraq was a mistake. Libya was a different kind of calculation. And we didn’t lose a single person.” More than three years passed after the accident and still Clinton didn’t even contact Benghazi victims’ families. She didn’t even try to ask for excuse, like those murdered Americans don’t even exist. We definitely don’t need a President who lies without a twinge of conscience. Luckily most Americans won't trust such an obvious liar.

Ad Text	Religious leaders joined local organizations in rallying support for two men who said they were attacked outside a convenience store this weekend in what police are investigating as a possible hate crime. Authorities are reviewing surveillance video of the reported attack, which occurred shortly after 3 a.m. Saturday at the Kwik Shop at 4820 E. 21st St. That's just northeast of the Wichita State University campus. One of the victims was Khondonkor Usama, Muslim 23, the second victim, is a 19-year-old student who has chosen to remain anonymous. They were getting gas and snacks at about 3 a.m. Saturday when they noticed a man shouting at someone who had apparently asked him for gas money. When the suspect began using racial slurs against the man who asked him for money, one of the students attempted to intervene. The attacker then turned his wrath on the two students, stopping his motorcycle in front of Usama's car and approaching Usama's friend, who had gotten out of the car. The suspect called his friend "brown trash" and told him he had to "leave this country," According to Usama's account, his friend responded: "This is my country. Who the hell are you to tell me to leave?" The incident "escalated really quick," with the suspect attempting to punch his friend, Usama said. When he attempted to break up the fight, Usama said he was assaulted and knocked down. He called 911, and as he was on the phone the attacker rode circles around the two students, chanting "Trump! Trump! Trump!" and screaming, "We'll make America great again! We'll throw you out of the wall!"

Ad Text An Open Letter to Hillary Clinton:

Dear Mrs. Clinton,

We are trying not to be political, but the current presidential elections and the rise of hate against Muslims made us realize that it is time to stand and let our voices be heard.

We know that you defend American Muslims now in your presidential campaign, but did you support us before campaign?

We didn't forget who supported the war in Iraq, we are Muslims and Americans, so we know your support to invade Iraq in 2003 have caused hundreds of American soldiers to die hundreds of miles away from their homes, and also millions of Iraqi Muslims, including innocent men, women and children, to die in their homes, and for what?

Libya! You supported bombing and destroying the whole country just to kill Al-Gaddafi. You said in an interview: "We came, we saw, he died". Let's not forget about Benghazi, where you declined to increase the embassy security, and that caused the death of the U.S. Ambassador J. Christopher Stevens and U.S. Foreign Service Information Management Officer Sean Smith and CIA contractors Tyrone S. Woods and Glen Doherty and Ten others were also injured in the attacks.

You killed Saddam Hussein and Al-Gaddafi in Iraq and Lybia leaving the countries there in chaos, which led to the birth of ISIS, which is now a threat not only to the U.S. but the whole world!

You are supporting gun control, disarming the American citizens and at the same time selling weapons to groups in the Middle East to fight their leaders, creating on the short run terrorist groups as we saw in Libya, Iraq, Afghanistan and Syria.

8 years ago you were against refugees, but now you support them. 10 years ago you were against same sex marriage, but now you support it. You change your views very fast. You speak as a democrat and act as a republican. Sorry, but you can not be our representer, you can not be the president of the United States.

Sincerely,
United Muslims of America

Ad Text	It was a powerful moment in an America that has seen hate crimes against Muslim Americans triple since November. In an America where the Republican political party had a 44% very unfavorable view of Islam, despite 78% of the same Republican respondents saying they neither worked with nor had any Muslim friends, according to a YouGov poll conducted from 6 -9 March, 2015. In an America where failed businessman and top contender for the GOP nomination Donald Trump has publicly and unapologetically called for widespread surveillance on mosques, mass deportations, denial of asylum to all Muslims and has lauded a plan to shoot Muslims with bullets covered in pig’s blood. So when Bernie Sanders acts like a human being and commits his prospective presidency (not to mention entire career) to combatting racism, xenophobia and Islamophobia, it shouldn’t come as a surprise to anyone that Muslim Americans overwhelmingly support his bid for the White House.

Ad Text	Last Saturday night, 68-year-old David Rice, also known as Mondo we Langa, a former Black Panther passed away Nebraska prison. In 1970, Rice was one of the two officers who were charged for the murder of Omaha police officer, Larry Minard. Authorities claim they coaxed Larry to a house with a 911 call, and then detonated a homemade bomb that killed him. He was the seventh-longest-serving inmate in Nebraska. Subsequent paroles and retrials were denied for these two men. Langa was in prison for 45 years. Details of the cause of his death are still unknown. Ad Text	ANOTHER BLACK MAN MURDERED IN POLICE CUSTODY. THINGS HAVE BEEN VERY SILENT ON HIS BEHALF The 31-year-old black man died Feb. 20 at Fairfield Medical center after he had a “medical episode” at the jail when deputies were moving Ariel J. Clark from one cell to another. According to police reports, Arial J. Clark, 31, was too combative with officers and was threatening to kill them during his arrest. On February 17, a motorist called 911 after interacting with Clark, reporting that Clark, who was driving his wife and two children from Buffulo to Texas, was threatening to kill him and his son. Clark`s wife said that a man and his son began to argue with her husband, who had been acting wierd because he hadn`t slept in five days. When the police arrived, Clark was arrested, taken to the Fairfield County Jail where he was placed in a restraint chair for his combative behavior. Three days after arriving in jail, Clark had some breathing difficulties and deputies started chest compression. But an hour later he was pronounced dead at a local hospital. An investigation has been opened after the death of a Fairfield County Jail inmate. Now the question is whether the jail`s standard operating procedures were followed. We would like to see a true picture of what he looked like after “fighting” with the police. Also, we would like to see the picture of him when he arrived at hospital. For now the only thing we know is that another black man died in police custody.

So this time we would like to make a #flashmob against #HillaryClinton because she is the real enemy of black community and our followers prove it showing their disgrace to her personality and policy. That's why we ask you to do the same and send your photos to us. Why? Because we want to live in a better future and Hillary is not the person who will help us in getting justice and peace by all means! Dear followers, if you agree, just don't be ignorant to your future in America, join our flashmob and take a photo with #HillaryClintonForPrison2016 or #nohillary2016 and tag @blackmattersus!? Jermaine Walker was arrested and sent to prison after the police officers and a state’s attorney investigator had LIED UNDER OATH. They said that there was no surveillance camera in the alley where they arrested him, even though it was and Walker said that! It’s another prove that if you are black in this country, you are never safe. You can be arrested killed or imprison literally for the color of your skin. Walker’s attorney said that Walker can obtain up to $170,000 for the time he spent in prison, but is it a good price for the 10 years of his life?! These bastards ruined this man’s life and proved once again that there is not justice in this country!

Ad Text	The statistics show that nationwide 15 percent of Black students receive suspensions, comparing with 4 percent of white students. In some state, the numbers are even more disturbing. For example, Wisconsin suspended 26.6 percent of Black students compared to the 3 percent of white students. Also in Minnesota, Connecticut, Iowa and Nebraska black students were six times more likely than white students to be suspended from school. The racism in education is the reason why the school-to-prison pipeline exists. Our kids cannot even get a proper education, no wonder the success rate among black students is low. Somehow white people still think that education is only their privilege.

She was shot by the cop while she slept on a couch during a botched raid. The killer is still employed by the Detroit Police Department. He was charged with involuntary manslaughter and two lesser charges in her death, but the case was dropped in January 2015. Justice hasn’t been served for Aiyana and her grieving family. We’re planning a peaceful rally in front of the Coleman A. Young Municipal Center on May 21 to honor the memory of Aiyana and other victims of police violence and demand demilitarization of police. We should draw as much attention as possible to the lack of justice for the families of those who lost their beloved ones at the hands of the police. Invite everyone you know and join us on May 21. Ad Text	THIS IS WHAT RUBY ROSE THINKS OF GIRLS WHO TELL HER THEY'VE 'TURNED THEM GAY' Ruby Rose has recently shared her opinion on the people saying that she “turned them gay”. She gets hundreds of flirty messages every day and she laughs at the idea that changes someone’s sexuality. Roby Rose thinks that it’s not possible to change someone’s sexuality because it’s something you’re born with and it’s not changeable. I agree with her! Unfortunately, bigots like to say that homosexuality is a choice, so it can be “cured”. Just like Ben Carson thinks that you’re choosing to be gay and the prison is the proof of that. These ideas lead to thousands of broken lives. Why is it so hard to accept the fact that we were born this way?!

Such a loss!

Will Smith , a former Saints star, was shot and killed in New Orleans. Will's wife was wounded during the incident too, but she is alive. It was a road rage accident and the suspect was arrested and charged with the second-degree murder. Smith's tragic death shocked his former colleagues, friends, and family.

I wonder how Hillary can even have military supporters, our soldiers have suffered enough from the liberal-in-chief for the last eight years. What's also confusing in that poll – almost every fifth polled soldier refuses to vote at all. It's a great demonstration out troops no longer trust the President, and Clinton would definitely not change the situation. No need to remind you what mistakes can Hillary do if allowed running our military forces – we don't need another Iraq and we definitely don't need another Benghazi.

Ad Text	Remember that terrible case when a student was forced by York Comprehensive High School officials to remove the Old Glory from his pickup? It happened in May 2015 and luckily had a happy end, as a result the students were allowed to attach our flag to their vehicles. The story ended well by efforts of dozens of patriots united to protest against High School authorities. It was a peaceful but strong and confident protest that made the authorities listen, it was a great example of how conscious people should act. We have to keep ready to stand against all kinds of attacks on American values and Constitutional laws. Unfortunately our current Government approves and even provokes these attacks, and the liberals' offensive and violent moods make it clear – every American patriot has to be careful and attentive.

Approximately 30,000 Marine Reservists may have suffered the same kind of exposure. Where were the liberals shouting about ecological problems? Why do they care about shutting down the coal industry to avoid mysterious unproved global warming but they don’t mind thousands of Americans drinking poisoned water? Neither the VA officials nor our military commanders helped our Marines and now they just feel abandoned. Bob Miranda-Boulay said ‘I don’t count’ – that is what our veterans feel. That is not an attitude they deserve. “I wanted to make a difference,” Boulay said. “I love my country and I wanted to do the right thing. I wanted to be a Marine.” That is a real shame our veterans feel being betrayed by our country leaders.

Ad Text	The Civil Rights Movement was fighting for the real equality in general and particularly the equal rights of voting. It started in North Carolina but it can spread all over the country. Blacks are being deprived of general voting rights. The U.S. District Judge, Thomas Schroeder, on Monday dismissed lawsuits challenging changes to the state's election laws, declaring that the challenges failed to show that it hindered voters of color from exercising their voting rights. The North Carolina law which eliminated early voting, same –day voter registration and out-of-precinct voting requires voters who go to the polls to show an acceptable form of identification such as a driver's license, passport or military ID. This is not a good sign as we watch the world take the new turn for the worse now while doing nothing. Ad Text	A new report showed that West Virginia and 11 other states have to the highest percentage of children with a parent who is or was incarcerated. Can you believe these numbers? Of course, the highest incarceration level is among the black population of the country. The system is enslaving us with the help of the jails and it affects the whole community. Kids have to grow up not knowing their fathers and not having the support they need to make rights choices and school-to-prison pipeline doesn’t leave them much of a choice. The kids grow up in extreme poverty without the access to the basic things like healthcare or education. The system is build to keep as many black people in the jails as possible. Being black in the US means being in a constant danger! You never know when you will be killed or sent to prison, because of the color of your skin. I’ve never heard white media talking about it, do you?

All the liberal attacks on it are very worrying because the Amendment was not only made for self defense – it is a nation's ability to overthrow the tyranny. A Government that doesn't trust its citizens to possess weapons can never receive mutual trust or respect. And that's what things are now – there's a great mistrust between the people and the country Administration and the only way for our "leaders" to establish relations with Americans is to stop all attacks on the Second Amendment.

As a candidate, Hillary has already stated that the 2nd Amendment does not apply to us. It is an assault on our Constitution, the very basics of America. Why does she call herself a Democrat, her anti-American ambitions are more likely to look like socialism and tyranny, not even close to Democracy. We are terrified by a possibility of having Hillary as a President. She'll never stop on the Second Amendment. And if she wins, if she manages to disarm Americans – get ready to say "good bye" to the First and the Fourth Amendments either.

Levingston was also the oldest man in the United States. He held the title for less than a month following the death of Felix Simoneaux Jr. on April 19. Wish our veterans received more attention and care from our Government. Obama’s eight presidency years turned into a disaster to our veterans and soldiers. Hope Obama will be replaced by a President who cares. We want our old heroes to be proud of their children and grandchildren so they would leave this world with a smile, knowing they will be honored and remembered.

Ad Text	Yesterday our country lost another hero. Investigator Freeman was killed when his patrol vehicle was rammed by a suspect vehicle during a pursuit. Deepest condolences to Anthony’s family. Our brave policemen put their lives at risk every day to make our lives secure. Our men in police uniform are real heroes and they can’t be called any way but heroes. We don’t believe in liberal media accusing our policemen of being absolutely corrupt and using their authority only for personal benefit. American policemen are the only guardians who keep our people safe from criminals.

Ad Text	It might sound like a cliche but “get a job” is a really good advice for young liberals protesting against everything in the world. Old man Ronald knew what he was talking about! Our college students should have an experience of paying taxes before standing for illegal immigrants' rights. They should rise their own children before standing for gay parenthood. It's no secret most active liberal's supporters are people about 20-25 years-old while most conservatives are older. Well, as they say, wisdom comes with ages.

Ad Text	Obama once again betrays America. Reports indicate that he has just put forth a $1.3 billion budget proposal, to be distributed among 75,000 minors that are expected to cross into the United States this year from Central America. That breaks down to about $17,613 a child—an amount that is significantly higher than what the government gives to Social Security Retirees. According to a report from the Center for Immigration Studies, the average annual SSA retirement benefit for legal citizens is roughly $14,772. As if that weren’t enough, the proposal also demands another $2.1 billion for refugees. This just says it all. Again and again he ignores the needs of American citizens, but has no problem taking their hard earned money just give it to people who deserve it the least. I guess Veterans don`t need a better social security. Thank you Obama for betraying America.

Secondly, Hillary refused to apologize to all veterans, when she has made several remarks about veterans "embellishing" the situation at the VA. Finally, Hillary is the only one politician (except Barack Obama) who is despised by the overwhelming majority of American veterans. If Hillary becomes the President of the US, the American army should be withdrawn from Hillary's control according to the amendments to the Constitution.

The Austin School Board voted 8-1 to change the name Monday night.The school board had three name options from which to choose: Russell Lee, a photographer from the school’s neighborhood who started UT’s photography program. The board approved Russell Lee at the request of the school’s Campus Advisory Council. So, what can I say? This is a disgrace for the Texas authorities! I am shocked at the dismantling of southern history. We know that our ancestors fought for our freedom. These names were, are and always will be the part of Texas history. Why is Texas administration willing to do anything what feds say them? Isn't it obvious that the Federal government aims to destroy our history? This is a madness! Therefore, I need to ask you: are you ready to defend our Heritage? The Southern history needs protection now more than ever before!

According to State Police troopers Darzeil Hall and Lamarr Johnson, ever since they returned to work, they have been subjected to petty attacks and denied attempts in promotion. Instead of correcting the wrong behavior toward black employees, police department aggressively criticized their conduct. For instance, police trooper Hall received a “need improvement rating,” his squad car was taken away, and his gym car was deactivated for a minor mistake. Along with Hall, police trooper Johnson was denied at least five promotions after the lawsuit ended on the basis of race. Once again the race car is alive and well. Unfortunately, black police officers still remain second-class officers and experience unfair treatment in police department despite the fact that we live in a “post-racial” society.

Dawud Abdulwali attended a party in a Hollywood hotel where he ranted about the August 2014 killing of unarmed Michael Brown by a white police officer in Ferguson. According to one of the witnesses, he was so mad about the high profile killing of unarmed black men, so he burned the building. Abdulwalia`s anger at police was not a good reason to burn down some apartments, but injustice brought him to this action. Either way, crime should not be tolerated. But we have to start thinking about the message he was trying to send: having a black president changes almost nothing.

The Methodist Episcopal Church have decided that the families will have to divide $1.5 million in donations, while they will keep $1.8 million, with plans to make long-needed repairs to the church. For instance, the wife of the Rev. Clementa Pinckney who was among those killed by white shooter Dylan Roof, has not received any of the donation proceeds. Nothing will bring the victims of Charleston massacre back, but this money will help aid in bridging the gap in the loss of an income. Donations are important for these families since they did not receive a cent from the government.

Ad Text We are under attack. Even there is no open action the war has already started. The enemy is smart and ruthless. We are losing so far, because our leader is one of them. Obama has betrayed America and now he is just executing orders of his bosses.

Obama was always a mere pawn in the hands of Arabian Sheikhs. His latest orders are just proving it. All these refugees, which we are about to take in, are soldiers with one simple goal. They are going to try to terrorize the nation until it agrees to convert.

To win this war we need to gather our forces and elect a leader, who loves America as much as we do and is willing to do everything it takes to protect it. I believe that only Trump is strong enough to overpower this snake of an enemy and choke it to death.

We are at war gentlemen! We need to act fast!

Ad Text	A new disturbing dashcam video from May 2013 is shining light on what happened the night a Chicago. The video shows how officers, Michelle Morsi-Murphy and Jose Lopez, brutalized Rev. Catherine Brown. Brown was driving back home, when Morsi-Murphy jumped out of the car and approached her yelling curse words and demanding she move the vehicle back. When Brown reached for her license, Lopez pointed a gun at her head. Moreover, Lopez WAS LAUGHTING at poor Brown, who was beat and pepper-sprayed by police. Brown is not the only victim, her kids had suffered from pepper spray too. The US police is just insane. What's the problem with peaceful arrest? Why the hell they treat us as animals? This will not stop until cops are held personally and financially responsible for their actions. Could you imagine, if soldiers acted like this towards civilians in a combat zone? 100% it would be treated as a war crime. So why do we have another attitude to people in blue?

Man, there were so many ways to fix the situation without resorting to use excessive force. The worst part of it is how everyone just stands around nonchalantly.? People who support cops and belive in good cops, please tell me why the hell a bunch of cops just stand and watch how another cop beating a woman??? How??? How can we respect law enforcement, if they act like that? If you want my respect , STOP SHOOTING AND BEATING THE CITIZENS YOU SWORE TO PROTECT!!! ? IF U AGREE

She refused to answer any questions and they arrested her for obstruction of justice. She was later released without being charged for obstruct. Americans have rights and one of them is the right to remain silent. We don't have to answer your stupid interrogation questions. If we are speeding, tell us we were stopped for speeding, issue the warning/summons and get the hell out of our lives Nazis. Why did they escalate the situation? What for? The best part of the video is when they say she had the right to remain silent. LOL! #Copslogic

Ad Text	Horrifying video shows inmate being shocked three times with a stun gun Recently released video shows the moment officers shot 24-year-old Brandon Bethea with a stun gun as he was in a jail cell. Jail officers said Bethea had threatened them and that’s why he was hit with a stun gun but I guess cops didn't know the camera was recording them. FIVE OFFICERS stood over Bethea and just watching how Clark pulled the trigger two more times. As usual, no charges were ever filed against the officers involved in Bethea's death. There is no doubt that Bethea was murdered. Have you noticed that it took 20 minutes passed by before another officer summoned a nurse and they attempted to revive Bethea. All of bastard cops who were there should be in prison for murder. America, it's not a black or white problem... but a blue one.

Ad Text	SHOCKING!!! Cops can't stop using their blue privilege for illegal parking. Could you imagine how off-duty deputy Tracy Weiss was shocked when she realized that her budge won't protect her from paying parking fines? Her face is priceless. The story happened last month when Weiss found her car being towed for illegal parking. The cop jumped into another vehicle to block the driver, who had towed her car. When she exited the vehicle she had her gun drawn. The driver started recording the incident when he understood that his life is under threat. That's how $62.50 fine turned into $125. The sheriff’s office said Weiss has been an Orange County deputy for 11 years and they are investigating the incident. I have only one question: is that how PD trains police in our country? For 11 years she should know how to fix the situation like that. The only reason she should identify herself as an officer is to explain why she has a holstered weapon. Aside from that she should not have mentioned it nor should she have drawn the weapon. To my mind, this woman need to stop being a deputy and carrying a gun. Such cops and people as well should stay away from guns. This would give our citizens a chance to get back home alive. For more stories, join our new brand site http://donotshoot.us/

Ad Text	Please take a moment to read my story! Back in 2015, Douglas Babbitt was talking on the phone in the driver's seat of his parked van when a police officer asked if an open beer bottle on the ground near the vehicle's front passenger door belonged to him. Notice the location of the beer can - it's located on the ground, outside of the vehicle, on the passenger's side. When Babbitt said the beer wasn't his, the police needlessly escalated the situation that lead to Babbitt's arrest, and left the 51-year-old Oakland man briefly lying unconscious on the ground. The beer wasn't in his car, and a toxicology report from after his arrest shows that he had no alcohol in his system. So what's the problem with you guys? Damn, after all that, the only thing I may conclude is DO NOT TALK TO POLICE! The following video is a prime example of why...

The cop said that his misconduct was “justified” because the man had spit at him. Almost one year after the incident, the footage showing the punch was released. Personally, I didn’t notice in the video the suspect spitting at Dickson. However, the police department didn’t consider it necessary to punish the cop. The only penalty he got was a suspension without pay for 1 day. Is it really enough for excessive force use?

Thanks to cell phone cameras, we have a chance to show to the world a real face of the US police. A video clip uploaded to Facebook shows an officer attempting to throw a man from his wheelchair and into the street until someone rushes over to intervene. Also I'd love to know the point of cops rights defenders: what would you say about another "good cop," who's turning his head as if he didn't see his partner attempt to hurt the man in wheelchair? Good cops keep silence, huh? Such incidents can't happen again, we need to get cops that can't handle their tempers off of the streets. Guys, what do you think about it? How disgusting this officer’s actions were?

From time to time we receive messages like "why you do not talk about good cops?" Well, I guess it's time to answer the question... As the nation has been torn apart by police violence and abuse, we have begun to wonder whether there are any good cops at all. Do they exist? Where are these legendary “good cops”? Sad, but according to our research good cops are threatened with extinction. After sleepless nights with coffee and YouTube search we finally found a great example of a GOOD COP. Please welcome - Mr. Right Officer, who comes to the suspect’s aid, not once, not twice, but at least three times physically stopping the arresting officer from abusing the suspect. If you think that all cops SHOULD take a stand like this, then help us SPREAD THE WORD!

At the time when Americans' attention focuses primarily on the relationship between black men and law enforcement, we've got to admit the fact that Black women have a tough time too. To my mind it should come to national spotlight; from teen girl, who was slammed to the floor in a South Carolina classroom to the mysterious death of Sandra Bland in a jail cell. We want to give you a chance to express yourself and share your minds with us. WATCH the video below, showing black women bringing their problems to the forefront.

Ad Text	What's the difference between USA cops and EU cops? That's a fact that US police officers are bad trained. Cops are programmed to take innocent lives. Cops here in America play God. They believe they are judge, jury and executioner, and if someone disobeys them or breaks the law, it is their job to punish that person. They believe it is justifiable to shoot someone who is not a threat simply because that person "deserves it" in their eyes. It will be hard to find the same approach in any other country. So what's the difference? The difference in mindset, American cops truly believe they will get away with it. In comparison with other countries, particularly in the UK, cops understand that their job is to apprehend, NOT PUNISH. They do not try to shoot you, they understand that they are not the jury and this is not their job. Bad that America trained not like this!???

We found old dashcam footage has revealed the startling moment a Texas trooper ran toward a motorcyclist following a high-speed chase, leaped into the air and karate kicked him to the ground. The incident unfolded in December 2012 after Martinez, a 10-year veteran trooper, took chase when 25-year-old Steven Gaydos ran a stop sign near Houston. Apparently this Texas deputy wanted to go back to the good old days and show off his fancy moves by jumping in the air and kicking this guy who was already surrendering off his motorcycle. Wow, bad cops with Rambo mentality issues should be dismissed and forbidden from ever owning any firearm again, period!

Cops hold man down and sic K-9 on him for dancing in a parking lot The city will pay Linson Tara $100,000 to settle a civil-rights lawsuit filed after the Washington cops used Tasers, their fists and then a police dog on him while he was being restrained. Only 100k? Seriously? Guys, don't you think it's not enough for a man who was choked, tased, punched in the face several times while the dog bit you? It should be more zeroes in the number. A dash cam video showed one of the officers holding Tara on the hood of the police cruiser while his partner used a Taser on him. IS THAT THE WAY YOU WANT POLICE TO TREAT US? The video gives us a great explanation of the question, why do people hate cops? Dear Americans, we've got to understand a simple idea - nothing will change unless you, me and the whole country start taking judgments out of THEIR paychecks… and then you'll see this behavior stop.

Ad Text	"Know Your Rights or Your Safety Is At Risk In Any Interaction With The Police" SHOCKING video was uploaded to YouTube recently shows a man in Newington, Connecticut, refusing to fall for Police State tactics of intimidation at a police checkpoint - widely known as a sobriety or DUI checkpoint, but in reality what amounts to an excuse for cops to surveil and keep tabs on citizens. They say cops are keeping us safe, but the reality is absolutely different! Those pigs are filling up prison for profit quotas, arrest quotas, any other f@cking quotas. REMEMBER: Police is not a guarantee of peaceful streets... not in the police states of America. Moral of the story: educate yourself, stand up for your constitutional rights and take the power back from these public "servants."#PowerToThePeople. We are the many, they are the few. Together we can stop #PoliceTerror.

Ad Text	Fortunately, some patriots in the United States don't stay away, while traitors destroy this country. Our friends from San Diego organized a rally to support ideas of Donald Trump. Patriots carried and waved American flags, while the Clinton/Sanders supporters carried MEXICAN flags and attempted to confront a very diverse group of Donald Trump supporters. That explains why the Democrats encourage the illegal immigration. They are ready to destroy America just to be elected. We have to defend this nation! Let's organize rallies against the illegal immigration around the whole country! Let's flood the United States with American flags! If you have a desire to organize a rally in your city, please contact us. We can help you. Only our patriotism can save the United States of America!

Ad Text	We have many problems in our country at the moment. Healthcare, education and Veterans are just on the top of the list. But one problem is destroying our country more than anything else. Illegal aliens affect our economy drastically. Not only they sink the job market and steal hundreds of millions of welfare dollars, they also flood America with drugs, which is the worst. Mexican cartels have a stable stream of drugs through the border and our government does nothing with it. To cure our nation we need to get rid of all the gangs and illegal immigrants and build a huge wall so they would never come back!

Ad Text	All people have to understand that the police service is exactly like a secret gay club, the reason being that no one knows what goes on inside there even if it’s evident. There’s a kind of code of silence, even if you saw something or just know something about other police officer, you keep silence about it. But if you are in a member of a club, you can be sure that no one will ever let your secrets out. Statistically, 46% of cops admit to witnessing misconduct by other cops! Also, 73 % of the individuals pressuring officers to keep quiet about the misconduct are leaders. 8% of the officers who admitted to intentionally withholding the information about officer misconduct were upper administrators. Cops will always lie to suit interaction or conversation. Sadly enough, “Sworn officer of the court” is most likely to lie than the citizen he is even accusing. So, the lie is a norm for the officers who are keeping the code of silence, and it’s a miracle if a police officer tells the truth. Ad Text	President Barack Obama signed a bill Friday eliminating the offensive and outdated descriptors, after the legislation passed unanimously in the House and Senate earlier this month. Rep. Grace Meng (D-N.Y.) sponsored the bill, which aimed to “modernize” two references to “Orientals” and “Negros” in the U.S. Code that date to the 1970’s. The words will be replaced with “Asian Americans” and “African Americans,” respectively. “The term ‘Oriental’ has no place in federal law and at long last this insulting and outdated term will be gone for good,” Meng said in a statement on Friday. Obama signed the bill shortly before leaving for his trip to Vietnam and Japan, where he will become the first sitting U.S. president to visit Hiroshima. We can’t say we have brilliant commandership now, but our soldiers are as brave as our grandfathers were. The lawsuit filed Friday says House Bill 1523 violates the separation of church and state by favoring “certain narrow religious beliefs that condemn same-sex couples who get married, condemn unmarried people who have sexual relations and condemn transgender people.” How many times do we have to do this? Your BELIEFS don't supersede my RIGHTS!! You just want to use your religious beliefs as an excuse to deliberately harm others and have no consequences for doing so! You can believe whatever you wish, but you cannot use those beliefs to deny me my rights!

But if they turn away, then seize them and kill them wherever you find them and take not from among them any ally or helper.” (Qur’an 4:89) This Surah is an evidence of how Syrian refugees respect our culture. If you think that Muslims ignore some Islamic rules, you're wrong. For example, a Muslim in eastern Uganda strangled his Christian wife to death this month for leaving Islam. What would you do if your wife or husband converts to Islam? Probably you would be upset. In the worst case, you would sue for divorce. But I'm sure you would not kill your spouse. That's the difference between our cultures.

Ad Text Everyday we watch, read and receive news of police beating, assaulting, and killing innocent people. These videos and instances have become so common that people are rarely shocked by even the most brutal of cases. We were wondering how long time would it take to make people fighting back? So now, karma's coming back for blue pigs!

A shocking video was shared on social media Tuesday showing two police officers being attacked. Two unidentified men were seen beating up the two officers for seemingly no reason.

The incident occurred Monday afternoon in Northeast Philadelphia after two school police officers were called to break up a fight outside of a local pizza shop. As we can see police couldn't stop the fight. Now we see what kind of police do we have. Those cops are slow weak doughnuts, who can do literally nothing without using their guns.

Cops can blame themselves when shit like this happens. They live by their own laws, they can break your arms and legs, torture you with chemical and electrical ways, rape or even kill you "doing their job." All those things and more are well within departmental policy. So I'd rather give a fight for my rights than ignore the fact our country becoming a Nazi States of America.

Look around, the only other thing that will happen is that people will whine about it, but will ultimately do nothing to actively stop this behavior, and this is why cops are so violent now. If we want to stop it, we should fight as our ancestors did it for centuries.

Take out a few dozen cops and the rest will change. Amen.

Man, there were so many ways to fix the situation without resorting to use excessive force. The worst part of it is how everyone just stands around nonchalantly.? People who support cops and belive in good cops, please tell me why the hell a bunch of cops just stand and watch how another cop beating a woman??? How??? How can we respect law enforcement, if they act like that? If you want my respect , STOP SHOOTING AND BEATING THE CITIZENS YOU SWORE TO PROTECT!!! ? IF U AGREE

She refused to answer any questions and they arrested her for obstruction of justice. She was later released without being charged for obstruct. Americans have rights and one of them is the right to remain silent. We don't have to answer your stupid interrogation questions. If we are speeding, tell us we were stopped for speeding, issue the warning/summons and get the hell out of our lives Nazis. Why did they escalate the situation? What for? The best part of the video is when they say she had the right to remain silent. LOL! #Copslogic

Back in 2015, Douglas Babbitt was talking on the phone in the driver's seat of his parked van when a police officer asked if an open beer bottle on the ground near the vehicle's front passenger door belonged to him. Notice the location of the beer can - it's located on the ground, outside of the vehicle, on the passenger's side. When Babbitt said the beer wasn't his, the police needlessly escalated the situation that lead to Babbitt's arrest, and left the 51-year-old Oakland man briefly lying unconscious on the ground. The beer wasn't in his car, and a toxicology report from after his arrest shows that he had no alcohol in his system. So what's the problem with you guys? Damn, after all that, the only thing I may conclude is DO NOT TALK TO POLICE! The following video is a prime example of why...

Ad Text	Cops are allergic to cameras, they don't like being recorded because it won't allow them to break the law and lie about the circumstances which presented them the opportunity to break the law. ?WARNING!!!? In yet another disturbing video of police escalating violence in a public school, a Philadelphia school cop was caught on video in an intense altercation with a student. According to the Philadelphia Student Union, of which the alleged victim, Brian Burney, the incident was all over a dispute over using the bathroom. The student, who recorded the incident, was told to delete it. All that is left is a brief clip showing the officer, who is twice the size of Burney, on top of him. I don't understand why are there cops in schools? Cops are nothing more then a bunch of bullies or gang members in police uniforms! Whatever happened to deans? Moreover, don't you think it's a bit strange, when an officer forces someone to delete video? Obviously, police is trying to hide something and their testimony should be considered a lie. Also, is not destruction of evidence a crime? What do you think about it guys? Please, share or comment below.

The cop said that his misconduct was “justified” because the man had spit at him. Almost one year after the incident, the footage showing the punch was released. Personally, I didn’t notice in the video the suspect spitting at Dickson. However, the police department didn’t consider it necessary to punish the cop. The only penalty he got was a suspension without pay for 1 day. Is it really enough for excessive force use?

Cooke is a law student, so she knows her rights. When she refused to consent to search, she was told to wait for a K-9 unit to arrive before she could leave. Cooke didn’t commit any crime, that’s why she wanted to leave, but officers had the different plans. She was thrown to the ground by the male agent and the female agent deployed the taser. After she screamed from the pain for several seconds, she was handcuffed, while agents illegally opened her truck and searched it. Of course, they found nothing. She spent over an hour in handcuffs and then about 4 hours in the US customs Station in Ogdensburg before she could go home. This girl’s day was totally ruined because cops thought that she looked suspicious. After they ILLEGALLY searched her vehicle, she couldn’t go. This is what real terrorism looks like!

Ad Text	#Chicago released hundreds of videos, audio recordings and documents related to 101 pending investigations by the independent Police Review Authority, which investigates police-involved incidents. This is one of the videos that authorities have released. Though the video is a clear example of an excessive force, the report said that police officer had to use his baton to protect himself. Another cop was caught lying about the case. It’s not the first video that proves that cops are lying bastards and it’s not the last. What they do is systematically abusing people and then covering it with “I was feared for my life” phrase. If it’s so scaring to be a police officer, may be they should find another job? What punishment do you think he deserves for that?!

Ad Text	An NYPD sergeant Diana Pichardo that was named in at least 20 federal lawsuits including an allegation of false arrest and police brutality, was caught on a video grabbing a bystander's phone, arresting him without reason and searching his home without a warrant. Instead of getting fired or arrested for her actions, she is facing only a disciplinary review. The victim's only crime was filming him while she was assaulting and brutalizing his neighbors! Though it's legal to film the police, cops are so scared of people recording them. It means that we have to keep following them with our cameras. It's our only way to prove that they were violent and it's our only hope for justice!

Ad Text	Muhammad Ali, the greatest boxer this world has ever known, is no more. The fact that he is gone is difficult to come to terms with; for years, Ali was renowned as a larger than life figure, the greatest, as he called himself, and the demise of a man of such a high stature is surely a void that can never be filled. In the world of sports, Muhammad Ali will forever be known as the boxing legend who won 56 bouts over the period of a 21-year career. In popular culture, he will be remembered as the man who was not afraid when it came to speaking his mind -- someone who was not shy of talking about things unrelated to boxing, and would always take the right stand when needed. He risked his career and reputation by opposing the US-Vietnam War. Furthermore, he refused to serve in the US Army and in the process, was accused of committing a felony. Now that he is gone, this world is left with memories, and a void that cannot be filled. May Allah rest his soul in peace and paradise!!!

They are bluntly invading western world and demanding upmost respect for their religion, while completely disrespecting and disregarding western values. They are not victims of war, they are the war itself. We need to protect ourselves from this menace by deporting all the refugees we have and refusing to take any more of them.

Ad Text	Illegal immigrant invasion is going at full speed and drug cartels are their most powerful weapon. Recently a huge drug cartel operation was discovered in North Carolina. Over the course of the investigation, authorities seized six pounds of crystal meth, eight pounds of marijuana, 49.3 grams of heroin, four handguns and $2.5 million in cash, according to a press release. “It would be safe to say that the money would be taken back to Mexico, and that’s where the source of the cocaine was,” special agent Tim Stone said. This is good news, but sadly this operation is just one of the thousands, which makes it just a slap on the wrist. Our traitor government does nothing to prevent drug influx, but only trying to create the presence of an effort. The most part of this poison comes through southern border, but it is still as unprotected as it possibly can be and drug cartels are abusing it as much as they can. At the expense of our tax dollars and lives of our youth, our government officials continue to make some kinds of vile deals with drug cartels to get filthy rich and gain more control over weaken nation. Only a huge wall with gun towers will stop this invasion. Trump is our only hope for a better future!

So, Bernie has the point. I appreciate the way he maintains his independent opinion in spite of all the pressure that is on him as the "second Democratic option". Because that is a fact. The Clinton Foundation is nothing more than an "organized crime" at it's finest, in which we are investing our taxpayers' money! Hillary has no problem in accepting foreign money from the countries, like Saudi Arabia. Hillary has no remorse about taking money from countries that abuse the rights of women, while she has always had her own alleged feminist stance. She does not refrain from receiving money from the countries that prosecute, torture and execute LGBT on the legal basis, although Hillary has always been a "defender" of the minorities. So, why are so many people going to vote for her? That's a secret for me. What's your opinion on that point?

So let's do this. Since no one knew what he looked like and the bible forbade idolatry how about we all stop trying to draw Jesus!

Wikipedia: The term "semite" means a member of any of various ancient and modern Semitic-speaking peoples originating in the Near East, including Hebrews (Israelites, Judeans and Samaritans), Bahranis, Maltese, Syriacs and Arabs.

Jesus was a Hebrew who lived 2000 years ago in the Middle East.

He looked a hell of a lot more like this

Than this

99% of people never moved further than maybe 100 miles from their place of birth in their lifetimes - no-one knew what a Middle Eastern Jew looked like, including the painters, who invented White Jesus so it would be easier for people to identify with the Christ.

That's right. White Jesus is Bible fan-fiction.

Ad Text	A lone sniper shot 14 people and killed 5 police officers, in Dallas late Thursday night. It was a peaceful protest against the police shootings of Alton Sterling in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and Philando Castile in Falcon Heights, Minnesota. So he turned this peaceful protest into a scene of chaos and carnage. The wounded include seven police officers and two civilians. The sniper, Micah X. Johnson was a black U.S. military veteran of the Afghan war. As he was captured, he claimed he wanted to “kill white people”. There’s no evidence that he was a Black Lives Matters activist. There’s no proof that he was into the movement anyhow. It happened almost a week ago and the police can’t show anything to prove there was a link between Micah X. Johnson and Black Lives matter. But the Main stream media are telling us time and again that «black lives matter terrorists are killing the police officers». The main stream Media are telling us, that the protest against police terror is a violent anti-government riot! Ad Text	We must ensure the Dallas attack on police will never happen again. Most problems we face happen because we’ve stopped calling things by their names and the assassination of cops in Dallas was no exception. We’re hiding behind political correctness and denying the truth because we don’t want to ‘offend’ someone. And the truth is: a group of people calling their supporters to commit violence is not a peaceful group. A group of people coming to their opponent’s rallies and attacking peaceful people is a group of extremists. A group of people standing behind the attack on police is a group of terrorists. The Black Lives Matter are terrorists, and the sooner we admit it officially – the sooner this war on cops will end and people running a conservative rally won’t be afraid to be attacked by a hateful gang. His greatest “accomplishment” is flooding America with countless criminals and giving them all an absolute omnipotence. Thanks to Barack Hussein Obama we have at least one big terror attack each year, not to mention illegals raging out and poisoning our country with drugs. For what he did to America Obama should rot in prison for the rest of his life.

He doesn't care about fallen officers! Obama is not our leader! Texans have already honored our heroes, laying flowers at Dallas police headquarters. But Obama's speech did not make sense at all. That's why we have to support all police officers who refused to applaud Obama. Taking sides with these rioters and racists, Obama literally called for open war against police officers and whites. He came there and he lectured officers who are targeted every day for assassination by Black Lives Matter that they need to change. Kick this asshole out of Texas!

Ad Text	Everyday we watch, read and receive news of police beating, assaulting, and killing innocent people. These videos and instances have become so common that people are rarely shocked by even the most brutal of cases. We were wondering how long time would it take to make people fighting back? So now, karma's coming back for blue pigs! A shocking video was shared on social media Tuesday showing two police officers being attacked. Two unidentified men were seen beating up the two officers for seemingly no reason. The incident occurred Monday afternoon in Northeast Philadelphia after two school police officers were called to break up a fight outside of a local pizza shop. As we can see police couldn't stop the fight. Now we see what kind of police do we have. Those cops are slow weak doughnuts, who can do literally nothing without using their guns. Cops can blame themselves when shit like this happens. They live by their own laws, they can break your arms and legs, torture you with chemical and electrical ways, rape or even kill you "doing their job." All those things and more are well within departmental policy. So I'd rather give a fight for my rights than ignore the fact our country becoming a Nazi States of America. Look around, the only other thing that will happen is that people will whine about it, but will ultimately do nothing to actively stop this behavior, and this is why cops are so violent now. If we want to stop it, we should fight as our ancestors did it for centuries. Take out a few dozen cops and the rest will change. Amen.

Ad Text	Please take a moment to read my story! Back in 2015, Douglas Babbitt was talking on the phone in the driver's seat of his parked van when a police officer asked if an open beer bottle on the ground near the vehicle's front passenger door belonged to him. Notice the location of the beer can - it's located on the ground, outside of the vehicle, on the passenger's side. When Babbitt said the beer wasn't his, the police needlessly escalated the situation that lead to Babbitt's arrest, and left the 51-year-old Oakland man briefly lying unconscious on the ground. The beer wasn't in his car, and a toxicology report from after his arrest shows that he had no alcohol in his system. So what's the problem with you guys? Damn, after all that, the only thing I may conclude is DO NOT TALK TO POLICE! The following video is a prime example of why...

In yet another disturbing video of police escalating violence in a public school, a Philadelphia school cop was caught on video in an intense altercation with a student. According to the Philadelphia Student Union, of which the alleged victim, Brian Burney, the incident was all over a dispute over using the bathroom. The student, who recorded the incident, was told to delete it. All that is left is a brief clip showing the officer, who is twice the size of Burney, on top of him. I don't understand why are there cops in schools? Cops are nothing more then a bunch of bullies or gang members in police uniforms! Whatever happened to deans? Moreover, don't you think it's a bit strange, when an officer forces someone to delete video? Obviously, police is trying to hide something and their testimony should be considered a lie. Also, is not destruction of evidence a crime? What do you think about it guys? Please, share or comment below.

Ad Text	Clark Dickson, a veteran Seattle police department officer, punched a homeless 21-year-old man in the head and remained unpunished. The cop said that his misconduct was “justified” because the man had spit at him. Almost one year after the incident, the footage showing the punch was released. Personally, I didn’t notice in the video the suspect spitting at Dickson. However, the police department didn’t consider it necessary to punish the cop. The only penalty he got was a suspension without pay for 1 day. Is it really enough for excessive force use?

Ad Text	"If you ask me about the Clinton Foundation, do I have a problem when a sitting secretary of state and a foundation run by her husband collects many millions of dollars from foreign governments, many governments which are dictatorships... yeah, I do," Sanders said in an interview with Jake Tapper on CNN. So, Bernie has the point. I appreciate the way he maintains his independent opinion in spite of all the pressure that is on him as the "second Democratic option". Because that is a fact. The Clinton Foundation is nothing more than an "organized crime" at it's finest, in which we are investing our taxpayers' money! Hillary has no problem in accepting foreign money from the countries, like Saudi Arabia. Hillary has no remorse about taking money from countries that abuse the rights of women, while she has always had her own alleged feminist stance. She does not refrain from receiving money from the countries that prosecute, torture and execute LGBT on the legal basis, although Hillary has always been a "defender" of the minorities. So, why are so many people going to vote for her? That's a secret for me. What's your opinion on that point?

Crystal Raquel Cash, 55, cannot speak but is alive after being shot nearly point blank in the face by a member of Christian hate group. The attacker, Gerald Duane Lewis, 26, and his wife reportedly are members of the Israel United in Church, which the Southern Poverty Law Center listed as a hate group last year. According to the newspapers, Lewis was wearing a shirt from the church when he opened fire, shouting a homophobic slur. The government must pay more attention to assaults on sexual minorities because this is the threat to the country’s internal security!

Ad Text	A demonstration which was held on Tuesday in response to the recent fatal police shooting of Philando Castile resulted in the arrest of 46 people outside the governor’s mansion in St. Paul, Minnesota. Another arrest was carried out the following day, during the morning hours where 23 protestors were arrested and charged with public nuisance and unlawful assembly. Since July 7, the day after which Castile was fatally shot to death, sympathizers have been embarking on demonstration outside the governor’s home but police officers are asking the protesters out of the premises because they are blocking the streets. This request seemed not successful, therefore the protesters stood against the officers. According to the governor, the protestors are welcomed to stay because he had no problem with them being there. Even though the street was cleared few days after July 18, some protesters have returned to the premises to continue the demonstration. Many of our brothers had been killed by the police. Still, we have no doubts that the justice will prevail. Remember the fallen, they are waiting for our victory. Ad Text	Do you know that the white Milwuakee officer who was fired from his job after fatally shooting a mentally ill Black man in 2014 has gotten his job back? This is a real proof that white officers will just kill blacks and still walk without prosecution. This is the reason why they are not scared of taking a black person's life. Fortunately he has lost an appeal to get his job back — for the second time, but what I find really interesting is the reason why he was fired. It is now absolutely clear that Police Chief fired Manney for his actions that led to the shooting, but not for the shooting itself. Ad Text	Black people have no place in the coming 2016 presidential election because we have had our chance and we never profited out of it. We had a moment to present economic or social advancement plans to president Obama, yet we refused and let anti- blacks trick us into thinking that was not elected to benefit just black people alone. President Obama was elected for a reason. He was the stepping stone for blacks to rise but it was blown away. Now, it is the time of White America to rebuild and advance and make their race great. The war for power between blacks and whites is very real, but the black community has forgotten. Consequently, the power of black is fading day by day because those in position are descending from the ladder every day. In no time, “White Power” will be stronger than before. Ad Text	Donald Trump is afraid that the 2016 general election will be “rigged” against him. There's no doubt he has reasons to think so. Hillary Clinton has already committed voter fraud during the Democrat Iowa Caucus. At the same time, she has already demonstrated that she prefers destroying the nation than losing election. She pledged not to deport illegal aliens. Moreover, it's known that Hillary is going to take in about one million Muslim refugees, if she is president. “I’m telling you, Nov. 8, we’d better be careful, because that election is going to be rigged,” Mr. Trump said. “And I hope the Republicans are watching closely or it’s going to be taken away from us.”

Donald Trump is afraid that the 2016 general election will be "rigged" against him. There's no doubt he has reasons to think so.

Hillary Clinton has already committed voter fraud during the Democrat Iowa Caucus. At the same time, she has already demonstrated that she prefers destroying the nation than losing election. She pledged not to deport illegal aliens. Moreover, it's known that Hillary is going to take in about one million Muslim refugees, if she is president.

"I'm telling you, Nov. 8, we'd better be careful, because that election is going to be rigged," Mr. Trump said. "And I hope the Republicans are watching closely or it's going to be taken away from us."

Ad Text	If you allergic to bad cops, please DO NOT WATCH the video below!!! We found old dashcam footage has revealed the startling moment a Texas trooper ran toward a motorcyclist following a high-speed chase, leaped into the air and karate kicked him to the ground. The incident unfolded in December 2012 after Martinez, a 10-year veteran trooper, took chase when 25-year-old Steven Gaydos ran a stop sign near Houston. Apparently this Texas deputy wanted to go back to the good old days and show off his fancy moves by jumping in the air and kicking this guy who was already surrendering off his motorcycle. Wow, bad cops with Rambo mentality issues should be dismissed and forbidden from ever owning any firearm again, period!

Ad Text	What's the difference between USA cops and EU cops? That's a fact that US police officers are bad trained. Cops are programmed to take innocent lives. Cops here in America play God. They believe they are judge, jury and executioner, and if someone disobeys them or breaks the law, it is their job to punish that person. They believe it is justifiable to shoot someone who is not a threat simply because that person "deserves it" in their eyes. It will be hard to find the same approach in any other country. So what's the difference? The difference in mindset, American cops truly believe they will get away with it. In comparison with other countries, particularly in the UK, cops understand that their job is to apprehend, NOT PUNISH. They do not try to shoot you, they understand that they are not the jury and this is not their job. Bad that America trained not like this!???

Ad Text	Barack Hussein Obama has tried very hard to open the doors for his friends from Middle East and to create a most welcoming environment for Muslims in general. He forced our government to give them countless benefits and managed to create an atmosphere of total omnipotence for them with the help of CAIR. It all would be alright, if he was a president of a Muslim country, but he is president of UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, which makes his eternal love for Muslims a mere TREACHERY! Barack Hussein Obama and his lap dog Hillary should never be allowed control our lives ever again!

Ad Text	Ohh..say no more! Fort Campbell says about 400 soldiers with the 101st Airborne Division are deploying to Iraq this summer. And the soldiers from the 2nd Brigade Combat Team will deploy as part of an increase in authorized troop levels in Iraq. Obama still drafts our guys into the army and they go to the Middle East. But his key campaign promise was to withdraw troops! It's clear that we come through too many wars: Libya, Iraq, Afghanistan… And 400 more our guys was deployed to Iraq… Maybe enough? We want peace!

Ohh..say no more! Fort Campbell says about 400 soldiers with the 101st Airborne Division are deploying to Iraq this summer. And the soldiers from the 2nd Brigade Combat Team will deploy as part of an increase in authorized troop levels in Iraq.

Ad Text	8 August, 1974 Republican President Richard M. Nixon resigned. With impeachment proceedings underway against him for his involvement in the Watergate affair, Nixon was finally bowing to pressure from the public and Congress to leave the White House. Many people asked themselves: “How dare he to do that?” This is the awful part of our history, however, the similar actions still happen during current campaign: deleted emails, accident with Bernie Sanders and the DNC… This is bad and nobody cares. Does the political hypocrisy jump at the high level nowadays?

Your morality is deeply lacking
if all you want is a child born
but not a child fed,
not a child educated,
not a child housed.
That is not pro-life.
That is pro-birth.

The state of Pennsylvania rose owing to multiple enterprises mining coal, producing steel, and creating the need for other jobs, groceries, doctors, dentists, insurance, gas, vehicles, mechanics and the list goes on. As far as Mr. Trump pursues the goal of creating more jobs and supports the working class. He said he would put miners back to work. We could help Mr. Trump win Pennsylvania which is a battleground state. We'd like to organize a rally "Miners for Trump" in Pennsylvania. Have something against coal industries? Please note then that burning coal is not more harmful than lumber. Alternative energy is only possible when subsidized by government for it is not lucrative. Ad Text	On October 15, 1966, Bobby Seale and Huey P. Newton have founded BPP. Their idea was simple - we can't just talk to make the change, we must take action. They started to monitor the behavior of police officers and challenge police brutality in Oakland, California. And they succeeded. Unfortunately, the government and especially Federal Bureau of Investigation called the party "the greatest threat to the internal security of the country". They tried to close it, to incarcerate BPP's participants, and in 1982 the original party was dissolved. 50 years have passed since BBP's foundation, but the situation in the country stills the same. Cops are shooting Blacks. It spreads through all the country like the disease. Nowadays we need Black Panthers as never before. We need a strong hand that can protect us, that can keep our people safe, that can make Black Lives really matter. Let's get together and celebrate the 50th anniversary of the party that has made the change. Let's honor its founders and participants. Let's share their ideas and ideals! Ad Text	The story of Leon Ford is shocking sad and gives hope at the same time. This brave activist uses his personal experience to inspire others and fight against police brutality. On November 12, 2012, Leon Ford was pulled over by a Pittsburgh cop for what appeared to be a routine traffic stop. His life has never been the same since then. Ad Text	New-York City. Staten Island. October 22. National Day of Protest to stop Police Brutality. The day when everyone must stand up for their rights in the city where "We can't breath" movement was created after Eric Garner's death. Mr. Garner and his family paid a horrible price to make us all realize that we're in danger. Eric will never be forgotten. The crimes of police officers will never be forgotten as well. Police brutality in this country is unacceptable and must be stopped! Join us, show your support and solidarity. Ad Text	New-York City. Staten Island. October 22. National Day of Protest to stop Police Brutality. The day when everyone must stand up for their rights in the city where "We can't breath" movement was created after Eric Garner's death. Mr. Garner and his family paid a horrible price to make us all realize that we're in danger. Eric will never be forgotten. The crimes of police officers will never be forgotten as well. Police brutality in this country is unacceptable and must be stopped! Join us, show your support and solidarity. On October 22 we will meet at the place where Mr. Garner was killed. 202 Bay Street, Staten Island, New York, 2 pm. National Day of Protest. Harlem, NY

Ad Text	October 22 is the National Day of Protest. October 22nd is a day that people around the nation have mobilized every year since 1996 for a National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality, Repression and the Criminalization of a Generation. Here in Charlotte, this problem appears especially hard. A number of victims and quantity of cases, where justice wasn't served - horrifies. The most well-known case is shooting of Jonathan Ferrell, an unarmed black man who was shot ten times and killed. Or situation with Daniel Kevin Harris, a deaf man, who just couldn't explain a thing, before he was shot. We need to use our right to protest to demand the authorities and police representatives, to do, the thing they are supposed to do! To protect and serve! Not to kill, damage and cripple! Join us on October 22, in Charlotte, 600 East Trade Street, just between Charlotte City hall and Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department. National Day of Protest. Charlotte, NC

Ad Text	Fellow Texans! It's time to say a strong NO to the establishment robbers. It is unacceptable for us to see them ruin all we've been building for decades. For centuries. The establishment thinks they can treat us like stupid sheep but they are wrong. We won't put up with this anymore. The corrupt media does not talk about the crimes committed by Killary Rotten Clinton, neither does it mention the leaked emails but it would rather keep on kicking around some outdated tapes featuring Trump. Even Republicans are now offering her a victory by renouncing their nominee. What is this if not treason? No, no, no. We are free citizens of Texas and we've had enough of this cheap show on the screen. We're ready to prove our commitment to liberty, low taxes and gun rights. If Trump wins, there will be a possibility to secede peacefully but not without tension. What will happen if Hitlery becomes President? Higher taxes to feed undocumented aliens. More refugees, mosques, and terrorist attacks. Banned guns. Continuing economic depression. Let's remind them what Texas is made of and show that we're ready to SECEDE! However, most of these athletes paid the price for this demonstration. For instance, on September 10, after getting permission from league officials, the staff and the students of the Beaumont Bulls football team took a knee before their game. On the next day, the students and the staff received death threats. Moreover, the executive board decided to suspend Coach Rah0Rah Barber for the rest of the season and canceled the whole football season. So now we know what opposition might face in this country.

Ad Text HILLARY CLINTON CHEATS AMERICAN VETERANS

The last time Hillary Clinton had a press conference on veterans' issues was in 2015 and since then all her plans and offers concerning veterans' life improvement were stated only in emails made by her staff. And here are some real Clinton decisions:

–Last year, Clinton claimed that the Veterans Administration Scandal had been exaggerated by Republicans.
–In 2007, Clinton was one of only 14 senators to vote against a 2007 supplemental appropriations bill that contained $1.8 billion for veterans' medical care.
-In 2006, Clinton voted against an amendment that would have added $20 million for veterans' health care facilities.
-In 2003, Clinton voted against a budget resolution that called for "$13 billion for veterans to receive concurrent disability and retirement benefits."

In other words, Hillary Clinton is one of the politicians who are to blame for the poor social condition of our veterans. She has systematically ignored the issue and even voted against providing veterans with financial aid which they need so bad!

Hardly will she change her mind on the issue if she is elected. Clinton poses a direct threat to the American veterans' society, but still practically no one raises these concerns. Think twice before voting for her!

Ad Text	I pity anyone who has to deal with neighbors in an apartment building. Especially when you have to deal with the complaining and passive-aggressive types. Oh, and let’s not forget gentrifiers. Or, as I like to call them, “white migrators.” Apparently, instead of knocking on a neighbor’s door, people take the easy and passive-aggressive way out and just leave notes instead. But one man wasn’t having it. Ad Text	Boston police shot and killed a man wearing body armor and wielding an assault rifle who critically injured two officers responding to a domestic disturbance call late Wednesday, according to Police Commissioner William Evans. A gun battle raged at an East Boston home as a suspect, Kirk Figueroa, 33, of East Boston, critically injured two Boston police officers late on October 12.He was then shot and killed by other officers who ran into the home to drag out their wounded colleagues while undergoing heavy gunfire themselves. This bloody massacre is a vivid example of the fact that the war with police is too far from being OVER. It’s only coming and the consequences will be destructive if Hillary Clinton, the main hardliner against cops, will become the President of the United States. Defending the police against liberal and racist accusations is a solemn duty of every American Patriot. Recent spate of cop killings indicates that American national identity is undermined and replaced by ridiculous social experiments liberal elites are constantly setting up on the country. Democrats are unable to secure the police from attacks of extremist movements like Black Lives Matter. The Nation must unite against reverse racism, against those who want to destroy America! Among all the candidates Donald Trump is the one and only who can defend the police from terrorists.

Ad Text	VIDEO: TEXAS SCHOOL TEACHER FIRED AFTER MANHANDLING LITTLE BLACK BOY The shocking video shows a Central Texas child trying to get up from a bean bag chair in his classroom, while a Snook Independent School District employee, Troy Vann pushing him repeatedly into it and mocking him again and again. After the concerned parent posted a disturbing video showing teacher manhandling a small child on Facebook, the video went viral and it was shared thousands of times. In the video footage, Vann also tells the boy: “Tell me no. When I tell you to do something, you do it, boy.” After the Burleson County Sheriff`s Office launched an investigation, a “behavior specialist” who acted in an inappropriate manner with a young student was fired. The school district should provide a safe and secure environment for the students. And the school should not condone or tolerate the employees who abuse any child. The teachers who use excessive force against any child should be removed immediately from the classroom and placed on administrative leave. Otherwise, this will continue to happen.

Ad Text	On October 15, 1966, Bobby Seale and Huey P. Newton have founded BPP. Their idea was simple - we can't just talk to make the change, we must take action. They started to monitor the behavior of police officers and challenge police brutality in Oakland, California. And they succeeded. Unfortunately, the government and especially Federal Bureau of Investigation called the party "the greatest threat to the internal security of the country". They tried to close it, to incarcerate BPP's participants, and in 1982 the original party was dissolved. 50 years have passed since BBP's foundation, but the situation in the country stills the same. Cops are shooting Blacks. It spreads through all the country like the disease. Nowadays we need Black Panthers as never before. We need a strong hand that can protect us, that can keep our people safe, that can make Black Lives really matter. Let's get together and celebrate the 50th anniversary of the party that has made the change. Let's honor its founders and participants. Let's share their ideas and ideals! Ad Text	On November 15, 2015, Jamar Clark, a 24-year-old black man, was fatally shot by two Minneapolis cops. According to witnesses, Jamar was handcuffed when he was shot. Killer cops involved in the shooting won't face discipline. Chief Janee Harteau recently said that an internal investigation found the officers were warranted in using deadly force in the death of the 24-year-old black man. It's been a year since he died. Justice still hasn't been served. Come out to honor the memory of Jamar on November 19. We won’t stop until change is here! #blacklivesmatter Remember Jamar Clark

Ad Text	Please share this disturbing video. A routine revenue collection stop turned into a nightmare for this black man. Kevin Campbell was driving his wife`s minivan home in June when he was targeted for revenue collection by Allen Park Police Officer Daniel Mack. Mack literally kidnapped Campbell, placed him in handcuffs, threw him in a cage over a suspended license, accused Campbell of having drugs on him despite the fact that the K9 didn`t find anything. Moreover, the cop sodomized him by putting the illegal substance inside his body. There was no search warrant.

Ad Text	Please share this disturbing video. A routine revenue collection stop turned into a nightmare for this black man. Kevin Campbell was driving his wife`s minivan home in June when he was targeted for revenue collection by Allen Park Police Officer Daniel Mack. Mack literally kidnapped Campbell, placed him in handcuffs, threw him in a cage over a suspended license, accused Campbell of having drugs on him despite the fact that the K9 didn`t find anything. Moreover, the cop sodomized him by putting the illegal substance inside his body. There was no search warrant.

Ad Text	October 22 is the National Day of Protest. October 22nd is a day that people around the nation have mobilized every year since 1996 for a National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality, Repression and the Criminalization of a Generation. Here in Charlotte, this problem appears especially hard. A number of victims and quantity of cases, where justice wasn't served - horrifies. The most well-known case is shooting of Jonathan Ferrell, an unarmed black man who was shot ten times and killed. Or situation with Daniel Kevin Harris, a deaf man, who just couldn't explain a thing, before he was shot. We need to use our right to protest to demand the authorities and police representatives, to do, the thing they are supposed to do! To protect and serve! Not to kill, damage and cripple! Join us on October 22, in Charlotte, 600 East Trade Street, just between Charlotte City hall and Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department. National Day of Protest. Charlotte, NC

"Willie Lynch Letter: Breaking Black Women."

I wish we could turn back the time and stop these criminals from ever breathing.

WILLE LYNCH LETTER: BREAKING BLACK WOMAN

THE BREAKING PROCESS OF THE AFRICAN WOMAN

Take the female and run a series of tests on her to see if she will submit to your desires willingly. Test her in every way, because she is the most important factor for good economics. If she shows any signs of resistance in submitting completely to your will, do not hesitate to use the bull whip on her to extract that last bit of bitch out of her. Take care not to kill her, for in doing so, you spoil good economics. When in complete submission, she will train her offspring in the early years to submit to labor when they become of age.

Ad Text	A Fort Worth man broke into the State Capitol in Austin to deface a Civil War-era portrait Apparently, the man’s main goal was to destroy the portrait of former Texas Governor Fletcher Stockdale. The man was arrested right in the Capitol and charged with felony burglary and criminal mischief. It is not clear for now if his actions were inspired by the hatred towards Confederate symbols or namely towards Governor Stockdale. Nevertheless, this incident perfectly illustrates how liberal propaganda influences even on Southern people. The names of dignified Southern politicians and warriors should not be blurred out by Washington. These people played a huge role in American history; they fought for their beliefs and earned people’s respect. It is absolutely unpatriotic now to demonize their names! We should protect our history and fight against liberal brainwashing.

Ad Text	At the Last Supper Jesus says: He said to them, “But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don’t have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one.” — Luke 22:36 What does that mean? Jesus always stood for peace and non-violence. But enemies often issued threats towards Him and His disciples. There's always was a risk for them to be arrested and subjected to a great violence, and be followed with rage and persecution; so that they might seem to stand in need of swords to defend them: the phrase is expressive of the danger they would be exposed to, and of their need of protection. And we, American Christians, should remember about it. Sometimes you have to arm yourself to protect your loved ones and friends.

Judge 'lets off' cocaine dealing private schoolgirl to protect her career

By James Tozer

A FORMER private schoolgirl who helped her brother supply cocaine to students was spared jail after arguing it would blight her future career.

Poppy Murray, 22, acted as go-between for her 19-yearld sibling Joel and did not

Ad Text HILLARY CLINTON CHEATS AMERICAN VETERANS

The last time Hillary Clinton had a press conference on veterans' issues was in 2015 and since then all her plans and offers concerning veterans' life improvement were stated only in emails made by her staff. And here are some real Clinton decisions:

–Last year, Clinton claimed that the Veterans Administration Scandal had been exaggerated by Republicans.
–In 2007, Clinton was one of only 14 senators to vote against a 2007 supplemental appropriations bill that contained $1.8 billion for veterans' medical care.
-In 2006, Clinton voted against an amendment that would have added $20 million for veterans' health care facilities.
-In 2003, Clinton voted against a budget resolution that called for "$13 billion for veterans to receive concurrent disability and retirement benefits."

In other words, Hillary Clinton is one of the politicians who are to blame for the poor social condition of our veterans. She has systematically ignored the issue and even voted against providing veterans with financial aid which they need so bad!

Hardly will she change her mind on the issue if she is elected. Clinton poses a direct threat to the American veterans' society, but still practically no one raises these concerns. Think twice before voting for her!

Ad Text	Fellow Texans! It's time to say a strong NO to the establishment robbers. It is unacceptable for us to see them ruin all we've been building for decades. For centuries. The establishment thinks they can treat us like stupid sheep but they are wrong. We won’t put up with this anymore. The corrupt media does not talk about the crimes committed by Killary Rotten Clinton, neither does it mention the leaked emails but it would rather keep on kicking around some outdated tapes featuring Trump. Even Republicans are now offering her a victory by renouncing their nominee. What is this if not treason? No, no, no. We are free citizens of Texas and we’ve had enough of this cheap show on the screen. We're ready to prove our commitment to liberty, low taxes and gun rights. If Trump wins, there will be a possibility to secede peacefully but not without tension. What will happen if Hitlery becomes President? Higher taxes to feed undocumented aliens. More refugees, mosques, and terrorist attacks. Banned guns. Continuing economic depression. Let’s remind them what Texas is made of and show that we’re ready to SECEDE! Ad Text	On the video you see Brinkley Police Department Chief Edward Randle driving his car more than 100 miles per hour to the football game. He is pulled over by cops. They realize that they stopped their chief, so they just laughed together and let their chief go. According to THV11 "since the officer did not announce the truck's license plate number into his radio, nobody else would know the chief had been pulled over." Fortunately this guardian of order didn't kill anyone with his speeding car that day, but he probably will do it next time.

Ad Text	This is exactly what i have been trying to tell y'all. Your vote should be precious to y'all cus its your power to put another person in authority over you, your freedom, your daily life and your safety. To most people, it's about just going out to vote, if you did just that because you want to, well done, if you didn't, aka #BOYCOTT just like me, you also got your reasons. BUT, let those reasons be genuine! Let them be your reasons, not influenced upon or manipulated in any way. I'm proud of this mama not because she didn't vote #Hillary or #Trump, but simply because she did her research, decided for herself, in her interest and the interest of her kids, and voted consciously! I'm glad i choose not to be a part of this whole system. Im proud to be woke

According to ex-cop`s attorneys, their defendant acted in self-defense despite the fact that Scott was unarmed and Slager fired eight times, hitting Scott five times from behind. Slager`s defense attorney`s: “The double-teaming of Slager … is a chilling example of how far politically motivated politicians and prosecutors will go to seek headlines and feather their own nests at the expense of a public servant … who had to make a split-second life or death decision that will be second-guessed by comfortable armchair quarterbacks. This is unconscionable.” The shooting occurred in April 2015 when Slager stopped Scott for a broken brake light on the Mercedes-Benz he was driving. According to Slager`s dashcam, ex-cop asked Scott to show his driving license and questioned him about documents for the car. When Slager returned to his car, Walter Scott jumped out of the car and ran away giving Slager chase. According to a bystander`s video, Scott ran away from the officer when Slager opened fire. We`ve seen what happened in different parts of America: unarmed dead black bodies lying across the streets at the hands of police officers and none of them found guilty. That`s why today it`s important to send a message to other police officers that if they do this, it`s harsh penalty to pay.

Police arrived at the scene after a series of 911 calls in which they were warned of a reckless driver and her erratic behavior. When cop saw Shirley, who was off her bipolar medication, they boxed her in with their patrol cars. When she started approaching them, law enforcement officers opened fire at her. The incident resulted in a fatal shooting. After the shooting, Shirley was taken to County Harbor-UCLA Medical Center and was pronounced dead. Michelle Shirley, 39, who received a diagnosis of a mental disorder tried to balance motherhood and law school. In a video titled, “It`s Up to Us,” she was asking people to take seriously a mental disorder and seek help because ignoring it can take away years of people`s lives. Did you know that people with mental illness are 16 times more likely to be killed during a police encounter than mental healthy? Did you know that half of people shot by cops are mentally ill? Police officers are not equipped with firearms to deal with mental illness in the field. But they are equipped to protect us from criminals.

COPS SHOT AND KILLED CALIFORNIA BLACK WOMAN WHO STRUGGLED WITH BIPOLAR DISORDER

Michelle Lee Shirley was fatally shot by Torrance police officer as she approached a group of police officers in her car.

Police arrived at the scene after a series of 911 calls in which they were warned of a reckless driver and her erratic behavior. When cop saw Shirley, who was off her bipolar medication, they boxed her in with their patrol cars. When she started approaching them, law enforceme... See More

"Blue" lives do not exist. Black lives do. Being a police officer is an occupation, a choice. Blackness is non-negotiable. #BlackLivesMatter

Black pride is always mistaken as hate for other races. Probably because that's what white pride is sips tea

Ad Text	Please share this disturbing video. A routine revenue collection stop turned into a nightmare for this black man. Kevin Campbell was driving his wife`s minivan home in June when he was targeted for revenue collection by Allen Park Police Officer Daniel Mack. Mack literally kidnapped Campbell, placed him in handcuffs, threw him in a cage over a suspended license, accused Campbell of having drugs on him despite the fact that the K9 didn`t find anything. Moreover, the cop sodomized him by putting the illegal substance inside his body. There was no search warrant.

Kevin Campbell was driving his wife`s minivan home in June when he was targeted for revenue collection by Allen Park Police Officer Daniel Mack. Mack literally kidnapped Campbell, placed him in handcuffs, threw him in a cage over a suspended license, accused Campbell of having drugs on him despite the fact that the K9 didn`t find anything. Moreover, the cop sodomized him by putting the illegal substance inside his body. There was no search warrant.

Ad Text	January 15 marks the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr., a great man who spent his public career working toward ending segregation and fighting racial discrimination. By recalling King’s vision we can have opportunities to build a more inclusive and just community that does not retreat from diversity but draws strength from it. In the face of violence directed at minority communities and in a deepening political divisions in the country, King’s words and philosophy are perhaps more critical for us today than at any point in the recent past. We’re coming together on January 15 to celebrate the life and achievements one of the most influential American civil rights leaders. Don’t forget to bring your children with you, because it’s important for them to know where they come from and their rich history. Join us on January 15! Let’s keep the dream alive! Ad Text	Find out how to escape bad credit reports: goo.gl/GArVbz A recent study has revealed some surprising differences in credit scores between African-Americans and Caucasians. The study showed that Caucasians earning less than $25,000 per year were likely to have better credit scores than African-Americans earning between $65,000 and $75,000 per year. Overall, the study found 27 percent of all credit reports belonging to Caucasians were poor, compared to 48 percent of those belonging to African-Americans. Although credit reporting is supposed to be free of prejudice, some researchers said the system may be inherently stacked against minorities. Find out how to escape bad credit reports: goo.gl/GArVbz

All I ever really knew was that I was from Milwaukee, but recently, I took an Ancestry DNA test and discovered that my ancestors are from Ghana and Nigeria. It changed everything for me. It helped me know that my history did not begin with being adopted. It did not begin with slavery. It's even part of why I wear this Afro now. I'm not going to hide who I am."

Ad Text	Here you can see guy was harassed for allegedly having a bottle of alcohol in his University dorm room. Pigs forced their way into the room without his consent and opened the fridge. When they didn't find alcohol (there was just ranch dressing) they threatened him with expelling from University. WTF?? This is what you get when you are going to get education in America.

It could be a great chapter of his political biography, but he chose to be lame and heartless. People could die. It hurts to see this footage.

Ad Text	Joshua was born in Chicago, Illinois, and raised in Indianapolis. Two months before his death, he proposed to his longtime girlfriend and the mother of two sons. Joshua Beal had come to Chicago to serve as a pallbearer in the funeral of his cousin Marcus Washington who was fatally shot on October 27, 2016 in Indianapolis at the age of 26. Beal was fatally shot after he and several relatives were involved in what authorities called a road rage incident with an off-duty police officer and an off-duty firefighter. The relatives along with others in the caravan were headed to Southwest Memorial Chapel after burying their cousin Marcus Washington, she said. Suddenly, Boxley said, a car cut her off and then tried to run her 17-year-old sister off the road. She said her family as well as the motorist who had cut her off — who she believed was a Chicago police officer — stopped and got out of their cars. At some point the man pushed her female cousin to the ground and pulled a gun on her, pointing it at her face, according to Boxley. She said the man got inside his car but exited again and “he just started shooting,’’ hitting the windshield of a car containing Beal, who had pulled his gun when he saw the man holding a gun on their cousin. Boxley said Beal legally owned the gun and did not fire it. Boxley said the man pulled Beal out of his front passenger seat and began shooting him. “I was hoping my brother wasn’t dead,’’ said Boxley. Beal’s mother said he was a father to two children, a 4-year-old and a 2-year-old, and that his fiancée was a stay-at-home mother. “This is what CPD do. They tear our families apart over and over again. They have no consideration for life,” - Tiffaney Boxley. Yet another father of two has been shot, and despite what the cop's report will say, i know there can never be a way a Black man isn't guilty for his own death, armed or unarmed. #joshuabeal #altonsterling #TerenceCrutcher #westandtogether #blacklivesmatter #unite4justice

Ad Text	On October 26,2016, a black man was slammed and beaten by police officers at the train station. According to a witness, the man who was arrested had originally been driving across the light rail tracks, when officers on foot attempted to stop his car, at which point, he drove off. He added that the man “wasn’t resisting at all until they tased him” After tasing the man police officers used their elbows and fists, as the man lay on the ground, screaming for help. The man was heard screaming in pain: “My fucking back is killing me! Oh god! My back!” In a statement, released on November 2, Minneapolis Police Department confirmed the arrest, but said that a fuller video would show that the officers’ conduct was justified.

Don't let me see another post about "Kim Kardashian Boxer Braids" it's called CORN ROWS and it's nothing new... Why when we have em, people call us ghetto but when Kim Kardashian and her sisters wear it, all of a sudden it's a new fashion craze? 🖐🏾🖐🏾🖐🏾 I'm not here for it!

That’s always making me laugh. I would advice white racists to love the snow for its whiteness and to hate the coil for its blackness. But after all, Kaepernick is a great athlete who not just sat out the national anthem in protest, but also gave back to the community by donating to the Black Youth Project 100. Kaepernick donated to the Chicago chapter of the organization toward “Chapter-specific ideas and endeavors centered on advancing Agenda to Build Black Futures” which is dedicated to creating justice and freedom for all Black people in order to improve the lives of black people in the United States of America. “I’ll continue to look at other communities in Chicago, as well, as far as what are ways I can help and what are ways I can try to help empower those communities,” he said. When someone strives to uplift the negativity surrounding black people, there is always someone who will distort the positivity. But we don`t really care about haters. Good job, Colin.

Things every black person needs to know.

The potato chip was invented in 1853 by George Crum. Crum invented the potato chip in 1853 and called them Saratoga chips and potato crunches. The chips were packaged and sold in New England. Crum later opened his own restaurant in 1860 and continued to sell the chips.

Ad Text	“Everyone should #buyblack this holiday season in an effort to support the businesses that are the backbone of our neighborhoods and communities. Often times, we overlook our own businesses to purchase products and services from businesses outside of our communities. Many of us have heard the disturbing statistic about a dollar circulating within the black community for only 6 hours compared to approximately 2-4 weeks in white, Jewish, and Asian communities. If we don’t support our entrepreneurs, how can we expect others to support our amazing businesses? We must continue to educate and change the mindset of consumers so “buying black” becomes the norm amongst our people and not only an encouragement during the holiday season,” said Lonzell Fogle and Breyon Williams, founders of My Suited Life.

Ad Text	Meet Joseph Wicks, the man whose biggest dream is to save old house in downtown Charleston. Joseph, a retired Pittsburgh firefighter, is moving an old house on Woolfe Street that’s being displaced by development says he’s doing it to make a statement. “It was something that I really wanted to go into because it was something that’s not done here by black folk,” said Joseph Wicks, who now owns the house at 33 Woolfe St. “None of the historic revitalization is ever targeted toward black folk.” Wicks says he has seen Blacks moved out of downtown neighborhoods because the development of the tourism in this area caused the increasing of home prices and made taxes unaffordable for most. The reason why Wicks bought this house is that it was built in 1840 and it can’t be torn down! I’m so proud of this man! He is making a real movement! Actions like this can protect our history!

Meet Joseph Wicks, the man whose biggest dream is to save old house in downtown Charleston.

Joseph, a retired Pittsburgh firefighter, is moving an old house on Woolfe Street that's being displaced by development says he's doing it to make a statement.

"It was something that I really wanted to go into because it was something that's not done here by black folk," said Joseph Wicks, who now owns the house at 33 Woolfe St. "None of the historic revitalization is ever targeted tow... See More

Ad Text	Before he became a lawyer and prolific supporter of prisoner rights, Daniel Manville spent three years and four months in the slammer for manslaughter. Manville continued to study while incarcerated and eventually earned two college degrees during his sentence. He became enamored with the legal profession and went to law school right after his parole. He finally passed the bar exams in Michigan and Washington, DC after waiting many years to be approved by the respective boards. Afterwards, Manville worked tirelessly to improve the prison system and represented various inmates and prison guards in civil cases. Nowadays, Manville teaches law at Michigan State University, where he hopes the insights he shares with students inspire them to someday help improve the system as well. ~ListVerse~

Ad Text	Prior to cooking delicious five-star cuisine, celebrity chef Jeff Henderson cooked something else entirely dangerous—cocaine. As a teenager, Henderson manufactured and sold drugs in his native home in Los Angeles. By 19, he was already earning US $35,000 per week. Henderson was later apprehended and imprisoned for 10 years after one of his men was caught carrying a big shipment. It was in prison that he discovered his natural flair for cooking, while he was on kitchen duty. He was released early for good behavior and soon started working for some of LA's top restaurants before venturing into Las Vegas. After experiencing many rejections due to his felonious past, Henderson finally managed to land a job at Caesar's Palace. It was only a matter of time before he finally started getting recognition and awards, including best Las Vegas Chef in 2001. All the fame and success hasn't gotten to Henderson's head though and he has continued to share his experiences with at-risk youth to show what they can achieve in life with the right choices.

flawless-mexicana:

> Guys. This picture fucked me up. We come for opportunity and a better life and all we get is hate and contempt. Sometimes I forget how lucky I am cause I can go back home whenever I want, but other people have to stay here and deal with racism and hate everyday. We didn't come to steal your jobs, we came to make a living. We're not here to murder. rape, and steal; we're here to escape that. Please stop hating on mi gente we're trying our best

Ad Text	At the Last Supper Jesus says: He said to them, “But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don’t have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one.” — Luke 22:36 What does that mean? Jesus always stood for peace and non-violence. But enemies often issued threats towards Him and His disciples. There's always was a risk for them to be arrested and subjected to a great violence, and be followed with rage and persecution; so that they might seem to stand in need of swords to defend them: the phrase is expressive of the danger they would be exposed to, and of their need of protection. And we, American Christians, should remember about it. Sometimes you have to arm yourself to protect your loved ones and friends.

Mother gets pregnant at 13, her son dropped out of H.S. at 16 - They both get PHD's at the same time!

That's Black determination!

Ad Text	Native American teens made an interesting journey through their ancestral lands. The journey was led by Sarah Pemberton member of the Delaware Nation. Sarah and her partner Kyle Harris created a movie about the journey called "The Water Gap: Return to the Homelands" which already won the award at the Native American Film Festival of the Southeast. Propaganda of native culture and traditions is one of most powerful weapons in Native American fight for their rights. People have always tried to destroy things they don’t understand. And white people never understood native culture properly. Many teens who had native ancestors deep in the past know nothing about their culture. Films, journeys, even videos on Youtube, can help.

After the critics complained about the Army`s unfair burden on black women`s hair, the U.S. Army again lifted the ban on dreadlocks that was instated in April 2014. The ban faced an instant backlash from black women so the Army unbanned braids and twists amidst the criticism. Some of the female soldiers used harsh chemicals to keep their hair straight. Moreover, every eight weeks it cost them to $80. Thus, the ban on dreadlocks caused a lot of unnecessary stress. The ban on locs, which was part of Army Regulation 670-1, remained until January 2017. The new rules offered female soldiers another hairstyle option. Now the rules allow dreadlocks and locks but only if they are less than a half-inch wide. Well, it took months for the Army to recognize that black women have different hair texture.

Elijah McCoy was born in Colchester, Ontario, Canada on May 2, 1844.

ELIJAH MCCOY (1843–1929)

INVENTED AN OIL-DRIPPING CUP FOR TRAINS.

OTHER INVENTORS TRIED TO COPY MCCOY'S OIL-DRIPPING CUP. BUT NONE OF THE OTHER CUPS WORKED AS WELL AS HIS, SO CUSTOMERS STARTED ASKING FOR "THE REAL MCCOY." THAT'S WHERE THE EXPRESSION COMES FROM.

The shop was selling the books of black writers. The next year the owners of Drum and Spear launched its own publishing company. One of co-founders said “We don’t define profit in terms of money. The profit is the patronage of the community, which allows the store to self-support.” Drum and Spear was aimed to show people the true black culture and history, something beyond the American school program. It's reflected in the name of the shop: the drum is for “communications within the diaspora,” and the spear symbolizes “whatever else might be necessary for the liberation of the people.” The best-sellers of early 70s in this shop were such books as the Autobiography of Malcolm X and Eldridge Cleaver’s Soul on Ice. This bookstore inspired people around the country to open similar bookstores. Drum and Spear and many other stores were not only the shops, but a "free spaces" for thinking black people where folks could meet and discuss the vital issues. Let's not forget our legacy! We need this drum and we need this spear today, in 2017. #blackexcellence #blackperfection #blackbeauty #blackbusiness #africanamerican #blackcommunity #melanin #blackpride #blackout #america #usa #blackscience #education #diversity #drumandspear #blackpower

She began to take him to local museums such as the Apex, the Sights and Sounds Black Cultural Museum and the Fernbank Museum of Natural History. To improve Leon’s skills of painting he began to attend art classes of R. Gregory Christies. Non-profit organization the Southwest Atlanta Youth Business Organization (SWAYBO) also helped Leon in many ways. According to blacknews.com, the organization gave him lessons of “poise and presentation, public speaking, sales and marketing at marketplaces and how to perform basic accounting formulas. With SWAYBO, Leon has met judges, successful business owners and other pillars of the Black community.” Now Moss makes illustrations and sells the copies of his works. The first book with his illustrations is As Big As God. That’s what we call the support of family and the community! Good luck, Leon! Bibles, guns and disease...

When your people came to our land, it was not with open arms, but with Bibles and guns and disease. You took our land. You killed us with your guns and disease, then had the arrogance to call us godless savages.

Ad Text	This is a huge victory for us! Harvard University is one of the best schools in the whole world and when a Black woman is becoming a president of Harvard Law Paper it’s huge! Education for the Black people was never easy, starting slave period when Black people could be killed for reading a book, including today when thousands of kids cannot get the education because of their skin color and the prejudice of the teachers, and this girl is proving that times are changing. Recently Black women were called the most educated group of people in the US and years by, we can see that those women are starting to make changes. Here and there we hear the news about Black people holding the positions for the first time in history and trust me, it’s just a beginning! We are so happy to see the whole nation waking up and realizing the importance of both hustle and education.

In the sense that efforts were really made to prevent Black people from participating in such sports, back in the days. But thanks to Debi Thomas and other Black skaters, we changed the game and on Feb. 8, 1986, Debi became the first Black skater to hold a US national titles in ladies' single figure scating. Debi, a physician, became the 1986 World champion, the 1988 Olympic bronze medalist, and a two-time U.S. national champion. #PanAfricanism #BlackNationalism #BlackEmpowerment #AfricanEmpowerment #AfricanAndProud #BlackAndProud #BlackPride #BlackPower #BlackLivesMatter #Amerikkka #UnapologeticallyBlack #UnapologeticallyAfrican #BlackInAmerica #BlackIsBeautiful #KnowThySelf #KnowledgeOfSelf #KnowledgeOfSelfIsANationality #EconomicEmpowerment #IntegrationFailed #WhiteLiesMatter #Education #AfricanUnification #AfricanUnity #BlackLove #JusticeOrElse #ProBlack #Regrann #blackexcellence #goals

My mother didn't know about the school-to-prison pipeline, she just knew she had a black boy.” Coleman explained how his work with wrongfully-convicted clients had shaped his view of the U.S. criminal justice system, which he described as racially lopsided. “It’s not by choice that most of my clients are African American," Coleman said. "It’s a fact of life and of the prison system. If most of the people going into the system are black men, most of my clients will be too.” The Duke Journal of Gender Law and Policy hosted a symposium Tuesday focusing on efforts to improve criminal justice and the American prison system. Titled “Intersectionality and the Black Lives Matter Movement,” the event featured a panel of speakers, including James Coleman, John S. Bradway professor of the practice of law, and Umar Muhammad, community organizer for the Southern Coalition for Justice, along with Theresa Newman, clinical professor of law. “I didn’t feel prepared for the world. I didn’t feel rehabilitated. I had no resources,” Muhammad said. ~The Chronicle~

Ad Text "First and foremost, we as Chicago Public School students would like to thank you for the supportive donation to our schools. As we all know, CPS has been struggling financially, and your donation has really given us a push to get to where we need to be and possibly motivate others to give back to the community as well. This is only one of the many things that you have done to improve our Chicago...
All of the things that you do for our city never go unnoticed. All of the free concerts you host and all the time you spend here in the city really show you care. We notice it. We look up to you because the fame usually takes humility away from artists, but it hasn't changed you...
We thank you for supporting Chicago's minority youth when not many others have put time to think about the kids. As minority students we feel ignored and as though we don't have enough support from bigger influences like you. Being born and raised in Chicago is not easy at all. There are so many stereotypes and restrictions we have as teenagers due to the frequent violence and crimes. Your music puts some at ease because we know that someone cares and someone has experienced these daily struggles too. You and your music have taught us that you can be true to yourself and still be successful, still be self-made...
Once again, thank you for aiding us and giving something back to the city we know and love, Chicago.
Sincerely,
Alex Rojas, Alondra Cerros, and Annelisse Betancourt
Lake View High School Students
Chicago, Illinois"
It's not the full letter, but some extracts. It's sweet to observe how young people don't hesitate to express their gratitude and respond to someone who cares for them. We are sure, that Chano needs it. Love should be given back. It should work.
As an independent artist he got people's support and Chance didn't forget who made him famous. Artists are made of talent, work and people's love. That's cool that this love goes back and forth!
We need more of these positive black people on the media, because some people forget how much love and care black people show. Hopefully one day different race will be the issue of diversity, not stereotypes.

"I immigrated to the U.S. without my parents when I was 16 years old. I went to high school from 8am to 2:05pm and worked from 4pm to midnight. I did homework after work, and it used to take me a long time because I didn't speak English. I graduated from high school with a 3.8 GPA and went on to college and became a high school teacher."

Ad Text	An immigration judge has ordered an Army veteran from Chicago, who served two tours of duty, to be deported. His name is Miguel Perez and he is Chicano in every sense of the word. Perez moved to Chicago when he was 8-years-old and was a permanent legal resident. He joined the U.S. Army and served two tours of duty in Afghanistan where he suffered a brain injury in an explosion. Perez served seven years, but because he is not a U.S. citizen, Immigration Customs Enforcement detained him, stripped his legal status and began the deportation process. This system doesn't appreciate our sacrifices. America was designed that way it will only benefit gringos. Miguel Perez is a real hero, who was betrayed by America. When will we have real justice in this country?

TALENTED ARMLESS BLACK TEEN SKETCHED PORTRAIT OF KYRIE IRVING USING HIS FEET
Christ Nelson, 19, was born without hands, but it didn`t stop him from expressing himself through his artworks. Despite his struggles, Nelson recently graduated from Lincoln West High School in Cleveland, Ohio and received a prestigious honor voted by principals and teachers. Moreover, apart from drawing and sketching, Nelson composes music and hopes to drive someday.

Ad Text	When Ebony Hilton was 8, she promised her mother that one day she will become a doctor. Since that moment Ebony's mother called her "Dr. Hilton". It wasn't easy to follow the dream for Ebony. Or it's better to say that there were some hardships — for example, Ebony was growing without a father etc, but despite these things she successfully got the proper education and became the first black female anesthesiologist in 2013. Hilton says she never had plan B. Now she is mentoring youth as a member of program called Girls Loving OurSelves Successfully (GLOSS). That's sweet. Black women always show the power in any conditions. That's inspiring! People should know the origins, not to confuse things. If you want to stress that you use something you taken from another culture it's one thing. But when you wear (for example) dreadlocks and don't know anything about its meaning, it can look strange, even weird. White people do many such things unintentionally. It doesn't make them wise. Same goes to African Americans who copy white people. Know yourself! We made the first cattle drive, started the first ranches, we were the first ranchers, miners, mountain men, cowboys etc. in what is now the U.S. Everything changed when white colonists came. Europe was rejecting the worst people so those, who were arriving at our lands were killers, rapists, murderers, thieves and other scum. So, why are their descendants worried about immigrants? They forgot that what goes around comes around!

Ad Text	Irma Gonzalez was one of six women inducted into the San Diego County Women's Hall of Fame earlier this month. This is a huge step for a latino woman in the US. She says: "Diversity on the bench is so important because the people that come to court come from all different walks of life, different ethnic backgrounds, different religious backgrounds." However, if it's a sign of diversity, this is a very weak sign. Just think, we are indigenous inhabitants of this land and we were cut off all privileges since gabachos came and stole our land. So, it took almost 500 years for our woman to reach a prestigious position in the government that is not really caring about us! Whether there are latinos or not, authorities will continue to deport us from our indigenous land!

Ad Text	ATTENTION! COMMUNITY CALLS FOR A BOYCOTT! Disturbing video shows Sung Ho Lim, an owner of Missha Beauty (in Charlotte, NC), kicked and choked a Black woman! This man absolutely crossed the line! According to Lim, he saw the unidentified woman stealing eyelashes. But, in the video, you can hear the woman tell Lim, “Check my bag. I’m telling you I don’t have anything.” And why did he attack her? Did he try arrest her or what? Corine Mack of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg chapter of the NAACP demanded that Lim apologize to the Black community in Charlotte. But folks, I want it be not only the boycott of this exact store but all shops and stores where Black people were treated disrespectfully! We don’t believe apologies, especially when we know that this man is sorry only about profit he's going to lose! Williams&Kalvin www.youtube.com

Ad Text	Repost from @Williams&Kalvin ATTENTION! COMMUNITY CALLS FOR A BOYCOTT! Disturbing video shows Sung Ho Lim, an owner of Missha Beauty (in Charlotte, NC), kicked and choked a Black woman! This man absolutely crossed the line! According to Lim, he saw the unidentified woman stealing eyelashes. But, in the video, you can hear the woman tell Lim, “Check my bag. I’m telling you I don’t have anything.” And why did he attack her? Did he try arrest her or what? Corine Mack of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg chapter of the NAACP demanded that Lim apologize to the Black community in Charlotte. But folks, I want it be not only the boycott of this exact store but all shops and stores where Black people were treated disrespectfully! We don’t believe apologies, especially when we know that this man is sorry only about profit he's going to lose!

SELENA FACT

After being locked out of the tour bus Selena volunteered to slip through a small window to unlock Big Bertha. It sadly resulted in her getting stuck because her rear end was to big to fit through the small window. After a few attempts they were able to free her. "I will never forget that."

Ad Text	FINALLY! TWO GEORGIA POLICE OFFICERS HAVE BEEN FIRED AFTER VIDEO SHOWS THEM KICK BLACK MAN DURING TRAFFIC STOP Two Georgia police officers have been fired after police released the footage of the encounter where two Gwinnett County cops kicking a black college student during a traffic stop. According to a police report, 21-year-old Demetrius Hollins was pulled over near Lawrenceville for changing lines several times without signaling. When cops stopped him, Hollins was seen on video standing with his hands raised before one of the officers was seen punching the motorist in his face, and the second cop racing to the scene later, only to stomp Hollins in his face. The 21-year-old man said he feared for his life when he saw police approach him. Hollins raised his hands up in order to let him know that he didn`t have anything where he could hurt him, but police beat him. Moreover, after the incident cops wrote in their police report that Hollins resisted arrest and claimed that Hollins refused to place his hands behind his back and resisted arrest. Cops literally lied and had no shame. This incident embarrassed and the Gwinnett County police and all law enforcement. They should be held accountable for their actions. Resignation is not the answer. We did not hear any criminal charges, even though they admit the cops broke the law. Where is the justice? FINALLY! TWO GEORGIA POLICE OFFICERS HAVE BEEN FIRED AFTER VID...

Ad Text	Shocking video was captured by the police officer body cam. On September 4, 2013, a student from the University of Central Florida Victoria King was pulled over by officer Timothy Isaacs for a bad tail light. The situation escalated quickly when the police officer demanded King to roll down her window ‘’all the way” to receive her ticket. When King refused, which by the way was a perfectly legal thing to do, the police officer broke out the car window and arrested her in a brutal way. Instead of simply citing her, the police officer demanded the woman to obey and threw her to the ground. When you're Black no violation is small enough. Every contact with the police ends brutally for Black people and nothing seems to change. Video source @[540176322666035:274:Police The Police]

Flint still doesn't have clean water.

Black children are still being murdered by police.

Prisons still profit off of black and brown bodies.

The confederate flag still waves.

but the US is still bombing Syria

Some believed Trump would withdraw the U.S. from useless and bloody military campaigns. But what we see is only the enhancement of hostility. We don't need wars no more! We want peace! It's time for politicians to take care of the U.S. residents instead of fating them, as well as other nationals, to death. We're organizing a peaceful gathering to draw public attention to the above-mentioned terrible problem. Our President and Congress must listen to those who granted them power - us, the people. If you also think that there should only be peace, come with us and let's make it happen. Stop war! Stop killing the innocent! Make peace, not war! Make peace, not war!

Your thoughts?

The Flint water crisis began in 2014 and this problem hasn't been solved yet.
But they spend $ 1,500,000 to bomb Syria for no real reason...

Ad Text	The US-led coalition strike in Syria's Raqqa province killed 12 women, the Syrian Observatory for Human Rights said this morning. The second coalition strike on a town near the Iraqi border killed 23 more civilians. Just to make it clear: our government is proposing spending cuts to most government agencies to pay for large increases in military, and everything we got from this is more and more civilians deaths. EPA, State and other development programs, Agriculture, Labor, Justice, Health and Human Services, Education, and many other domestic agencies faced more than 20% cuts in their budgets, and only the Department of Defense has grown by 10%. However, terrorists weren’t destroyed in ’30 days’ and it seems like they won’t be destroyed in the closest perspective. I mentioned before, and I will do it again: this is not a war against terrorism or a war ‘for freedom’, it’s another example of money conflict, filling politician's pockets with blood money is the main goal of it. For America, another continuous military conflict can lead to a financial crisis, this is exactly what happened in 2008.

Ad Text If you also think that there should only be peace, come with us on June, 3 and let's make it happen.

Stop war! Stop killing the innocent! Some believed Trump would withdraw the U.S. from useless and bloody military campaigns. But what we see is only the enhancement of hostility. We don't need wars no more! We want peace! It's time for politicians to take care of the U.S. residents instead of fating them, as well as other nationals, to death. We're organizing a peaceful gathering to draw public attention to the above-mentioned terrible problem. Our President and Congress must listen to those who granted them power - us, the people. If you also think that there should only be peace, come with us and let's make it happen.

That's why the US often offers Mexicans to join the armed forces, in exchange for what they promise to give American citizenship. In this regard, Mexicans are often sent to the war zone in Syria or other countries, from where they sometimes do not return. Many Mexicans have to go for it, as today the process of obtaining American citizenship can last for years and even dozens of years. The US policy towards Mexicans is becoming increasingly brutal, therefore, it is necessary to stop any attempts by the US government to send Mexicans to the war zones, where they fight for any unknown goals.

On April 16 Plummer, his mother, and his 14-year-old little brother did not see the police lights because the unit was parked down the road. Plummer called 911 to report the burglars and then grabbed his Grandfather's shotgun that was given to his mother for protection. When Plummer went to the door, the scared kid fired a warning shot to fend off the would-be burglars. However, the shotgun blast hit one officer in the arm and the other in the face. Ordinary Americans get zero profit from oil wars that last for years but don’t end. Iraq, Syria, Afghanistan, we’ve been involved in conflicts in these countries for years, and none of these conflicts gave us anything but growing state debt.

Ad Text	I believe Ron Paul’s position on our foreign military policy is absolutely right. After all, it was Trump who promised to put America First and promised to end Obama’s policy of wasting budget money on military operations overseas. “We’re not going into Syria”, Trump said it to calm down those who got really concerned about a possibility of America getting involved into another war. I really want to trust these words, but unfortunately many high-ranked politicians want to force Trump to pull America into another war. Here’s what Ron Paul thinks about it: “By the end of this month, Defense Secretary James Mattis and National Security Advisor HR McMaster will deliver to President Trump their plans for military escalations in Afghanistan, Iraq, and Syria. President Trump would be wise to rip the plans up and send his national security team back to the drawing board – or replace them. There is no way another “surge” in Afghanistan and Iraq (plus a new one in Syria) puts America first. There is no way doing the same thing over again will succeed any better than it did the last time.” Syria will be just another oil war; Iraq cost our country 4,500 soldier lives, and why the hell are we still in Afghanistan? We’ve started the whole Afghanistan thing to beat the Soviets, and no there’s no Soviet Union on the world map, and all the communists left on this planet are only Chinese and Californian students.

Ad Text	The Obama Administration turned a great idea of fighting terrorism into drawing our country into another regime change venture. Our military presence in Syria now doesn’t serve American interests. Our soldiers are there to fight and die for Globalists, Saudis and Israelis, but not for Americans. And that’s why we keep on talking about it: this policy is directly opposite to the “America First” concept. I believe Trump can fix it, just like he promised. Sadly days after days and weeks after weeks of Trump’s presidency there are no changes in that direction. Israel captured a Syrian region named Golan Heights in 1967, and today this land is internationally considered to be occupied territory. Israelis want to use Trump’s influence so the world would acknowledge Israeli sovereignty. Trump is a dealer, and maybe he’s trying make a deal out of it, but there’s one important thing here: under no circumstances can our soldiers’ lives be put at risk for that. So many times during the presidential campaign Trump said “let’s bring back our soldiers home”, and now it’s really time to do it. This is not our war.

We could have solved thousands of economic and security problems by simply rejecting the aggressive military policy we've been having for so long. Iraq war didn't end terrorism, and didn't solve the Islamization problem. If we repeat the same war in Syria, we'll only get the same result: no profit for American citizens and several thousands of dead American soldiers. Ad Text	Our politicians should never forget that. We’ve been watching our military commandership wasting lives of American soldiers for too long, let’s hope it will end now when Trump is in charge. A new Marine Corps artillery unit was sent to assist Syrian opposition in Raqqa, according to Army Maj. Josh T. Jacques, a spokesman for U.S. Central Command. The artillery unit recently replaced about 400 Marines from the 11th Marine Expeditionary Unit, which provided artillery support to Kurdish and Syrian Arab forces expected to launch an offensive against Raqqa. We must deal with ISIS and end the terrorist threat once and for all. Unfortunately that’s hardly possible because of the corruption in the Government. The Swamp in DC is still not drained from people like Senator McCain, and that’s why our troops not only focus on defeating terrorism, but also getting involved into another regime change venture and possibly another oil war. We’re fighting radical Islamists, but we’re also siding with Syrian opposition, the very same radical Islamists, and there’s absolutely no guarantee that these rebels won’t replace ISIS when it’s gone. There’s only one chance to avoid another Iraq: Trump and the American nation must defeat globalist politicians and the Establishment. All we can do now is to pray for all American soldiers to return back home alive and safe.

Ad Text	This is a call for love. This is a call for mercy. This is a call for compassion to all those suffering in Syria now. For all the families who were forced out of their homes, for the mothers who had to watch their sons and daughters suffering, for the children who are now orphans because of this terrible wicked war. Words can’t heal their pain; our tears won’t bring back those who left us already; nothing can console our grief right now. However, we have the duty to save those whose lives are still at risk. For the sake of these people, we have to work to end this terrible war. Unfortunately, we haven’t seen much development in this direction. Bombing random targets and going for momentary aims, taking reckless decisions and shifting our focus off crushing terrorists only leads to more casualties among civilians and creates even more suffering. We have to stick to our agenda and work to protect people, launching additional missiles on them won’t help. Pray for peace to return to Syria and work sanely to bring this moment closer!

It makes everything worse that the spirit of hatred is again aimed on all Muslims who in fact have nothing to do with disgusting radicals who organize such gruesome acts. The whole Muslim community condemns terror! Islam would remain the religion of peace no matter how hard those terrorists try to promote the opposite image! These people hurt Islam and the best way we can protect it is the art of compassion and love towards all people suffering at the hands of radicals! Ad Text	Those duplicitous politicians say they want to end the war in Syria though all they do makes the situation worse and leads to more blood spilled in the Middle East. Unfortunately, many of these hypocrites have infiltrated the American establishment. Such people benefit from regional conflicts and war is nothing more than business for them. It was these people who launched the missiles that never hit no terrorists but led to civilian casualties. It is them who keep receiving money from the same actors who sponsor ISIS and other groups. These people want more American involvement because it means more money for them and they don’t care about the terrorists. In fact, radicals really help them increase their bloody income. The only way to resist the corrupt elites is to oppose military actions with no particular aim and promote anti-terrorist agenda! Focus on what’s truly important and we will end the war in Syria sooner than you can imagine.

Ad Text	Everyday we watch, read and receive news of police beating, assaulting, and killing innocent people. These videos and instances have become so common that people are rarely shocked by even the most brutal of cases. We were wondering how long time would it take to make people fighting back? So now, karma's coming back for blue pigs! A shocking video was shared on social media Tuesday showing two police officers being attacked. Two unidentified men were seen beating up the two officers for seemingly no reason. The incident occurred Monday afternoon in Northeast Philadelphia after two school police officers were called to break up a fight outside of a local pizza shop. As we can see police couldn't stop the fight. Now we see what kind of police do we have. Those cops are slow weak doughnuts, who can do literally nothing without using their guns. Cops can blame themselves when shit like this happens. They live by their own laws, they can break your arms and legs, torture you with chemical and electrical ways, rape or even kill you "doing their job." All those things and more are well within departmental policy. So I'd rather give a fight for my rights than ignore the fact our country becoming a Nazi States of America. Look around, the only other thing that will happen is that people will whine about it, but will ultimately do nothing to actively stop this behavior, and this is why cops are so violent now. If we want to stop it, we should fight as our ancestors did it for centuries. Take out a few dozen cops and the rest will change. Amen.

Ad Text	Cops are allergic to cameras, they don't like being recorded because it won't allow them to break the law and lie about the circumstances which presented them the opportunity to break the law. ?WARNING!!!? In yet another disturbing video of police escalating violence in a public school, a Philadelphia school cop was caught on video in an intense altercation with a student. According to the Philadelphia Student Union, of which the alleged victim, Brian Burney, the incident was all over a dispute over using the bathroom. The student, who recorded the incident, was told to delete it. All that is left is a brief clip showing the officer, who is twice the size of Burney, on top of him. I don't understand why are there cops in schools? Cops are nothing more then a bunch of bullies or gang members in police uniforms! Whatever happened to deans? Moreover, don't you think it's a bit strange, when an officer forces someone to delete video? Obviously, police is trying to hide something and their testimony should be considered a lie. Also, is not destruction of evidence a crime? What do you think about it guys? Please, share or comment below.

Yes, it's more than nine times the 352 deaths acknowledged by the U.S. military. Innocent Syrian civilians are dying for no reason, people in America still suffer from unemployement, injustice and police brutality, but they still spend money for bombing the Middle East.

Ad Text	New administration’s budget proposal to Congress includes $1.7 trillion in mandatory spending cuts over 10 years, including $800 billion from Medicaid and $193 billion from food stamps. At the same time, this proposal, called "A New Foundation for American Greatness", includes a boost in military spending and $1.6 billion for the construction of the border wall with Mexico. To be honest, I’m not sure, that the wall and another pointless war, instead of affordable health care and help for those in need, is what we have to keep our focus on. It seems like republicans are using every single possibility to get more money for their wars, and they don’t mind it if average Americans live in poverty or without affordable medicine. Why additional billions to Military? Our Department of Defense budget is already bigger than military budgets of the next eight countries combined, isn’t it enough? Here is what Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer said: "Based on what we know about this budget, the good news -- the only good news -- is that it’s likely to be roundly rejected by members of both parties here in the Senate -- just as the last budget was"

Ad Text	The administration is requesting a $54 billion increase in military spending for 2018. Not a small sum, it's roughly equal to the entire annual military budget of France, larger than the defense budgets of the United Kingdom, Germany, and Japan, and only $12 billion less than the entire Russian military budget of 2015. But what about domestic and State Department spending? For example, such an increase for the Department of Defense means 31% cut in the EPA's budget and a 29% cut in the State Department. In other words, it's a great number of opportunities squandered in favor of the interests of high-powerful warmongers in our government. Environment, diplomacy, alternative energy, housing or infrastructure repair? Not today. Today they want thousands of peaceful people to die for their money interests. And they use every opportunity to start another war, they are acting the same way in Syria. Start thinking!

They made the slaves wear this so they wouldn't eat the corn while picking it in the field...no its a fashion for white models. The moment you stop teaching your children history things like this will be allowed and accepted.

Ad Text	In a recent interview, Barack Obama said that not bombing Syria “required the most political courage”. He said that sending troops to Syria was a very difficult decision, but not bombing Syria was even harder to make. Obama was hated for not taking actions, but it’s better for being hated for not killing innocent people that for starting a useless war. Though it was tough, Obama did a great job keeping away from the war that would take millions from the US budget and get innocent people killed. Unfortunately, the recent government didn’t think twice, before they started bombing Syria. They will cut the support of Black families in the US to kill innocent kids in Syria. How did we come to this?!

In a recent interview, Barack Obama said that not bombing Syria “required the most political courage”. He said that sending troops to Syria was a very difficult decision, but not bombing Syria was even harder to make. Obama was hated for not taking actions, but it’s better for being hated for not killing innocent people that for starting a useless war.

Ad Text	An indigenous woman will be running for president of Mexico in 2018. Mexico hasn't have an indigenous president since Benito Juarez and that was over 130 years ago. The indigenous communities that are part of the National Indigenous Congress decided to struggle collectively, for another way of doing politics and for the right to live. I hope her policy will be the opposite of the U.S. policy, which does not spare its citizens and sends them to fight in the Middle East to satisfy their political ambitions. Source: [redacted]

An indigenous woman will be running for president of Mexico in 2018. Mexico hasn't have an indigenous president since Benito Juarez and that was over 130 years ago. The indigenous communities that are part of the National Indigenous Congress decided to struggle collectively, for another way of doing politics and for the right to live. I hope her policy will be the opposite of the U.S. policy, which does not spare its citizens and sends them to fight in the Middle East to satisfy their political ambitions. Source: [redacted]

Ad Text	Today Americans are able to elect a president with godly moral principles. Hillary is a Satan, and her crimes and lies had proved just how evil she is. And even though Donald Trump isn’t a saint by any means, he’s at least an honest man and he cares deeply for this country. My vote goes for him!
